REPORT.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
December 31, 1855.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Poor Law Board, beg leave to submit to Your Majesty the following Report of our proceedings during the year 1855:

We propose, according to the arrangement of subjects adopted in our Reports for previous years, to state, in the first place, the expenditure for the relief of the poor; secondly, the number of persons in receipt of relief; and then shortly to advert to such other matters, connected with the administration of the poor law, as it appears to us desirable to notice.

Expenditure for Relief

The poor rate returns for the year ended the 25th of March last, summaries of which are inserted in the Appendix, show that the sum of 5,890,041*l.* was expended for the relief of the poor during the year, being an increase of 607,188*l.* as compared with the sum expended during the preceding year.

The following Table shows the comparison of the two years' expenditure more in detail:—

Years ended Lady-day.	Expended for Relief of the Poor in England and Wales.	Increase in 1855, as compared with 1854.	Increase per Cent.	Rate per Head on Population.	Increased Rate per Head.
1855	5,890,041*			6 3

Note.—The Summary of the Poor Rate Return inserted in the Appendix (page 66) sets forth the expenditure, the total of which is shown in the above Table, more in detail. This expenditure comprises "in-maintenance" (column 1.), "out-relief" (column 2.), "workhouse loans repaid, and interest thereon" (column 3.), "salaries and rations of officers" (column 4.), "other expenses of or immediately connected with relief" (column 5.) Those "other purposes" comprehend the cost incurred for emigration, for the maintenance of lunatics in asylums, for extra medical relief and fees, and for the burial of paupers.

Our attention having been directed to the fact of this increase in the expenditure for relief, we thought it desirable to make inquiry of our inspectors, with the view of ascertaining the causes which in their judgment had led to it. Their Reports in reply to the inquiry are set forth in the Appendix. From these reports there is reason to infer that the increase in the expenditure of 1855, as compared with 1854, is, in a great measure, to be attributed to the severity of the winter, and to the continued high price of many of the principal necessaries of life. The latter cause has obliged the Guardians in many instances to increase the amount of money allowances to the permanently disabled and aged poor receiving out-door relief, while the expenditure on account of relief in kind, and of supplies for the use of workhouses, has, for the same reason, been augmented. The returns relating to pauperism will show that some of this excess of expenditure is attributable to an increase in the number of persons in receipt of relief.

The rate per cent. of this increase in the expenditure, as it respects each of the counties in England and Wales, is as follows :—

Average of the 22 years (1834 to 1855) .			6 2	1 6¼

It will be observed, that as respects the expenditure per head of the population, the year 1855 was slightly above the average; while as regards the expenditure per pound of the annual value of rateable property, the excess above the average was more considerable.

In the following Table the expenditure per head of the population, and the expenditure per pound of the annual value of rateable property, are given for the several years from 1834 to 1855. The years are arranged with respect to each of these two heads according to the amount expended, beginning with the highest sum and ending with the lowest. The expenditure per head, in 1855, will be seen to have been lower than it was in six, and higher than it was in fifteen years of the series; while the rate in the pound was lower than it was in two, and higher than it was in nineteen years of the series.

The expenditure per head was 10½*d.* more in 1855 than in 1853, the lowest year of the series; and the expenditure in the pound in 1855, was 6½*d.* above that of 1837, the lowest year, and only 1½*d.* below that of 1834, the highest year. It will be observed too, that the expenditure in the pound in 1855, was only exceeded in the years 1834 and 1848; the one, the year before the amendment of the Poor Law, the other, including a portion of the year of the potato famine.

The Annual Poor Rate Return, the only Return which shows the annual expenditure for all purposes connected with the relief of the poor, and for the whole of England and Wales, is made up for the year ending the 25th of March; and the preceding statements, taken from that return, have, therefore, reference to the expenditure for the years ending at that period.

The following statements show the amount expended for relief only, in unions and parishes under Boards of Guardians, and afford the means of comparing the expenditure under that head for the years ending respectively on the 29th of September 1854 and 1855, as well as those ending on the 25th of March of the same years.

Increase		46,570	95,444	142,014 or 3·7 per Cent.

Note.—The amounts of the expenditure for the years ended at Lady-day and Michaelmas 1854 as stated above, differ from the amounts for the same periods as stated in the last annual Report. This arises from the fact that the amounts stated above comprise the expenditure of a larger number of Unions than was included in the amounts stated in the last Report.

Of the 3,979,491*l.*, shown by the first of these tables to have been expended during the year ended at Lady-day 1855, for in-maintenance and out-relief, the sum of 793,648*l.* is found to have been expended in relief to irremovable poor. The expenditure for relief to this class of poor is not, however, distinguished in several large parishes; and if the total of the expenditure (158,470*l.*) for in-maintenance and out-relief in those parishes be deducted from the total of the expenditure of such relief in the 623 Unions and Parishes, the cost of the relief to irremovable poor will be seen to amount to no less than 20·7 per cent. on the total expenditure for relief.

Number of Persons relieved.

The numbers of persons of all classes in receipt of relief on the 1st day of January and the 1st day of July 1855 respectively, in the several unions and parishes under Boards of Guardians, are shown in the following summaries of returns received from the unions and parishes, the numbers for the preceding year being stated for purposes of comparison.

Increase on 1st July 1855 compared with 1st July 1854		2,962	3,820	6,782 or 5·4 per cent.

Returns have been received, during the progress of printing this Report, of the number of persons in receipt of relief in 624 Unions and Single Parishes, under Boards of Guardians, in England and Wales, on the 1st January 1856. Summaries of these returns are inserted in the Appendix (pages 150 and 151).

The following is a comparison of the number in receipt of relief (in-door and out-door) on the 1st January 1856, with the number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1855:—

As respects paupers of all classes,—

The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1855 - 850,453
The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1856 - 876,655

Increase - - - - 26,202 or 3·1 per cent.

As respects adult able-bodied paupers,—

The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1855 - 144,500
The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1856 - 152,174

Increase - - - - 7,674 or 5·3 per cent.

In twenty-four of the English counties and in seven of the Welsh there appears to have been an increase in the number of the adult able-bodied paupers in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1856, as compared with the number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1855; but in all the other counties there was a decrease. The rate per cent. of the increase and decrease in the several counties is as follows:—

Increase.

Bedford . . . . . 16·9	Monmouth . . . . 14·0	Wilts . . . . . 2·4
Buckingham . . . 5·9	Norfolk . . . . . 4·6	Worcester . . . . 17·5

The foregoing summaries do not comprehend the persons in receipt of relief in certain places under Local Acts, in parishes incorporated under Gilbert's Act, or in Single Parishes not comprised in Unions, which together contain a population of 1,471,180.

In order to exhibit the pauperism of the whole of England and Wales, we have, in the TABLE below, made an estimate of the numbers in receipt of relief, in the places not included in the above summaries, based on the actual numbers in receipt of relief in the places which are included therein; that is to say, we have estimated the pauperism of places comprising a population of 1,480,403* to be in the same proportion to that population as the pauperism of places comprising a population of 16,559,597*; and in order to show the average numbers at one time in receipt of relief during the whole year, we have taken the mean of the numbers, in receipt of relief on the 1st of January, an d the 1st of July respectively. The Table gives a view of these important particulars for each year from 1849 (being the first year for which they can be given) to 1855.

The decrease in the average number of paupers of all classes in receipt of relief at one time in 1855, as compared with 1849, is shown to be 17·5 per cent.; and as regards able-bodied paupers the decrease in 1855, as compared with 1849, appears to be 35·9.

Workhouse Schools: Industrial Training.

We have continued our endeavours to impress on Boards of Guardians the essential importance of the extension of industrial training in Workhouse schools, and we have reason to hope that the value of such training is now very generally recognised. We think it important, however, as bearing upon this point, to insert the following extract from a report recently received, as to the general state of

* The difference between these numbers and those stated in the last Report is owing to the fact, that the actual pauperism of several places has been returned during the last year, the pauperism of which was estimated previously.

his district, from our Inspector Sir J. Walsham, a copy of which is inserted in the Appendix:—

"A good deal has been attempted in the way of industrial training, by hiring or purchasing land, upon which, in the great majority of my Unions, the boys are employed, as well as by establishing washhouses and laundries for the girls, by teaching them to cook, and (in the Saffron Walden, Bosmere and Claydon, Cosford, Plomesgate, and Wangford Unions) by keeping cows.

"There are but few Unions, in fact, and those chiefly in Kent (where the children can be got early out to service), in which boys are not or may not be employed in spade husbandry. But it is far more difficult to induce Guardians to keep cows; although nothing can have been more satisfactory than the result of training the girls to dairy work in the few instances in which the experiment has been tried. I should, however, observe, that even the possession of land in connexion with the Workhouse will not positively ensure that the boys are regularly set to work upon it. Schoolmasters, more especially good Schoolmasters, rarely remain long in the same Workhouse School, and few of them know much, or care much, about the cultivation of land. The duty of superintendence consequently devolves chiefly upon the Masters of Workhouses, and is by them often delegated to the porters or to elderly inmates. The boys moreover have to be taught the use of the spade, &c., this gives trouble to the superintendent; and as the processes of cultivation can be carried on more rapidly by the employment of adult labour (which all Workhouses can supply), it requires on the part of the Visiting Guardians a degree of vigilance and interest in the subject, which I am afraid very few exercise, to prevent the cultivation of the five or six acres of land (originally hired or bought for the exclusive purpose of industrial training) from being carried on, if not chiefly, at all events too frequently and too largely, by means of the able-bodied men, or of the old men capable of doing some work. I know of no remedy but the establishment of District Schools for this fatal (and I apprehend increasing) obstacle to the successful development of that industrial training of the boys in the Workhouse Schools of rural districts which we had hoped to have found in the adoption of what formerly was best known among Unions by the name of 'The Quatt system.'"

A statement will be found in the Appendix (page 155) showing the average number of children attending the Workhouse School of every Union in England and Wales, as well as the number attending District Schools, during the half-year ended at Lady Day last; and also the amount of money paid in each case, from the Parliamentary Grant, in respect of the salaries of the teachers. The following is a summary of this statement: —

Emigration.

The number of persons who have received assistance from the Poor Rate during the year to emigrate has been very small; amounting in the whole to only 158.

Vaccination.

A summary of the Returns of the number vaccinated by the public vaccinators during the year ended at Michaelmas last, together with the number of births, is given in the Appendix, page 180. This summary shows the number of persons vaccinated by the public vaccinators in England and Wales during the year to have been 464,099. The number of cases in which vaccination was successful was 448,519.

Workhouses built or enlarged.

Satisfactory progress has been made during the year in providing new Workhouses, and in enlarging or improving existing Workhouses.

We have affixed our Seal to the plans of new Workhouses for the following Unions; viz., Chester-le-Street for 140 inmates, Conway for 60 inmates, Dolgelley for 60 inmates, Dudley for 680 inmates, Kings Lynn for 420 inmates, Manchester (Township) for 1,600 inmates, North Bierley for 400 inmates, Runcorn for 200 inmates, West Bromwich for 600 inmates, Wigan for 700 inmates, and Brighton (Parish) for 748 inmates; and to plans for the enlargement or improvement of the Workhouses of the following Unions; viz., Bath, Berkhampstead, Berwick-on-Tweed, Biggleswade, Bishops Stortford, Bradford (York), Bridgend and Cowbridge, Carlisle, Carnarvon, Chard, Clun, Cookham, Darlington, Daventry, Durham, Easthampstead, East Retford, Edmonton, Ely, Epping, Eton, Fareham, Gateshead, Glanford Brigg, Glossop, Gravesend and Milton, Halifax, Hampstead (Parish), Hastings, Hexham, Huntingdon, Kidderminster, Lewes, Liverpool (Parish), Longtown, Newton Abbot, Oldham, Ringwood, Romford, Rotherham, Saddleworth (Township), Salford, Shoreditch (Parish), Stafford, Stepney, Stockport, Strand, Tetbury, Uttoxeter, Westham, Wimbourne and Cranbourne, Wolverhampton, and Wycombe. We have also to report that we learn from our Inspector, Mr. Pigott, that "during the past year the pauper children of the Oxford incorporated parishes have been removed from the crowded and ill-classified City Workhouse to the Industrial School at Cowley, when a favourable opportunity will be afforded of testing the efficacy of such institutions in preventing pauperism." Mr. Pigott also reports that the Managers of the Farnham and Hartley Wintney District School are proceeding with the erection of the new District School at Crondall, in place of the school at Aldershott which has been purchased by the Board of Ordnance for the use of the Camp.

Legislation. Union Charges and rating Stock in Trade. 18 & 19 Vict. cc. 47 & 51.

Referring to the legislative proceedings of the last session, we have to observe, in the first place, that by the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 47. and c. 51. the temporary Act which renders certain classes of poor persons in Unions chargeable upon the Common Fund, and that which exempts the inhabitants of parishes from liability to be rated as such in respect of stock in trade and any other property, were renewed for another year.

Education of the Children of Out-door Paupers. 18 & 19 Vict. c. 34.

Although the Poor Law Amendment Act contemplates, in sect. 15., that children who are in a workhouse shall be educated therein, and consequently sanctions the expenditure of the poor rate towards the cost thereof, while the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. contains express provisions for the establishment of district schools, we have always considered that Boards of Guardians had no legal authority to expend money in providing the means of education for the children of paupers who may be relieved out of the workhouse. Sanction is, however, now given by the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 34. to the expenditure by Guardians of the poor rate in granting additional relief to persons who are relieved out of the workhouse, to enable them to provide education for their children in such schools as the Guardians shall approve of, subject to regulations from this Board.

We have lately addressed a letter to all Boards of Guardians explaining in detail the provisions of this Act, and offering suggestions as to the proper mode of carrying it into execution. From information which we have received from various quarters we have reason to believe that many Boards of Guardians are giving their careful attention to the measure, and we trust it will be soon brought into extensive operation.

Burial of Paupers. 18 & 19 Vict. c. 79.

In consequence of the closing of the over-crowded burial grounds in the parishes of the Metropolis, and in other parishes situated elsewhere, our attention was directed to the legal provisions which had been made for the burial of the dead bodies of poor persons by Boards of Guardians and Overseers, and which are contained in the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. sects. 31. and 56., and in the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 101. sect. 2. It will be seen that the legislature have in those Acts required that such dead bodies, when the Guardians undertake the interment thereof, should, under certain circumstances, be buried in places therein particularly described. By the operation of the Orders in Council it became impossible, in many cases, to obey this requirement of the law. We felt desirous of ascertaining the strict legal condition of this matter, and submitted a case to the Attorney General, Solicitor General, and Mr. Tomlinson, with reference as well to the poor dying in the Workhouse as to those dying out of it, where, according to the provisions above referred to, the proper place of burial would have been in a parish in which the burial grounds had been closed, and no other had been provided. We were advised by them that in such an emergency the Board of Guardians might legally bury the dead body of any person dying in the Workhouse out of the parish, and in a burial ground not belonging to it, but in respect of the dead body of a poor person dying out of the Workhouse they could not legally do so.

Under these circumstances the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 79. was passed which empowers the Guardians or Overseers, where the burial ground of the parish has been closed, or where it is so crowded that the burial therein would be improper, to cause the body to be buried in a burial ground in some other parish as near as conveniently may be to the parish where the burial would have been required to take place under the provisions of the Act 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. By the second section of the statute they are authorized to enter into agreements for the burial of dead bodies of poor persons with any legally constituted cemetery company or any burial board, and where no objection shall have been made by the deceased, his wife or next of kin, may bury any dead body in the cemetery or burial ground of such company or board. It is provided, however, that the agreement shall not be valid unless made with the approval of this Board.

Similar provisions were made in the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 105. with reference to pauper lunatics dying in asylums; and by sect. 13. the visitors or trustees of any such asylum are empowered to provide a consecrated burial ground for the reception of the pauper as well as the other lunatics who may die in such asylum.

The same Act, in sect. 14., deals with pauper lunatics whose settlements cannot be ascertained, who, being found in boroughs which do not contribute to the county rate, are sent to an asylum, registered hospital, or licensed house. The 12 & 13 Vict. c. 84. sect. 3. provided that such lunatics, when removed in pursuance of the provisions of the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 126., should be charged to the borough; but it became inoperative when the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 126. had been repealed by the 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. Accordingly that section is now repealed, and such lunatic paupers are rendered chargeable to the borough, the provisions contained in the latter statute relative to the chargeability of such class of paupers to a county being applicable to the case of a chargeability to the borough.

Destitute Lascars. 18 & 19 Vict. c. 91.

It is proper to notice the 22d sect. of the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 91., which makes it the duty of the East India Company to provide for and send home all destitute Lascars and other natives of the territories under their government, and enables the Guardians or Overseers, upon sending certain particulars to the Company, to be repaid the cost of the relief which they may expend upon any such destitute person, after the sending of such notice. We issued a circular* letter in August last to all Boards of Guardians, calling their attention to this enactment.

* See Appendix, page 26.

Removal of Nuisances. 18 & 19 Vict. cc. 116 & 121.

The statutes heretofore passed for the removal of nuisances and the prevention of diseases had given various powers to Boards of Guardians, and had likewise imposed upon them certain obligations with reference to those subjects. By two statutes of the last session, c. 116. and c. 121., the previous statutes were repealed, and the powers of Boards of Guardians in these matters, and the obligations to which they had been rendered subject, were removed, and were transferred to other local authorities therein specified.

We considered it advisable to point out to the Guardians the effect of the statute relating to the removal of nuisances upon their functions, in a circular letter, which is set out in the Appendix;* but we did not advert to the other statute, as happily the abatement of the cholera rendered it unnecessary, on the part of the Privy Council, to bring its provisions into operation.

Agricultural Statistics.

We stated in our last Report that we had, at the instance of the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, requested eight of our Inspectors, viz. Sir John Walsham, and Messrs. Hawley, Weale, Pigott, Graves, Doyle, Manwaring, and Farnall, to undertake as a further experiment, for the purpose of ascertaining the applicability of Poor Law machinery to the object in view, the collection of the agricultural statistics of the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, Southampton, Wilts, Leicester, Berks, Worcester, Salop, West Riding of York, Brecon, and Denbigh. This work has since been completed, and the Reports of the several Inspectors, embodying the result of the operation in each of the counties, have been laid before Parliament.

All which we most humbly submit to Your Majesty.

EDWARD PLEYDELL BOUVERIE,
President.

APPENDIX.

No. 1.

MEDICAL OFFICERS. — GENERAL ORDER of the POOR LAW BOARD regulating the Continuance in office of Medical Officers.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedules hereunto annexed ;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the Division or Divisions in which the said several Unions are respectively situate ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas, by a General Order of the Poor Law Commissioners bearing date the Twenty-fourth day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, and by divers other Orders, the dates whereof are respectively set forth in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions therein named, certain Regulations were made with reference to the qualification of Medical Officers, and their tenure of office.

And whereas, among other Regulations in the said General Order, and in the said other Orders, it is provided that every Medical Officer duly appointed shall, unless the period for which he is appointed be entered on the Minutes of the Guardians at the time of making such appointment, or be acknowledged in writing by such Medical Officer, continue in office until he may die or resign or become legally disqualified to hold such office, or be removed therefrom by the Poor Law Commissioners.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Regulation should be rescinded in respect of Medical Officers to be appointed after the Twenty-fifth day of March next.

Now therefore, We, the Poor Law Board, in pursuance of the powers given in and by the Statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby, with respect to the several Unions in the said Schedules mentioned, and with respect to every Medical Officer to be appointed therein, after the Twenty-fifth day of March next, rescind so much of the said General Order and of the said other Orders as contains the provision above recited.

And We do further Order and Direct, with respect to every appointment of a Medical Officer to be made, after the said Twenty-fifth day of March next, in any of the said Unions in the said Schedules mentioned, as follows :—

Article 1.—Every Medical Officer of a Workhouse duly qualified according to the Regulations of the Poor Law Board in force at the time of such appointment, and every District Medical Officer duly qualified as aforesaid, and residing within the District in which he is appointed to act, shall hold his office until he shall die, or resign, or be proved to be insane by evidence which the Poor Law Board shall deem sufficient, or become legally disqualified to hold such office, or be removed by the Poor Law Board.

Article 2.—Provided always, that if it be impracticable, consistently with the proper attendance on the sick poor, for the Guardians to procure a person so duly qualified and residing within the District in which he is to act, or if the only person or persons resident within such District, and so duly qualified, shall be deemed by the Guardians to be unfit or incompetent to hold the office of Medical Officer, then and in such case the Guardians shall cause a special Minute to be made and entered on the usual record of their proceedings, stating the reasons which in their opinion make it necessary to employ a person not so duly qualified or not so residing within the District in which he is to act, and shall forthwith transmit a copy of such Minute to the Poor Law Board for their consideration, and the Poor Law Board may, for such time as they may approve, consent to the employment by such Guardians of any person duly licensed to practise as a medical man, although such person be not so duly qualified or not so residing in the District in which he is to act as such Medical Officer.

Article 3.—Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Guardians in any case of emergency, or under any special circumstances, from appointing one or more Medical Officers to act temporarily for such time and upon such terms as the Poor Law Board shall approve.

MEDICAL OFFICERS. — CIRCULAR from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians on the above General Order.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
15th February 1855.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to remind the Guardians that in the last Session of Parliament a Select Committee was appointed by the House of Commons "to inquire "into the mode in which Medical Relief is now administered in "the different Unions in England and Wales." The Committee, after a careful investigation, adopted by a very large majority the following Resolution, which they subsequently reported to the House:

"Your Committee recommend that every Medical Officer to "be appointed after the 25th of March 1855 should "continue in Office until he may die, resign, or become "legally disqualified to hold such Office, or be removed "therefrom by the Poor Law Board."

With a view of giving effect to this Resolution, the Poor Law Board have thought it their duty to issue the accompanying Order. The Guardians will see that it has the effect of placing the Union Medical Officer, with regard to the tenure of his Office, upon exactly the same footing as that upon which every other Union Officer is already placed; an arrangement so natural in itself, that it has for some years past been adopted voluntarily in more than half the Unions throughout the Country, not only without practical inconvenience, but, as the Board believe, with real advantage to the administration of the Poor Law in those Unions. The Board direct me to express their confident hope that in the Unions where a different arrangement has hithereto prevailed, the effect of the new Order will be found equally satisfactory.

I am, &c.
COURTENAY,
Secretary.

To
The Clerk to the Guardians.

No. 3.

ELECTION OF GUARDIANS.—CIRCULAR from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
SIR, 28th February 1855.

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to call your attention to the proviso in Article 6 of the General Consolidated Order of July, 1847, which is as follows:—

> "Provided that, whenever the day appointed in this Order for the performance of any act relating to or connected with the election of Guardians shall be a Sunday or Good Friday, such act shall be performed on the day next following, and each subsequent proceeding shall be postponed one day."

By Article 20 of the above-mentioned Order, provision is made whereby, in case any Voting paper duly delivered at the address of the Voter, shall not have been collected through the default of the Clerk, or the persons appointed or employed for that purpose, the Voter in person may deliver the same to the Clerk before twelve o'clock at noon on the 8th day of April; but as that day in the present year falls upon a Sunday, the proper day for delivering such voting paper to the Clerk will be Monday the 9th of April.

Under these circumstances, it is requisite that the examination and computation of the votes under Article 21 should take place on the 10th of April, so as to allow a due interval between the proceedings respectively provided for by Articles 20 & 21.

The Board have deemed it advisable to give this intimation, as they have observed in certain Almanacks an inaccuracy in reference to these dates.

I am, &c.
COURTENAY,
Secretary.

To
The Clerk to the Board of Guardians.

No. 4.

SALARIES OF MEDICAL OFFICERS AND TEACHERS.—CIRCULAR from the POOR LAW BOARD to District Auditors.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
23d March 1855.

SIR,

ON the 1st June 1849, the Poor Law Board addressed a Circular Letter to the several Unions, respecting the Half-yearly Return* of Salaries of Medical Officers, and Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses in Workhouse Schools. The Circular stated as follows :

> " The Return is to be signed by the Chairman of the > " Board of Guardians, and the Clerk, and laid > " before the Auditor at the time of his Audit, who > " will compare the several payments inserted
> " therein with the proper vouchers, and certify
> " to the correctness of the same."

It is found that the Return in question has been in many instances not laid before the Auditor, in accordance with the above instructions; and the Board therefore direct me to request that where this is not done you will call for the Return, and in the event of its not being produced, forthwith report the fact to the Board.

It will be well to recal to the recollection of the Guardians, that as the Medical Officers, and Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses, do not keep any accounts which render the condition imposed by Art. 31 of the General Order of Accounts applicable to them, their Salaries may be paid at the close of each Quarter, without waiting for the completion of the Audit of the Half-yearly Accounts.

In some cases it has been stated, as a reason for the non-production of the Return, that the second Quarter's Salaries of all the Union officers have not been wholly paid at the time of the Audit. If, however, the two Quarters' Salaries of the Medical Officers and Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses have been paid, and the vouchers for the several payments are laid before the Auditor at the time of the Audit, this Return may be made without reference to the payment of the Salaries of other officers.

The Board have observed in some instances that the expenses incurred by the Guardians in consequence of the prevalence of cholera, in providing extra Medical attendance, gratuities to Medical Officers, and similar charges, have been inserted in Table I., of the Return, and a claim made for repayment of a moiety of such expenses from the Parliamentary Grant. These expenses, however, not being payable out of that Fund, should not be included in the Return. The Grant, it should be remembered, is limited, so far as Medical Relief is concerned, to the repayment of a moiety of the fixed Salaries of the Medical

* See a Form of the Return at p. 23.

Officers, exclusive of Fees for Midwifery and Surgical Operations, and to the repayment, where the Guardians have a Dispensary, of half the cost of Medicines and Medical and Surgical Appliances, and of the Dispenser's Salary, but no other expenses connected with a Dispensary can be repaid from the Grant.

With respect to the Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses, the whole of their Salaries, as sanctioned by the Board, should be inserted in Table II., column 3, and not the amount specified in the certificate of the Committee of Council. This latter amount should be inserted in column 7.

Where the Schoolmaster or Schoolmistress does not reside in the Workhouse, and is not provided with rations, the Guardians are required to allow the sum of 15*l.* a year in lieu thereof, in order to entitle them to receive from the Grant the sum specified in the Certificate.

I am desired to request that you will be good enough to impress on the several Clerks of Unions in your District, the necessity of transmitting the Return to this Office, as soon as the same has been signed by you.

I am, &c.
COURTENAY,
Secretary.

To District Auditor.

CHOLERA IN WORKHOUSES, 1854.—CIRCULAR from the POOR LAW BOARD to Medical Officers.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
26th April, 1855.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to transmit to you, on the other side, a Copy of a Letter which they have received from the General Board of Health; and to request that you will have the goodness to forward to this Board, with as little delay as possible, answers to the Queries sent to you herewith, and referred to in the Letter of the General Board of Health, so far as the Workhouse for which you are Medical Officer is concerned.

I am, &c.

Enclosure 1.

The General Board of Health, Whitehall,
23d April 1855.

MY LORD,

I AM directed by the General Board of Health (with reference to the Queries prepared in this Office for circulation among Medical Officers with a view to elicit Information as to Cholera in Workhouses in 1854) to request that you will move the President of the Poor Law Board to take such steps as he may think best adapted for procuring the Information sought, as soon as possible, as Sir B. Hall is anxious that the General Reports on Cholera in 1854, for the purpose of which this Information is required, should be completed at an early date.

I have the honour to be,
My Lord,
Your most obedient servant,
T. TAYLOR,
Secretary.

To Viscount Courtenay,
&c. &c. &c.
Poor Law Board.

LASCARS.—CIRCULAR from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
31st August 1855.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to call the attention of the Guardians to a provision which has recently been made by the Legislature, with reference to the relief of Lascars and other natives of the territories under the government of the East India Company, who may be found destitute in this country, and also with reference to the repayment of such relief out of the revenues of the East India Company.

The provision referred to, is contained in the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," and is as follows:—

18 & 19 Vict. cap. 91. sec. 22.

"It shall be the duty of the East India Company to "take charge of and send home or otherwise provide for " all persons, being Lascars or other natives of the terri" tories under the Government of the said Company, who " are found destitute in the United Kingdom; and if " any such Person is relieved and maintained by any " guardians, overseers, or other persons administering

" the relief of the poor, such overseers, guardians, or " other persons may, by letter sent through the post or " otherwise, give notice thereof, in writing, to the Secre" tary of the Court of Directors of the East India " Company, specifying, so far as is practicable, the fol" lowing particulars, viz.:

" 1. The name of the person so relieved or main" tained:

" 2. The presidency or district, or part of the terri-
" tories of the East India Company, of which he
" professes to be a native:

" 3. The name of the ship in which he was brought " to the United Kingdom:

" 4. The port or place abroad from which such ship
" sailed, and the port or place in the United " Kingdom at which such ship arrived, when he " was so brought to the United Kingdom, and the " time of such arrival:

" And the said East India Company shall repay to the " said Overseers, Guardians, or other persons, out of the " revenues of the said Company, all monies duly ex-
" pended by them in relieving or maintaining such " destitute person, after the time at which such notice
" aforesaid is sent, or otherwise given."

In calling the notice of the Guardians to this enactment, the Board desire, at the same time, to direct their attention to the 16th clause of the Act of the 17th and 18th Victoria, cap. 120, which contains a provision applicable to a somewhat similar class of persons to those specified in the Act of the 18th and 19th Victoria, cap. 91.

I am, &c.
COURTENAY,
Secretary.

To
The Clerk to the Guardians of the Poor.

No. 7.

REMOVAL OF NUISANCES.—CIRCULAR from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
5th October 1855.

SIR,

THE Poor Law Board having received various inquiries from Boards of Guardians as to their powers in reference to the appointments of Inspectors of Nuisances, and other proceedings for the removal of Nuisances, deem it desirable to state that the Statutes 11 & 12 Vict. c. 123. and 12 & 13 Vict.c . 111. have been entirely repealed so far as they relate to England by the Statute 18 & 19 Vict. c. 121. which received the Royal Assent on the 14th August last.

The Powers conferred upon Boards of Guardians in Unions, and the obligations imposed upon them and their Officers by the two first-mentioned Acts have therefore ceased, except as regards proceedings commenced or taken under those Acts and not completed at the time of their repeal; these may be proceeded with under the authority of the Acts under which they were originally commenced.

The new Act confers no powers and imposes no duties upon the Board of Guardians in Unions, but requires that its provisions shall be carried into execution by the Local Authorities specified in the Act. In section 3, the different bodies who will constitute such Local Authorities are defined, and there are no terms in that section which will apply to the Board of Guardians of a Union.

Those Local Authorities are the following :—

In any Place within which the Public Health Act is or shall be in force, " The Local Board of Health :"

In any other Place wherein a Council exists or shall exist, " The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses by the Council," except in the City of London and the Liberties thereof, where the local Authority shall be " The Commissioners of Sewers for the time being ;" and except in the city of Oxford and borough of Cambridge, where the local authority shall be " The Commissioners acting in execution of the Local Improvement Acts " in force respectively in the said city and borough :

In any place in which there is no Local Board of Health or Council, and where there are or shall be Trustees or Commissioners under an Improvement Act, " such Trustees or Commissioners :"

In any place in which there is no such Local Board of Health, nor Council, Body of Trustees, or Commissioners, and where there is or shall be a Board for the repair of the highways of such place, " that Board :"

In any place where there is no such Local Board of Health, Council, Body of Trustees, or Commissioners, nor Highway Board, a Committee appointed for carrying the Act into execution, by the name of " The Nuisances Removal Committee :"

In any Place wherein there is no such Local Board of Health, Council, Body of Trustees or Commissioners, Highway Board or Committee, and wherein there is or shall be " a Board of Inspectors for Lighting and Watching," under the Act 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 90., that Board with the Surveyors of the Highways :

In any place where there is no such Local Board of Health, Council, Board of Trustees or Commissioners, nor Highway Board, nor such Committee, nor Board of Inspectors for Lighting and Watching, "the Guardians and Overseers of the Poor, and the Surveyors of the Highways," in and for such place.

The Board desire, however, to add, that under section 10 of the Act, it is competent to any Relieving Officer who may be aware that a Nuisance exists within his district which is injurious to health, and falls within the description given by the Statute, to give notice thereof to the Local Authority, in order that such Authority may take cognizance of such nuisance, and cause, if they deem it requisite, the proper steps to be taken for its removal.

The nuisances to which the Act applies include—

Any premises in such a state as to be a nuisance or injurious to health.

Any pool, ditch, gutter, watercourse, privy, urinal, cesspool, drain, or ashpit, so foul as to be a nuisance or injurious to health.

Any animal so kept, as to be a nuisance or injurious to health.

Any accumulation or deposit which is a nuisance or injurious to health.

The Board request the Board of Guardians to communicate this information to the several Relieving Officers of their Union.

I am, &c.

W. G. Lumley,

Assistant Secretary.

To

The Clerk to the Guardians of the Union.

No. 8.

Weekly Return, Form B.

Circular from the Poor Law Board to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,

Sir, 10*th November* 1855.

The Poor Law Board addressed a Circular Letter to the clerks to the Boards of Guardians, dated the 20th May 1853, in which they stated as follows:—

"The Board, with the view of saving the clerk the trouble "of preparing two Weekly Returns, containing substantially the "same particulars, propose in future to devolve on the inspectors "the duty of extracting from the Form A. for the use of the "Board, the number of persons in receipt of relief; and thus to "dispense with the Form B."

The irregularity with which the Returns (Form A.) are, in many instances, made to the Inspectors, compels the Board to require that the use of the Return, Form B. may be resumed; and I am therefore directed to request that you will forward to the Board the Return, Form B. in respect of any of the past weeks of the current quarter for which you may not yet have made Returns to the Inspector; and that you will also transmit, direct to the Board, a similar Return at the close of each subsequent week, bearing in mind that perfect regularity in the matter is of essential importance.

The Return, Form A. should continue to be made to the Inspector as heretofore.

Twelve copies of the Return, Form B. are sent to you herewith for use. Any further supply that may be required will be procured by the Guardians at the cost of the Union.

I am, &c.

To COURTENAY,

The Clerk to the Guardians. Secretary.

NOTE.—By Persons in Receipt of Relief on "the last day" of the Week is meant not only Persons to whom Relief is actually given on that day, but Persons whose Allowance is for any period which includes that day.

The numbers of all the Paupers in Receipt of Relief at the cost of this Union, including non-resident as well as resident Paupers, should be inserted in this Return; but Paupers relieved at the cost of another Union, although relieved within this Union, should not be inserted in the Return.

Where there are two or more Workhouses in a Union, the numbers in each Workhouse should be stated separately.

No. 9.

LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to each of the POOR LAW INSPECTORS, on the Increase in Cost of Relief.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
24th August 1855.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to direct your attention to the accompanying Parliamentary Return, showing the amount expended for In-maintenance and Out-relief in the several counties of England and Wales during the years ended at Lady-day 1854 and 1855.

You will observe that the increase in the expenditure of 1855 as compared with that of 1854 is in several counties very considerable, and it would therefore be satisfactory to the Board if you would be good enough to state the causes which have in your opinion led to this increase in the several counties in your district in which the increase exceeds 5 per cent.

I have, &c.

HENRY FLEMING,
Assistant Secretary.

To Poor Law Inspector.

No. 10.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 6th November 1855) of EDWARD GULSON, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to the Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

As the increase of expenditure set forth in the return enclosed in the circular of August 24th, did not amount to 5 per cent. in any county in my district, I did not consider any observation on my part to be required.

As I am now, however, led to believe that a reply to the circular is expected from me, I beg to remark that the increase of expenditure as shown by the return is—

In Devon only - - -	1·4 and
In Somerset - - -	4·5 per cent.

whilst there is a decrease of expenditure

In Cornwall of - - -	0·7 and
In Dorset of - - -	7·4 per cent.

and in each of the above counties there is an actual decrease in the total number of paupers relieved, except in Somerset, where the increase is only 0·7 per cent.

Considering the increased price of all kinds of provisions and necessaries which prevailed in the half year ended Lady-day 1855, as compared with the same period of 1854, it appears to me that the extent of pauperism and of Poor Rate Expenditure in my district was more satisfactory during the six months referred to, than in many other parts of the country.

No. 11.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 25th August 1855) of W. H. T. HAWLEY, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to the Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

On a careful examination of the Return I find that there is no increase in any of the tables, either with respect to the amount expended in relief, or to the number of paupers relieved, amounting to 5 per cent., in any of the counties in this district. A report is therefore probably not required, but observing that there is an increase in the expenditure in three of the counties, whilst there is a decrease in the number of paupers of all classes (as shown in Table No. 1.) relieved in all the four counties comprised in the district, which appears to involve an inconsistency, I beg to offer the following remarks in explanation.

The increase in the expenditure I attribute to the rise in the price of all necessary articles of food, which has obliged the Guardians to increase the amount of money allowances to the permanently disabled and aged poor receiving out-door relief. The same cause has also increased the expenditure in relief in kind, and in the supplies for the workhouses.

The decrease in the number of paupers of all classes is to be traced partly to increased employment and partly to emigration, and the enlistment of agricultural labourers in the army and in the militia.

The increase in the number of able-bodied male and female adult paupers, as shown in Table No. 2., arises, I have reason to believe, from the severity of the weather during the winter; and the reason why a decrease is shown in the county of Sussex is, that that county possesses more woodland than the other three, and its soil is of a deeper and more retentive quality, and it consequently offers more employment to the labouring population during the winter in coppice cutting, draining, &c. &c.

I subjoin a table showing the results of the return in this district.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 15th September 1855) of RICHARD HALL, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

My district, which is the metropolitan district, including London and its suburbs, comprises nearly the whole of Middlesex, a considerable part of the county of Surrey, and a small portion of the county of Kent; the increase of expenditure exceeds 5 per cent. in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey.

I attribute the increase in Middlesex and Surrey to three causes, which are, in my opinion, sufficient to account for it.

1st. The cholera which prevailed in London during the autumn of 1854.

2d. The almost unprecedented severity and duration of the winter, which for some weeks in the early part of 1855 kept out of work all out-door labourers in London, including those who ordinarily gain their living on the river and in the docks.

3d. The high price of provisions during the latter as compared with the former of the two years in question.

To these causes I might probably add a general depression, caused by the war and increased taxation, in most departments of trade and business carried on in London, which by contracting employment diminishes the resources of the working classes, and so causes an increased demand upon the poor rates.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 24th September 1855) of ROBERT WEALE, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

I am not in possession of any specific details from the several Unions in my district to enable me to account for the increase in each, but from information I have obtained in visiting the several Unions I am led to believe the causes are as follows :—

1st. The continual high price of provisions.

2d. The costs of maintenance of the wives and families of persons serving the army, navy, and militia.

3d. The great severity of weather during the last winter.

4th. In Unions of a manufacturing character, depression in trade arising from war and other causes.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated the 25th August 1855) of Sir JOHN WALSHAM, Bart., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

As it regards my district, the cost of the relief of the poor, comparing the year ended Lady-day 1855 with the preceding parochial year, has decreased, not increased, in the counties of—

Cambridge (4·3 per cent.)
Norfolk (2·6 per cent.)
Suffolk (2·4 per cent.)

Kent is not wholly in my district, but the increase in this county is less than 5 per cent., being in fact 3·4 per cent.

In Essex also the increase is only 3·5 per cent.

I do not, therefore, appear to be called upon by the circular to state the causes which may, in my opinion, have produced (in the Kent and Essex Unions) a heavier expenditure for 1855 than for 1854.

But I may nevertheless add, that I attribute such increase to the high price of flour and bread affecting both the contracts for relief in kind, and the circumstances of those among the poor, who in cheaper times would probably not have been applicants for relief, and likewise to the burthens cast upon several Kent and Essex Unions by outbreaks of cholera. Epping, Romford, and Maldon in Essex, Dartford, Thanet, and Milton in Kent, suffered very severely in the summer and autumn of 1854 from cholera, whilst other Unions suffered from the same formidable epidemic, though in a lesser degree.

Increase in the Cost of Relief.—Extract from the Reply (dated the 30th August 1855) of Grenville Pigott, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

In the counties of Berks, Bucks, Kent, and Sussex the increase does not amount to 4 per cent. In the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, where the increase is respectively 14·3 and 13·4 per cent., it has taken place in the metropolitan portion of these counties not under my superintendence.

There remains the county of Oxford, where the increase amounts to 6·6 per cent. In my opinion this has been caused chiefly by the unusual amount of epidemic sickness of a serious nature (cholera and small-pox especially) which prevailed during the last autumn and winter in the Eastern Unions of that county, and partly also to the fact that the rate of wages in Oxfordshire being generally lower than in any other county of my district, the continuance of high prices during the last winter so completely exhausted the slender resources of the labouring classes as to drive more families than usual to seek relief in the workhouses, and also to bring sickness and consequent chargeability upon many others. I may remark also, that the Oxford militia was one of the first regiments embodied, and that in some cases the wives and families of able men enlisting have become chargeable through their absence from their parishes.

These causes, together with the yearly increase of population, appear to me sufficient to account for the increase of pauperism in the county during the year ending Lady-day last.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated the 10th October 1855) of J. T. GRAVES, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

In four out of the ten counties of my district the rate of increase has exceeded 5·8 per cent., the average increase of England and Wales; the increase in Monmouth being 10·9, in Radnor 7·9, in Carmarthen 7·7, and in Hereford 6·3.

In four other counties (namely, Cardigan, Pembroke, Gloucester, and Glamorgan) the increase has not exceeded the average increase, but has exceeded 5 per cent.

In Worcester the increase has fallen short of 5 per cent., and in Brecon there has been a decrease (with perhaps a decrease of population).

The general answer to the inquiries I have made as to the cause of increased expenditure has been "increase in the price of provisions," especially bread and cheese. This operates both to make more relief necessary, and to make an equal amount of relief more expensive. The latter effect is obvious, chiefly in Unions, where much relief is given in kind.

In Monmouthshire, where the increase of expenditure is greatest, I am informed that the last winter was more unhealthy than the winter before, and that the continued snow deprived many persons at Newport and elsewhere of employment for a longer time than in the Winter 1853–54. In Monmouthshire too (as also in Glamorganshire) some allowance must be made for increase of population.

Other causes adverted to, have been the inferiority of the potato crop of last year in portions of Cardiganshire, Carmarthenshire, and Radnorshire, the derangement of trade in the clothing districts of Gloucestershire in consequence of the war, the check upon employment occasioned by the increased taxation of employers, and the maintenance of the wives of soldiers upon service.

It would require, however, a more minute investigation than I have been able to institute to ascertain with accuracy the bearing of local and peculiar causes, and I consider the statement herein contained as of very little statistical importance.

No. 17.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 24th October 1855) of ANDREW DOYLE, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

The counties and rate of increase in my district are as follows:—

	Chester	14·9 per cent.
(Three Unions.)	Derby	7·6 per cent.
	Stafford	7·4 per cent.
	Anglesey	6·4 per cent.
	Flint	5·3 per cent.
	Merioneth	5·4 per cent.

I may observe generally that throughout my district there has been an increase of pauperism during the year ended Lady-day 1855 as compared with the preceding year. This increase may be attributed in a great degree to the extreme severity of the weather in the winter of 1855, and slightly to the prevalence of cholera in some parts of my district, and to the number of the families of soldiers and of militiamen that became chargeable. In the counties of Chester and Stafford it will be in the recollection of the Board that large numbers of the labouring classes became chargeable in consequence of the depressed state of particular branches of industry. In the Potteries and mining districts of Staffordshire, and in the silk works in Cheshire, severe distress prevailed for a short time. To the increase of pauperism attributable to such causes may in some degree be ascribed the increase in the relative expenditure of the year ended Lady-day 1855. That increase, however, is mainly owing to the increased cost of provisions. I find that in every Union in my district in which an increase in the expenditure has taken place the increased cost of provisions is assigned as the chief cause. This will appear more fully in the detailed statement of the causes assigned for the increase in the several Unions in which an increase of expenditure has taken place.

CHESTER.

Altrincham.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 7,141
Ditto 1854	6,084
Increase	£ 1,057

The increase in this Union is ascribed to the severity of weather during last winter, and the number of families of men in the militia and on foreign service being relieved.

Great Boughton.—The cause assigned by the Guardians for the increase in this Union is the high price of provisions, which has also caused a slight increase of pauperism.

Chester.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 5,467
Ditto 1854	4,945
Increase	£ 522

The only causes to which the increase is to be ascribed in this Incorporation are the increased price of provisions and the severity of weather in the winter of 1855.

Congleton.—The increase of 147*l.* in the expenditure of 1855 as compared with that of 1854, which took place in this Union, was in consequence of the long and severe frost of last Christmas, and of the wives and families of militiamen becoming chargeable.

Macclesfield.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 5,295
Ditto 1854	4,682
Increase	£ 613

The above increase is mainly owing to a very serious depression of the silk trade.

Nantwich.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 7,078
Ditto 1854	6,750
Increase	£ 328

The only cause to which the above increase may be ascribed is the increased price of provisions.

Northwich.—In this Union there is a decrease of 86*l.* 13*s.* 1*d.* in the out-relief, while there is an increase of 87*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.* in the in-maintenance during the year ended Ladyday 1855 as compared with that of 1854, which increase is attributable to the increased price of provisions.

Runcorn.—The increase of 402*l.* which took place in the expenditure of this Union is attributed by the Union officers to the prevalence of cholera during a part of the last year, and also to the want of a workhouse.

Wirral.—The increase in the expenditure of this Union is ascribed to the increase in the price of provisions (this is the principal cause); the great severity of the last winter, during which 3,080 individuals were relieved in consequence of the frost, at a cost of 224*l.* 3*s.* 7½*d.*; to the increased number of widows, and of wives and families of militia-men; and to the rapid increase in the population.

DERBY.

Chapel-en-le-Frith.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 1,299
Ditto 1854	1,274
Increase	£ 25

There is but a slight increase in this Union.

Glossop.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 1,291
Ditto 1854	1,095
Increase	£ 196

The increase which has taken place in this Union has been occasioned by an increased price of provisions.

Hayfield.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 892
Ditto 1854	834
Increase	£ 58

In this Union there was less demand for manufactured goods, to which the above increase may be ascribed.

STAFFORD.

Burton-upon-Trent.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 4,770
Ditto 1854	4,577
Increase	£ 193

This increase is caused mainly by the increased price of provisions. The Burton brewers employed fewer men during the last year in consequence of the high price of hops, to which, in some degree, the increase in the expenditure may be attributed.

Cheadle.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 2,436
Ditto 1854	2,333
Increase	£ 103

The increase of 103*l.* which took place in this Union is entirely occasioned by the increase in the price of provisions. The amount expended for bread alone shows an increase of 176*l.* as compared with the preceding year, while the quantity consumed of that article is about the same for each year.

Leek.—In this Union there is an increase of 71*l.* in the expenditure of 1855 as compared with that of 1854, the cause of which is attributed to the increased price of provisions, particularly of bread.

Lichfield.—Expenditure of 1855	£ 4,680
Ditto 1854	4,378
Increase	£ 302

The only cause to which the above increase is to be ascribed is the increased price of provisions.

Newcastle-under-Lyme.—The increase which took place in this Union was in consequence of the increased price of provisions.

Penkridge.—Expenditure of 1855	- - - -	£ 2,743
Ditto 1854	- - - -	2,561
	Increase - -	£ 182

In-maintenance increased 3¼*d.* per head per week in this Union, and the amount expended in bread alone in 1855 exceeds that of 1854 by 155*l.*; therefore the only cause to which the above increase of 182*l.* may be ascribed is the increased price of provisions.

Seisdon.—The increase which occurred in the expenditure of this Union is to be ascribed to the increased price of provisions, together with an additional amount of sickness in the year ended Lady-day 1855.

Stafford.—The expenditure of this Union has been increased in consequence of the increased price of bread in particular and of provisions generally, badness of trade in some measure, and an extraordinary number of widows with large families becoming chargeable within the year ended Lady-day 1855.

Stoke-upon-Trent.—The great depression in this district, which caused some manufactories to fail, others to be suspended, and some to give work but a day or two per week, compelled many hundreds to apply for relief. To this, together with the increased price of provisions, the increase in the expenditure of this parish may be ascribed.

Stone.—Expenditure of 1855	- - - - -	£ 2,811
Ditto 1854	- - - - -	2,598
	Increase - -	£ 213

This increase is attributable to the increased price of provisions.

Walsall.—The increase in the expenditure of this Union in the year ended Lady-day 1855, as compared with that of 1854, arises from the severe cold and frost of last winter, and from the increased price of bread and other provisions. Some portion of the increase is attributable to the support of wives and families of soldiers and militiamen.

West Bromwich.—The increase which took place in the expenditure of this Union may be attributed in some measure to the falling off in trade, and consequent desertion of families by their parents, but chiefly to the increased price of provisions.

Wolstanton and Burslem.—The increase of 614*l.* in the expenditure of this Union is accounted for by the increased price of provisions, the depression of trade in the district, and the increased amount of sickness.

Wolverhampton.—The increased price of provisions, less demand for labour, the severity of weather during last winter, and the wives and families of soldiers and militiamen becoming chargeable, are assigned as the causes of the increase in the expenditure of this Union.

Anglesey.

Anglesey.—Expenditure of 1855	- - - - -	£ 7,289
Ditto 1854	- - - -	7,161
	Increase - -	£ 128

The above increase in the expenditure of this Union is to be attributed to the severity of weather last winter and the increased price of provisions.

Holyhead.—The increase which occurred in the expenditure of this Union has been caused in consequence of the severe weather in the winter of 1855, and to the suspension on that account of the works at the new harbour of refuge at Holyhead.

FLINT.

St. Asaph.—The increase which occurred in the expenditure of this Union may be attributed to the high prices of provisions.

Holywell.—The only cause to which the increase in the expenditure of this Union can be ascribed is the increased price of provisions.

MERIONETH.

Bala.—The increase of 145*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* in the expenditure of this Union is ascribed by the Union officers to the increased price of provisions.

Corwen.—The slight increase which has taken place in this Union is attributed to the increased price of provisions.

Dolgelly.—Expenditure of 1855	- - - - -	£ 4,534
Ditto 1854	- - - -	4,309
Increase	- -	£ 225

The above increase may be ascribed to the high price of provisions, the prevalence of typhus fever, and the inclemency of the weather during the last winter.

Festiniog.—The slight increase, viz. 60*l.*, which occurred in this Union, is attributed to the increased price of provisions.

Generally throughout this district the increase in the expenditure has not been out of proportion to the increase in the price of provisions.

Although Salop is not included amongst the counties in which an increase took place, yet there are few Unions in that county which are exceptions. A statement which has been published, signed by the chairman of the Madeley Union, exhibits with clearness the causes of the increase in the expenditure of that Union. The increase in the expenditure on account of maintenance of lunatics is a circumstance to which attention has been drawn by the Guardians of several Unions in my district, in some of which the increase has been proportionately much greater than in Madeley.

No. 18.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 27th August 1855) of JOHN MANWARING, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

Judging from what I know of the Nottingham Union, I should suppose the increase in Nottinghamshire to arise from the depression of trade in the manufacturing portion of the county, coupled with the fact of the county militia being supplied chiefly from the manufacturing towns, as the returns in my possession do not show any material increase in the other Unions of the county which are comprised in my district. The manufacturing Unions of Mansfield, Basford, and Radford are not in my district.

The same observations will apply to the West Riding of Yorkshire, as in the Unions in my portion of it (which are agricultural) there is little difference between the two half years. And as regards Derbyshire, and the East and North Ridings of Yorkshire, the increase may probably arise from the unusual severity of the spring, which affected pauperism much more in some parts of the country than in others; but there are three Unions in Derbyshire, and five in the North Riding, which are not comprised in my district.

Referring to the summary of returns (No. 1.), I observe that on the 1st July 1855 1080 paupers more were relieved in Nottinghamshire than on the same day in 1854. From the returns in my possession it appears that 699 of that increase were in the Nottingham Union alone.

No. 19.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 2d November 1855) of H. B. FARNALL, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter, No. 9, Page 31.

Immediately on the receipt of your instructions, I corresponded with the clerks of the forty-six Unions in my district, and the returns they sent me, together with calculations and observations which I have made upon them, form the basis of this report.

The estimated population of the forty-six Unions in my district is at present 3,290,043, a number which I obtain by adding 1·2 per centum per annum to the ascertained population of 1851, which was found to be 3,136,749, so that there is an increase at the present period of 4·8 per centum on the population of 1851.

In my district there is one Union in the county of Chester, twenty-seven Unions in the county of Lancaster, and eighteen Unions in the West Riding of Yorkshire; and the annexed Table marked "A." shows the comparative average weekly pauperism of each Union in the district (arranged in counties) in the years ended at Lady-day 1854 and 1855, together with the per-centage of increase or decrease (as the case may be) for 1855, as compared with 1854.

You will observe that the number of paupers relieved for the year ended Lady-day 1855 was 114,133, being only 3·5 per centum on a population of 3,290,043, and that there was a decrease of pauperism in the year ended at Lady-day 1855, in seven of the Unions in this district as compared with the pauperism of 1854.

I now pass on from the number of paupers above referred to to the amount of relief expended upon them, and submit for your consideration the Table annexed marked "B." showing the comparative expenditure for in-maintenance and out-relief in the several Unions in this district for the years ended Lady-day 1854 and 1855 respectively.

I have arranged this Table in counties, so as to comply with the requirements of your instructions to me dated the 24th of August last.

I have first to direct your attention to the fact that there was a decrease in the expenditure alluded to for the latter year in the Unions of Barton-upon-Irwell, Garstang, Leigh, Ormskirk, Prestwich, Wigan, Halifax, Settle, and Wortley, and that the increase does not exceed five per centum in the Unions of Burnley, Salford, West Derby, Dewsbury, Saddleworth, and Wakefield, which leaves me the expenditure of thirty-one Unions within this district to report on to you.

Before I proceed more particularly to analyze that expenditure, I have to point out to you that the total expenditure in in-maintenance and out-relief in the forty-six Unions of this district, for the year ended Lady-day 1855, was 469,725*l.*, and as the net rateable value of the property assessed to the poors' rate in these Unions in the year 1852 was 9,096,238*l.*, this relief was covered by one levy in the year ended Lady-day 1855 of one shilling and three eighths of a penny in the pound.

I have great gratification of informing you that there are at present only 108,319 paupers on the books of the forty-six Unions in this district, whereas the average weekly number of paupers for the year ended at Lady-day 1855 was 114,133; thus a decrease is shown at the present period of 5,814 paupers per week, which gives a per-centage of pauperism on population of only 3·3.

I have next to state the causes which have led to an increased expenditure in 1855, as compared with 1854, in the thirty-one Unions, which have exceeded five per centum.

These Unions are:—

1. Stockport.—Increase 1,136*l.* on an expenditure of 6,545*l.*, in 1854, or 17·3 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The chief cause of increase of expenditure is the price of provisions. In the Hazel Grove district the slackness of the silk trade has much affected that portion of the Union. The cotton trade, though rather depressed, has been at full work, with but few exceptions. The principal cause of decrease or increase is, in my opinion, the cheapness or dearness of provisions."

2. Ashton-under-Lyne.—Increase 700*l.* on an expenditure of 6,253*l.*, in 1854, or 11·2 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"I consider the increase of expenditure is attributable to the uncommon severity of the winter, and the increased price of provisions during that half year."

3. Blackburn.—Increase 2,384*l.* on an expenditure of 6,848*l.*, in 1854, or 34·9 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"I think this excess has been in a great measure induced by the severity of the weather during the last winter and spring, in conjunction with the high price of provisions. A great many able-bodied labourers were relieved during the long frost, being unable to work at their usual out-of door labour on account of the severe frost. There was also more than an usual average of sickness and mortality during the last quarter of that year."

4. Bolton.—Increase 1,528*l.* on an expenditure of 12,677*l.*, in 1854, or 12·0 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"This increase may be attributed to the severity of the weather, the high price of provisions, and the bad state of hand-loom weaving and iron trade in this Union."

5. Bury.—Increase 1,119*l.* on an expenditure of 11,585*l.*, in 1854, or 9·6 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" In my opinion there are four causes for the increase of the expenditure in relief in this Union in the year 1855 as compared with that of 1854, and I put them in the order of importance in which I think they stand :—

" First. The increased desertion of families by husbands and fathers.

" Second. The increasing want of a sufficient workhouse test.

" Third. The increased price of provisions.

" Fourth. The increased number of fathers imprisoned by the County Court Judge for non-payment of debts. In most cases it would be cheaper for the Guardians to pay the debts."

6. Chorley.—Increase 546*l.* on an expenditure of 4,740*l.*, in 1854, or 11·5 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" With regard to the cause of increased expenditure in the year ended March 1855 as compared with the previous one, it is no doubt the depressed state of most if not all branches of the cotton trade throughout the district. This increase, however, does not appear, on comparison of the two years, to be so great as it otherwise would, owing to the additional expenditure having commenced in the half year ended March 1854, owing to the Preston strike, and having been of course included in the expenditure of the year ended at that date. The difference, in fact, in actual relief, between the half years ended March 1854 and March 1855, is trifling; the original cause of the increased expenses was the strike, but their continuance after that cause had ceased to operate has been owing to the generally depressed state of trade. The actual increase owing to this cause is shown by comparison of the half years ended respectively September 1853 and September 1854."

7. Chorlton.—Increase 1,191*l.* on an expenditure of 6,608*l.*, in 1854, or 18·0 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" I attribute this increase to the high price of provisions and a scarcity of work during a long and severe winter. The class of persons who swelled the list of applicants for relief were chiefly Irish out-door labourers, connected with bricklayers, builders, and road contractors."

8. Clitheroe.—Increase 585*l.* on an expenditure of 4,164*l.*, in 1854, or 14·0 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" Relative to the causes of the increased expenditure in the year 1855 as compared with the year 1854, in this Union, I am of opinion that the following are the principal; viz.,

" First. The high prices of the common necessaries of life.

" Second. A scarcity of hand-loom weaving.

" Third. The suspension of the Messrs. Thomsons' print works, situate in the township of Clitheroe; also the the temporary suspension of another print works, situate in the township of Wiswell."

9. The Fylde.—Increase 232*l.* on an expenditure of 2,975*l.*, in 1854, or 7·8 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" In answer to your question relative to the increased expenditure in relief in the year ended Lady-day 1855 over that of the previous year, I think it was caused by the increased price of provisions and the inclemency of the weather during the last winter."

10. Haslingden.—Increase 280*l.* on an expenditure of 3.943*l.*, in 1854, or 7·1 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" I can scarcely say what has been the cause of the increase in the expenditure for the year ended Lady-day last in comparison with that of the previous year, unless it can be attributed in part to a difference in the prices of provisions and to the severe weather which prevailed in the early part of the present year, when out-door labourers were kept idle by the the frost for many weeks successively."

11. Lancaster.—Increase 435*l.* on an expenditure of 3,972*l.*, in 1854, or 10·9 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" The increase in the relief, as compared with 1854, was 434*l.* 12*s.*, nearly 11 per centum. The unusual severity and duration of last winter and the high price of provisions have operated to a considerable extent as causes of increase."

12. Liverpool.—Increase 15,022*l.* on an expenditure of 57,463*l.*, in 1854, or 26·2 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" The large expenditure which the Table exhibits for the year was doubtless owing to the extraordinary dearness of provisions, the cholera and its consequences, and the scarcity of work amongst the labouring classes during the inclement season."

13. Manchester.—Increase 15,276*l.* on an expenditure of 35,432*l.*, in 1854, or 43·1 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of the Township of Manchester as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

" The increase during the early part of the year 1855 as compared with the previous year (1854) may, I think, be attributed to depression in trade, but, at the same time, not to any serious extent. The continued high prices of the staple articles of food has doubtless operated during the whole year against the poorer classes ; but by far the most serious cause of increased pauperism was the extreme severity of the winter, which, as you are aware, was without a parallel for many years past. Our weekly out-door cases increased from 3530 in November to 6116 in March, and our weekly expenditure (out-door), taken at the same dates, from 470*l.* to 970*l.*, or after the rate of 25,000*l.* per annum. For a period of six weeks the whole of the out-door labourers of the district were thrown on the books. I think the above facts will be sufficient to account for the increase in our expenditure.

14. Oldham.—Increase 1,891*l.* on an expenditure of 5,678*l.*, in 1854, or 33·3 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of the increase is stated as follows :—

" I attribute the increase in the expenditure of this Union over the year 1854 to the present high price of provisions, to the scarcity of work, and, to some extent, to the enlisting and desertion of husbands, leaving their families chargeable to the Union."

15. Prescot.—Increase 726*l.* on an expenditure of 5,215*l.*, in 1854, or 13·9 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of the increase is stated as follows :—

" With reference to increased expenditure and its cause, I beg to state that in this Union the increase is owing principally, if not entirely, to the prevalence of cholera and fever during the autumn of last year, many widows and children having become permanent charges. The increased price of provisions has, no doubt, led the Guardians to give more liberal relief during the past year."

16. Preston.—Increase 1,045*l.* on an expenditure of 13,666*l.*, in 1854, or 7·7 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows :—

"Owing to the increased prices of many articles of food, meal, &c., less labour arising from different causes, the effects of the late strike, many being refused employment in consequence, and the wives and children becoming chargeable of men who have enlisted."

17. Rochdale.—Increase 612*l.* on an expenditure of 9,003*l.*, in 1854, or 6·8 per centum.

I have not received a report from the clerk of this Union; and as the increase is so slight I have not again addressed him on the subject.

18. Todmorden.—Increase 232*l.* on an expenditure of 3,923*l.*, in 1854, or 5·9 per cent.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The increase is less than I could have expected, considering the causes which have combined to produce the effect. I attribute this unfavourable position to the increased price of provisions, a scarcity of employment for hand-loom weavers, and the stoppage of two mills for several months, occasioned by the bankruptcy of the occupiers."

19. Warrington.—Increase 771*l.* on an expenditure of 4,613*l.*, in 1854, or 16·7 per cent.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The increase is, in my opinion, to be attributed to the price of provisions, the prevalence of cholera in the workhouse for a considerable period, in consequence whereof the in-door test could not be applied, and the long severe winter."

20. Barnsley.—Increase 1,066*l.* on an expenditure of 6,555*l.*, in 1854, or 16·2 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The increased relief has been caused by the depressed state of the linen trade for the last 18 months. The coal trade has also been bad; but this has added little if anything to the amount of relief, as, although the pits have been working short time, the men receive much better wages than weavers, and have not been under the necessity of throwing themselves on the Union, notwithstanding the diminution of their earnings.

"The depression in the linen trade has been caused by a combination of circumstances:—The war, and the contraction of operations by buyers consequent upon a state of war; over-trading; the transition state of the linen trade from hand-loom to power; and the fact of many descriptions of goods heretofore made in Barnsley being now made in Lancashire by power, and also in Scotland and Ireland by hand, owing to labour being cheaper there."

21. North Bierley.—Increase 1,815*l.* on an expenditure of 6,951*l.*, in 1854, or 26·1 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"I attribute the cause of the increase of the expenditure in relief in this Union in the year 1855 as compared with that of 1854 in a great measure to the depression of trade, which you are aware this neighbourhood has felt very much. A number of worsted mills in this Union had some time ago ceased working altogether, and those thrown out of employment could not for a length of time obtain work any where in the neighbourhood; this, and the high price of provisions, compelled them to apply for relief. In one word, I should say the cause of the increase in relief in this Union has been:—

"1st. The want of employment; and

"2d. The high price of provisions."

22. Bradford.—Increase 8,663*l.* on an expenditure of 10,471*l.*, in 1854, or 82·7 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"I beg to state some of the causes which, in my opinion, have led to the increased expenditure in relief during the year 1855 as compared with that of 1854. You will be aware that a great portion of the poorer classes in this Union consist of woolcombers and worsted factory operatives; and the great depression there has been during the year in the worsted trade caused a great number of these persons to be thrown on the poor rates. The cause of the depression of the worsted trade, which I am happy to say has now blown over, appears to me to be overstocking of the foreign markets, and that the war has had none or very little effect upon it. The severe winter we experienced likewise caused a very great number of masons, bricklayers, and other out-door labourers to become chargeable. With a view to test the destitution of the applicants for relief, and likewise to comply with the Orders of the Poor Law Board, the Guardians of this Union, soon after the depression began to show itself, organized an out-door labour test, which, I am happy to say, worked well. The greatest number we at any time had on the test was in February last, 477, which has been gradually reducing to the present time, there being now only 18."

23. Ecclesall Bierlow.—Increase 249*l.* on an expenditure of 4,105*l.*, in 1854, or 6·0 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The chief cause of the increase of the expenditure in this Union arises from the great falling off in the demand from the American market, this district being principally dependent upon the United States, and when any stoppage of that demand occurs great numbers of mechanics are then immediately thrown out of employment, and who have no other means of support but the parish fund to flee to. The demand also for the Russian market being now suspended has some influence, but no great deal. The high price of provisions through the winter has also been another cause of increase. The above are the principal reasons that have caused and are now causing the increase of the expenditure in this Union. Some expectations are confidently held out that a better demand for Sheffield goods will soon take place, which will remove the great bulk of the able-bodied out of the parish books."

24. Huddersfield.—Increase 2,422*l.* on an expenditure of 12,160*l.*, in 1854, or 19·9 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The principal and almost exclusive cause is the depression of trade, extreme severity of the winter, and dearness of provisions. The number of inmates in the workhouses was considerably greater during the last year, and the contract price of provisions considerably higher, oatmeal and flour being respectively 6*s.* and 4*s.* 6*d.* per pack higher than in the previous year. Out-door relief forms the most material item of increase; but I may call attention to the Lunatic Asylum account, which was for the last year upwards of 230*l.* more than in the previous year. This has arisen from a great increase in the number of lunatics as well as the cost of their maintenance."

25. Keighley.—Increase 5,276*l.*, on an expenditure of 6,981*l.*, in 1854, or 75·5 per cent.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The great increase of relief of the past year over former years arises, I believe, from the great number of worsted mills standing, and others only partially running during the last autumn and winter, and the very severe frost during the winter, when the people were out of work."

26. Leeds.—Increase 4,025*l.*, on an expenditure of 15,180*l.*, in 1854, or 26·5 per cent.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows:—

"The increase in the charge for in-maintenance may properly be attributed to the increased cost of provisions, as the number of inmates (upon a comparison of the numbers relieved in the two halves of 1854 and 1855) show an increase of only eight in-door paupers in the latter over the former year.

"But in the Michaelmas half of last year there was an increase of 905 in the persons who received out-door relief, as compared with the previous year; and in the half year ended at Lady-day last an increase of 1,609 over the same period of the preceding year. The increase of pauperism in the spring and summer quarters may be attributed to the falling off in the flax trade, and the machinery and tool-making businesses, occasioned by the war; and the further increase in the autumn and winter quarters to the continuance of those causes, and to the protracted frosty weather."

27. Pateley Bridge.—Increase 410*l.* on an expenditure of 1,474*l.*, in 1854, or 27·8 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk to this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows: —

"In *February last the Union was enlarged by the addition of the three townships of Birstwith, Bishop Thornton, and Clint, containing together a population of about 1,500, thus increasing the expenditure for out-door relief; and in consequence of the high price of flour and other provisions during the last winter, the Guardians were induced to increase generally the amount of out-door relief given to almost all paupers; something also should be allowed for the late depressed state of the trade of Bradford, Leeds, and other places, which caused an increase in the amount of our non-resident relief."

* Note.—This is evidently a mistake. The order of the Poor Law Board, dated 24th January 1854, declares that these three townships shall, on the 20th day of February 1854, be added to the Pateley Bridge Union.
H. B. F.

28. Penistone.—Increase 509*l.* on an expenditure of 1,916*l.*, in 1854, or 26·5 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk to this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows: —

"The only reason that I can assign for the increase in the expenditure of this Union arises from the dearness of provisions and the want of employment for the labouring poor."

29. Rotherham.—Increase 632*l.* on an expenditure of 6,813*l.*, in 1854, or 9·3 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk to this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows: —

"It no doubt arises partly in consequence of provisions being rather dearer and work not so plentiful."

30. Sheffield.—Increase 4,444*l.* on an expenditure of 16,123*l.*, in 1854, or 27·6 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk to this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows: —

"The increase referred to is mainly owing to the depressed state of trade during the last twelve months, in consequence of which large masses of people have been and are now thrown out of employment. I believe I am right when I say that at no period within the last ten or twelve years has trade fallen off anything like what it has done during the past twelve months. A slight increase has also been occasioned by the enlistment of men with large families, by which such families have been immediately thrown upon the poor rates for support. The latter, however, bears but a small proportion to the increase occasioned by the first-mentioned cause. The want of extended workhouse accommodation has also, I have no doubt, been the means of placing many on the relief lists whose names would not have appeared there, if the Guardians had been in a position to apply properly the workhouse test. The chief cause of increase, however, is that first stated, viz., the general depression of trade in the town of Sheffield."

31. Skipton.—Increase 1,245*l.* on an expenditure of 5,799*l.*, in 1854, or 21·4 per centum.

The opinion of the clerk of this Union as to the cause of increase is stated as follows: —

"The increase of expenditure compared with the last year has been mainly in the manufacturing part of the population; but the winter was long and severe, and provisions dear, so that all the labouring population was affected by these causes. Before there was any great depression of trade in the Bradford market, Messrs. Cravens of Keighley, very large manufacturers, employing a great number of hand-loom weavers, dissolved partnership, and stopped their works in order to wind up their partnership. Their hands were given to understand that the partners were about to carry on business separately, and would shortly require the services of their weavers, so that they did not look out for fresh engagements. This suspense continued till bad markets came, and then was prolonged for a considerable time. Then with the continued bad markets almost every mill in the Union ran for half time only. Several stopped, and are up to this time closed. Many of the mill-owners became bankrupt. The worst thing was the half employment,—the half time,—for it tied the hands to the place, expecting full employment. Now where the mills are shut up the hands have removed to other mills out of the district. I may remark, we have a many mills in wealthy hands; but the owners, during the depression of the markets, most of them closed their works for the avowed purpose of making repairs, &c."

Of the foregoing thirty-one Unions it seems to me that the increase of expenditure in twelve of them, viz., in Ashton-under-Lyne, Bolton, Bury, Chorley, the Fylde, Haslingden, Lancaster, Preston, Rochdale, Todmorden, Ecclesall Bierlow, and Rotherham, is sufficiently explained, and therefore require no closer investigation; but I think it right to offer you some further observation on the increased expenditure in twelve of the Unions in the above list, viz., on that of the townships of Liverpool and Manchester; on that of the Unions of Bradford, North Bierley, and Keighley; on that of Blackburn, Clitheroe, Huddersfield, Leeds, Penistone, and Sheffield; and on that of the Union of Pateley Bridge.

The average weekly pauperism of the parish of Liverpool may be safely estimated at 14,000 persons, but the winter of the year ended Lady-day 1855 was of such severity and prolonged continuance that an extraordinary number of poor persons were compelled for a short time to have recourse to the parish for relief. The extra number of poor persons who were thus forced on the poor rates of Liverpool, amounted to 18,765 paupers, making a total of 32,765 per week for a limited period. This extra pauperism was made up as follows :—

Irish	15,290
Scotch	260
Welsh	224
Aliens	36
	18,765

The books of the township of Manchester show that there were 3,797 families in receipt of parochial relief on the 3d of March 1854; and the same books shew that there were 6,116 families in the receipt of relief on the 4th of March 1855.

This pressure on the poor rates is mainly attributable to the hard and harassing winter of 1855, which exhausted the spirits and the means of many poor people who had been self-supporting prior to that period.

The Unions of Bradford, Keighley, and North Bierley form a district which is the great seat of the worsted manufacture in England, and the worsted manufacture was much more depressed in 1855 than any other trade. Mr. Alexander Redgrave, factory inspector, in his report dated 20th of December 1854, writes — "Bradford is the centre of the worsted factories, and during the "last six months the number of establishments which were fully "employed has gradually diminished, and there are now few "running full time; the return of new and occupied factories "corroborates the different conditions of the cotton, woollen, flax, "and worsted manufactures in my district. In the two former "the number of new factories greatly exceeds the number of "those closed, while of the worsted factories the number closed "is nearly double of the new and enlarged factories."

During this depression of the worsted manufactures, the steam machine supplanted the hand in wool-combing, and necessarily threw a very great number of persons out of work. The census returns show that in Bradford and its environs, in 1821, the manufacturing population was 70,847, and that in 1851 it was 181,964; while it is supposed that in 1854–55 the production of goods in Bradford was reduced to fully one third of the usual rate. The clerk of the Bradford Union, whose opinion I have already quoted, has assigned the real cause, viz., over trading, for the depression in the branch of manufacture to which I have alluded.

The depression was temporary; but while it lasted it produced great and painful suffering amongst the people; but they bore their difficulties with exemplary patience, while at the same time the Guardians of the poor were enabled to pursue a wholesome system of relief, which was sufficient for the poor and satisfactory to the rate-payers.

I cannot, I think, more clearly exemplify the positions, in the year ended Lady-day 1855, of the Unions of Blackburn, Clitheroe, Huddersfield, Leeds, Penistone, and Sheffield, than by submitting the following Table to your inspection.

Name of Union.	Total Number of Paupers relieved (in-door and out-door) on the 4th of March 1855.	Total Workhouse Accommodation in each Union on the 4th of March 1855.	Total Number of able-bodied Persons receiving out-door Relief on the 4th of March 1855.		Number of Children receiving out-door Relief on the 4th of March 1855.	Total.
			Adult Males.	Adult Females.
Blackburn -	3,490	439	178	451	1,573	2,202
Clitheroe -	1,571	180	147	151	712	1,010
Huddersfield	4,352	269	216	628	1,922	2,766
Leeds - -	5,075	624	354	974	2,078	3,406
Penistone -	584	..	34	108	232	374
Sheffield -	5,372	1,000	330	806	2,177	3,313
Totals -	20,444	2,512	1,259	3,118	8,694	13,071

Thus these six Unions, with a population in 1851 of 432,729, had to meet 20,444 paupers, with workhouse accommodation for 2,512 of them.

It will be seen that 4,377 able-bodied adults, together with 8,694 children, received out-door relief; and I am enabled to assure you that in the week ended the 4th of March 1855 only 231 able-bodied adults were relieved in-doors in these workhouses.

With the exception of the Agricultural Union of Penistone, which has no workhouse, the large and wealthy communities of the Unions just named are engaged in commerce and manufactures; but in the year ended Lady-day 1855 their usual prosperity was not at its height; the price of bread was high, and the winter, as I have already observed, most severe. Such changes as these are of frequent occurrence, and in this great manufacturing district they invariably throw many able-bodied persons out of employment; yet the Guardians of these Unions have from year to year systematically refused to provide against such contingencies by the erection of adequate workhouses, and the consequence was that in 1855 they met an excess of able-bodied pauperism with almost unconditional relief.

It is quite unnecessary for me to dwell upon the efficiency of the workhouse test, rightly employed; but I must say that in my opinion the Guardians of the Unions last named so treated their able-bodied paupers in the year ended Lady-day 1855 as to encourage the working classes to look to the poor rates in any future emergencies, rather than to provide against them by frugality and forethought.

The marked deficiencies of many of the workhouses of Lancashire and the West Riding, and the hostility with which many of the Unions in those counties received the order of the Poor Law Board dated the 14th of December 1852, induces me to bring under your notice certain circumstances which have lately occurred in the Salford Union.

It was only within the last two years that the Guardians of this Union supplied themselves with a new and adequate workhouse for their important Union, and in 1852 they came under the operation of the order to which I have alluded.

The Union of Salford comprises a suburb of Manchester. In the year 1851 its population was 87,514; its area in acres is 5,308; its net rateable value in 1852 was 277,414*l.*

The Guardians of this Union were most inadequately supplied with workhouse accommodation up to the commencement of the past year, the maximum accommodation of their old and ill-contrived workhouse being for 350 inmates.

The Guardians of this Union received the order of the Poor Law Board, dated the 14th of December 1852, with the utmost reluctance, and heartily entered into a coalition of Unions, with a view to obtain its total withdrawal.

I had the satisfaction of hearing the clerk of this Union declare a short time since, that the Guardians were altogether converts as regarded the order of the Poor Law Board, and were highly satisfied with the result obtained and to be obtained by their new well-arranged workhouse. I therefore wrote to the clerk upon these subjects, and I have now the pleasure of subjoining his reply to me.

" Dear Sir, Union Offices, Salford, 26th October 1855.

" I am directed by the Guardians of this Union to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th instant, requesting to be informed of the manner in which the new workhouse has operated as a test, and also as to the operation of the Prohibitory Order of December 1852.

" In reply thereto the Guardians desire me to offer to you the following observations, premising that, as we are now only just beginning our out-door labour tests, the whole of the returns, both for in-door and out-door, have been made up for the half year ended 29th September last.

" First, as regards the house.

" At the commencement of the half year we had in the house 144 males (of whom 14 were able-bodied), 213 females (of whom 7 were able bodied), and 228 children; total 585. We admitted during the half year 525, and discharged 572*, thus leaving 538 inmates in the house at the end of the half year, of whom 8 men and 2 women were able-bodied. Now, of this number (538) 69 were bedridden, 6 blind, 19 afflicted with paralysis, 23 idiots, and 5 confirmed epileptics without friends, and thus we have 122 persons who must be classed as permanent inmates, leaving 416 (203 of whom are children) as the number of inmates, amongst whom these 525 admissions and 572 discharges must have occurred; but taking into account the adults only, we have 277 admissions and 327 discharges amongst 213 inmates.

" Now I need offer no remarks to you upon the operation of the house as a test with these figures before you; the large number of admissions and discharges proclaims how satisfactory is the result.

" We now come to the orders actually given as compared with the numbers admitted. During the half year orders were given by the board or the relieving officers for the admission of 938 individuals; viz., 146 males, 343 females, and 449 children; and of this number only 488 availed themselves of the orders, viz., 106 men, 153 women, and 229 children (the remaining 37 having been admitted by the master or the overseers), thus leaving 450, or nearly 50 per cent., who would not accept relief in the house. Of these, of course a small number would afterwards be relieved by the relieving officers on account of destitution, although they would not come into the house; fix this at 50 (which I believe to be much above the actual number), and we have thus 400 people kept off our books by a workhouse test during the past half year, for had our house been full, and we been unable to issue these orders in consequence, the presumption is (and it is by no means an unfair hypothesis) that all these 400 people must have had out-door relief to a greater or less extent.

" Now, as regards Out-door.

" In August 1852 the Poor Law Board issued a Prohibitory Order, many of the provisions of which were deemed so strict that the Guardians of several Unions in this District, amongst which was our own, met for the purpose of agitating the question, and, if possible, procuring its abolition, or at least a modification, by the Poor Law Board, of some of its most stringent provisions. The Poor Law Board were induced to reconsider the Order, and in December of the same year issued a modified Order, and accompanying instructional Letter, when its provisions were at once put in force here, with the exception of the Labour Test, which the Poor Law Board allowed the Guardians to defer until possession should be taken of the new workhouse, which was shortly expected to be ready.

"In November 1853 the new house was occupied, and in the Spring of 1854 the out-door poor were set to work draining and levelling 3 to 4 acres of vacant land adjoining, under such supervision as one of the sub-officers of the house could afford, when not engaged in his regular in-door duties. This arrangement did not exhibit a satisfactory result, although better than allowing the able-bodied to receive money without work; and the Guardians then appointed an inmate of the house as superintendent of labour, at 12*s.* per week; still the result was unsatisfactory, as, having so lately been amongst them, he had no command whatever over them. During the severe weather of last winter the Guardians applied to the Poor Law Board, requesting them to suspend Art. 6. of the Prohibitory Order; but this the Board declined to do, and the Guardians proceeded to give the usual Order for work in each case. Fortunately the temporary pressure only lasted a few weeks; but meantime the Guardians had found less difficulty than they anticipated in carrying out the provisions of the Order. The Guardians then proceeded to consolidate the out-door and in-door labour departments, and place them under the direction of one superintendent, who is now holding the office, and under whom the three tests of land tillage, oakum picking, and corn grinding are carried on, the latter being by far the best test. During the past half year 128 individuals have received orders for work; 37 of these never worked at all or only part of the first week; 29 worked one week, but not two weeks, although all the cases had longer orders; whilst few worked the whole time of the orders. The consequence is, that upwards of 42*l.* of the orders of the Guardians was never paid which would have been paid had we had no work to offer, whilst the portion of the superintendent's salary chargeable to the out-door department was only 16*l.* 18*s.*, thus leaving a clear saving of 26*l.* towards the rent for half a year of three acres of land, independently of the crops.

"With this result, combined with their experience as to the other clauses of the Order, the Guardians have no fear of experiencing any difficulty in carrying out the Order in future, under all ordinary circumstances; and are convinced that it is based upon sound and politic principles, calculated, if fully worked out, to prevent imposture, and protect the interests of ratepayers.

"I am, dear Sir,

"To "Your obedient servant,

"H. B. Farnall, Esq. "JOHN ADAMSON."

With regard to the Union of Pateley Bridge, it should be remembered that three important townships were lately added, and further, that its workhouse is a most inadequate and ill-contrived building, capable of accommodating only 32 inmates.

I have already stated that the present pauperism of my district is 108,319; and in examining the foregoing tables you will no doubt observe that the parish of Liverpool, the township of Manchester, and the Unions of Bradford and Keighley were most depressed during the year ended Lady-day 1855, as compared with 1854; and I therefore think it my duty to inform you, that although there were, for the year ended Lady-day 1855, 15,005 paupers on the Liverpool books, there are now 13,006, being a decrease of 1999; and that although there were, for the year ended Lady-day 1855, 11,266 paupers on the Manchester books, there are now 9,354, being a decrease of 1912; and that although there were, for the year ended Lady day 1855, 4538 paupers on the Bradford books, there are now 3,301, being a decrease of 1237; and finally, that although there were, for the year ended Lady-day 1855, 3481 paupers on the Keighley books, there are now only 1936, being a decrease of 1545 ; so that these four Unions alone show at present a decrease of 6,694 paupers.

It will be remarked that an increase in the price of provisions for the year ended Lady-day 1855, as compared with 1854, is in almost all cases assigned as a reason for excess of expenditure in the former year ; and under these circumstances I consider it expedient to annex tables marked respectively "C." and "D.," which will show you the average prices of provisions consumed in the workhouse of a Lancashire Union and in the workhouse of a West Riding Union in the years ended Lady-day 1854 and 1855.

In conclusion, I have to draw your attention to the Parliamentary Return which accompanied your instructions to me to draw up this report. That return shows the amount of money expended for in-maintenance and out-relief in 623 Unions and single parishes in England and Wales during the half years ended at Lady-day 1854 and 1855 respectively ; whereas the report which I have now the honour of submitting to your consideration shows, so far as my district is concerned, a similar expenditure for the whole years ended at Lady-day 1854 and 1855 ; and I think it necessary to mention this in order to account for the difference in the amount of increase in expenditure per centum in this report and the Parliamentary Return to which I have alluded.

In that part of Cheshire which is within my district the amount of increase of expenditure for the above periods is 17·3 per centum, while the amount of increase for that county is stated in the Parliamentary Return to be 14·9 per centum.

In that part of Lancashire which is within my district the increase is 17·3 per centum, while the amount of increase for the county is stated in the Parliamentary Return to be 15·7 per centum ; and lastly, the increase in that part of the West Riding of Yorkshire which is within my district is 22·8 per centum, while the amount of increase for the county is stated in the Parliamentary Return to be 22·1 per centum.

I have, &c,

(Signed) HARRY BURRARD FARNALL,
Poor Law Inspector.

No. 20.

INCREASE IN THE COST OF RELIEF.—EXTRACT from the Reply (dated 22d September 1855) of E. N. HURST, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to Letter No. 9, Page 31.

It will be observed, that as regards the counties of Northumberland and Durham the increase does not amount to 5 per cent., and only to a slight extent do Cumberland and Westmorland exceed that amount; in the former of 10·2 per cent., and in the latter of 7 per cent.

In Cumberland I find it is attributed to the depressed state of trade amongst the hand-loom weavers, the high price of provisions, the chargeability of the wives and families of militiamen absent from their homes on duty, and the want of employment during the severity of the winter.

In Westmorland I believe it will be found chiefly to have arisen in the Kendal Union, from the failure of Messrs. Waithman and Co., Flax Spinners.

In the five Unions in the North Riding of York under my superintendence, and in that of Ulverstone in the county of Lancaster, the increased expenditure I am informed is immaterial, and attributable to the high price of provisions; whilst in the Union of Sedbergh, in the West Riding of York, by the financial statement, the items of in-maintenance and out-door relief are collectively less than at the previous corresponding period.

No. 21.

REPORT of SIR JOHN WALSHAM, Bart., Poor Law Inspector, to the POOR LAW BOARD, on Workhouse Accommodation and Educational Arrangements in his District, which comprises the Unions in the Counties, Cambridge (Part of), Essex, Kent (Part of), Norfolk, and Suffolk.

Bury St. Edmund's,
7th January 1856.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's letter of the 19th December, requesting that I will communicate to the Board such matters, if any, connected with my district, as may appear to me to require to be noticed in their Annual Report.

Upon a review of the circumstances under which the administration of relief has been conducted throughout the past year in the 75 Unions and Incorporations constituting my district, I do not find that there are any matters which can be strictly said to require to be noticed in the Report for 1855; but it may perhaps be desirable that I should remind the Board of the following points:—

1. Workhouse accommodation.

The Guardians of the city of Norwich and of the King's Lynn and Risbridge Unions have resolved to build new workhouses, their old workhouses being altogether inadequate. In Lynn the new workhouse is actually in progress; in the Risbridge Union and in Norwich sites have been selected; and for the former Union plans have been sanctioned.

The Guardians of the Gravesend and Milton and Lexden and Winstree Unions have very considerably enlarged the hospitals attached to their workhouses; in the Gravesend Union indeed a completely new hospital, admirably arranged, has been built, and the old infirmary thus rendered available for general purposes.

Considerable and much needed additions have been made during the autumn to the Romford Workhouse; plans for extensive additions to the West Ham Workhouse have likewise received the Board's sanction; and the Guardians of the Tendring and North Aylesford Unions have lately given directions for the preparation of plans, also on an extensive scale, for the enlargement of their workhouse.

The drainage of the Epping Workhouse, in which (as likewise in the Romford Workhouse) the cholera proved very fatal in 1854, has been now thoroughly reformed, and the detached hospital greatly improved; a large addition to the Freebridge Lynn Workhouse has been completed; so also has the new girls' ward in the Ely Workhouse; and the Faversham Workhouse has been converted from a very ill-arranged into a most convenient edifice, on a plan after which it is much to be desired that all the unimproved Kent Workhouses of 1834–35 might be altered.

From the above statement it will therefore be seen that during the last twelvemonths much has been satisfactorily done for the enlargement and improvement of the workhouse accommodation in my district.

2. Educational arrangements.

Nothing has, however, been effected towards the establishment of district schools among the Unions under my superintendence; and I consider that all attempts to induce the Guardians of those Unions to promote the formation of school districts will, as heretofore, be perfectly useless, so long as that formation depends exclusively on their consent, and so long as powers analogous to those vested in the Poor Law Commissioners by the 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76. s. 26., for the organization of Unions, are not available for the organization of school districts. I sincerely wish that such powers could be obtained from the legislature, for until the bulk of the children now brought up in workhouse schools can be educated in separate establishments, and removed altogether from the debilitating influences of workhouse associations, the reports of "the stagnant dulness of workhouse education," which annually proceed from Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools, must continue to be more and more discouraging.

A good deal has been nevertheless attempted in the way of industrial training, by hiring or purchasing land, upon which, in the great majority of my Unions, the boys are employed; as well as by establishing wash-houses and laundries for the girls, by teaching them to cook, and (in the five Unions named in the margin) by keeping cows.

Saffron Walden, Bosmere and Claydon, Cosford, Plomesgate, Wangford.

There are but few Unions, in fact, and those chiefly in Kent (where the children can be got early out to service), in which boys are not, or may not be, employed in spade husbandry; but it is far more difficult to induce Guardians to keep cows, although nothing can have been more satisfactory than the result of training the girls to dairy work in the few instances in which the experiment has been tried. I should, however, observe, that even the possession of land in connexion with the workhouse will not positively ensure that the boys are regularly set to work upon it. Schoolmasters, more especially good schoolmasters, rarely remain long in the same workhouse school, and few of them know much or care much about the cultivation of land; the duty of superintendence consequently devolves chiefly upon the masters of workhouses, and is by them often delegated to the porters, or to elderly inmates. The boys, moreover, have to be taught the use of the spade, &c. This gives trouble to the superintendent; and as the processes of cultivation can be carried on more rapidly, and a balance sheet more easily "made pleasant" to the Guardians by the employment of adult labour (which all workhouses can supply), it requires, on the part of the visiting Guardians, a degree of vigilance and interest in the subject which I am afraid very few exercise, to prevent the cultivation of the five or six acres of land (originally hired or bought for the exclusive purpose of industrial training) from being carried on, if not chiefly, at all events too frequently and too largely, by means of the able-bodied men, or of the old men capable of doing some work. I know of no remedy but the establishment of district schools for this fatal (and I apprehend increasing) obstacle to the successful development of that industrial training of the boys in the workhouse schools of rural districts which we had hoped to have found in the adoption of what formerly was best known among Unions by the name of "the Quatt system."

3. In-door and out-door relief.

The average weekly cost of in-door and out-door relief, per cent. of population, in the subjoined groups of Unions and Incorporations, for the years ended Lady-day 1852, 1853, 1854, 1855, was as follows:—

	1852.	1853.	1854.	1855.
	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.
Cambridgeshire (5 Unions)	12 10	13 6	13 10	15 4
Essex (17 Unions)	11 4	11 6	12 8	13 7
Kent (14 Unions)	7 2	7 4	7 11	8 3
Norfolk (22 Unions)	11 8	12 3	12 8	14 8
Suffolk (17 Unions)	11 7	11 8	11 10	13 1
Average of the 75 Unions	10 10	11 2	11 9	13 0

This table shows, as might have been anticipated, a progressive increase of the money value of the relief administered, which in the aggregate amounts to a large sum. In the last week of the Christmas quarter it amounted, in fact, to 630*l.*; and of course represented, pro rata, an annual increase of 32,760*l.* in the cost of relief for my district alone. But it is the cost of relief only, and not pauperism, which has increased; for I have ascertained, on comparing the week in question with the corresponding week of 1854, that the collective number of in-door paupers had decreased 925, and of out-door paupers 1,962.

I cannot, however, add that I am satisfied with my annual examination of the general results of the administration of relief in my district. With scarcely an exception, the tendency everywhere is to substitute out-door for in-door relief, whenever the Guardians may legally do so. The exceptions to the Prohibitory Order, as I have often been compelled to remark, are almost invariably treated as rules. Out-door relief may be given; ergo, out-door relief should be given. The Guardians of the parish interested in any particular case, the case, for example, of an able-bodied man in full work with a large family of children, and perhaps a sick infant among them, presses for out-relief in aid of insufficient wages. The chairman, supported possibly by one or two Guardians, who still remember the state of things previous to 1834, may demur; but the majority of the Guardians are pretty certain to look at such a case from a rate-paying and wage-paying point of view; and out-relief, which apparently costs so much less money than in-door relief, is granted as a matter of course, according to the supposed measure (not of the sick child's, but) of the whole family's wants.

By way of further illustration of this point, I will take the average weekly cost of in-door and out-door relief for the year ended Lady-day 1855 in three West Norfolk Unions, (I select West Norfolk Unions because it is agriculturally a prosperous district), and I find that the in-door relief of No. 1. Union averaged 15*l.* per week during the year in question, and the out-door relief 138*l.*; of No. 2. Union, 7*l.* and 95*l.*; and of No. 3. Union, 9*l.* and 91*l.*

But if I take three Kent Unions (and I ought to have mentioned that the disproportionately large expenditure of out-door as compared with in-door relief is not observable in Kent to anything like the same extent as in the Eastern Counties), I shall find that in these three Unions, with a population as large, within a few hundreds, as that of the three Norfolk Unions, the in-door relief of No. 1. Union averaged for the same year 21*l.*, and the out-door relief 47*l.*; of No. 2. Union, 27*l.* and 40*l.*; and of No. 3 Union, 32*l.* and 52*l.* In other words, the three West Norfolk Unions expended, on an average, the enormous amount of 324*l.* per week in out-relief, and only 31*l.* in in-door relief, whilst the three Kent Unions expended 80*l.* in in-door relief, and only 139*l.* in out-relief, during the last parochial year.

It is not very surprising, therefore, that whilst the cost per 100 of the population in the Kent Unions of my district appears to have averaged for the year 1854–55 only 8*s.* 3*d.*, that of Norfolk averaged 14*s.* 8*d.* per week.

I have, &c.,

No. 22.

REPORT of H. B. FARNALL, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to the POOR LAW BOARD, on the Pauperism and the Expenditure for Relief in his District, which comprises the Unions in the County of Lancaster and the West Riding of Yorkshire.

Kettlethorpe Hall, Wakefield,
MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN, 12th January 1856.

IN accordance with the instructions contained in your letter of the 19th ultimo, I have now the honour of making a Report to you on matters connected with my District; and in doing so I beg also to refer you to my Report to your Board on similar matters, dated the 2d of November last, to which this present Report is calculated to form a supplement.

Annexed is a return so tabulated as to convey to you a comparative view of the pauperism (exclusive of lunatics in asylums and vagrants) in each of the forty-six Unions of my District in the twelfth weeks of the December quarters in the years 1854 and 1855, together with the per-centage of the pauperism of each Union for the twelfth week of the December quarter 1855 upon its present population.

The population of this district is now 3,293,252; a number which is obtained by adding 1·2 per centum per annum to the population of 1851; but in using this per-centage I adopt that which rules similar calculations by the Poor Law Board for England and Wales, which, however, does not fully represent the usual rate of increase in this manufacturing district, which amounted to at least 1·9 per centum per annum between the years 1841 and 1851.

I have the satisfaction of informing you that the total pauperism of this district for the twelfth week of the December quarter 1855 amounted to 123,389 persons, being only 3·8 per centum on the population, while the per-centage of pauperism on population for the Unions of England and Wales (presuming the population of those Unions to be 17,100,151. (See Note appended to this Report), and their pauperism to be 840,720,) closely approximates to 4·9 per centum. (See Seventh Annual Report of the Poor Law Board, page 118.)

The 123,389 paupers spoken of are of the following classes; viz.,—

Old and infirm	44,440
Able-bodied adults	23,441
Children	55,508
Total	123,389

Your Board will no doubt observe, on examining the annexed Table, that the total amount of pauperism for the twelfth week of the December quarter 1854 was 118,334, being only 3·6 per centum on the population; thus it will be seen that there is now an increase of 5,055 paupers as compared with the same week in 1854. This difference is to a great extent accounted for in the following manner;—

In the Township of Manchester there is an increase of	2,223
In the Union of Bolton there is an increase of	598
In the Union of Sheffield there is an increase of	1,258
	4,079

The increase in Manchester is to be accounted for chiefly by a disagreement which has unfortunately for some weeks existed between the masters and a certain class of workmen, and also from the insufficient workhouse accommodation of the Township.

The increase in Bolton is to be accounted for by the stoppage of a large mill at Belmont Sharples in the Union, and from a great insufficiency of workhouse accommodation.

And the increase at Sheffield is to be attributed to the staple trade of Sheffield being to some extent depressed, and by the very inadequate workhouse accommodation which the Union possesses.

It has already been stated that the pauperism for the whole of this district is at present 3·8 per cent. on its population; but I beg to draw your attention to the fact, that while the per-centage of pauperism on the population of the purely commercial Unions is 3·7 per centum, that of the agricultural Unions is 4·4 per centum on the population.

Your Board will observe that in the agricultural Union of Skipton the per-centage of pauperism on population is 7·4, and that the per-centage of pauperism in the agricultural Union of Settle is 5·5; while, on the other hand, in the agricultural Union of Ormskirk the per-centage of pauperism is only 1·8 per cent.; but it is to be remembered that in the Ormskirk Union the Prohibitory Order has been for some years in force.

In addition to the pauperism of which I have spoken, I have also to inform you that there are now 1,868 pauper lunatics of this district in asylums, excluding from the calculation those belonging to the Unions of Barton-upon-Irwell, Bolton, Oldham, Preston, and Salford, from which Unions I have at present no returns of this class of paupers.

I have further to inform you, that during the twelfth week of the December quarter 1855 1,904 tramps and wayfarers were relieved in the several Unions of this District; but as each tramp or wayfarer is rarely relieved for more than one day in a Union in any given week, it will be right to conclude that not more than about 300 tramps were really relieved during the week quoted.

With regard to that important subject, the education of pauper children, I have to state that there are at present 7,096 children in the seventy workhouses of this District, including infants under two years of age, and that 4,425 of these are receiving daily education; and it is a great satisfaction to me to be able to say that the importance of combining mental and industrial training is now fully appreciated by a very large majority of the Guardians of this District. On the other hand, there are 48,412 children receiving out-door relief in this District, of whom about 30,000 should be receiving education; but if your Board will be so good as to refer to my Report to you dated the 8th of December 1855 you will see that no effect had then been given by Boards of Guardians in my District to the provisions of the 18th & 19th Vict. c. 34. I have, however, the pleasure of adding, that in consequence of communications which I have lately had with the clerks of all the Unions and with several Boards of Guardians in my District, the Act named has been now brought under the consideration of the Guardians, and I have every reason to hope that during the ensuing year the Guardians will in many instances adopt its valuable provisions.

I beg further to inform your Board, that during the last year the Guardians of the Chorlton Union have taken possession of their well-constructed and efficient new Workhouse; and that the Guardians of Bury are about to open their new Workhouse, which is also in every respect complete; the Guardians of the Unions of Halifax, Salford, Oldham, and Saddleworth are making valuable additions to their Workhouses; and that the Guardians of the Township of Manchester, and the Unions of Sheffield, Blackburn, Wigan, and North Bierley, are about to build new Workhouses.

It is greatly to be regretted that the Guardians of the twelve important Unions of Huddersfield, Bolton, Leeds, Rochdale, Burnley, Haslingden, Chorley, Todmorden, Clitheroe, Penistone, Garstang, and Pateley Bridge still refuse to take any effective steps to supply themselves with adequate workhouse accommodation.

I have, &c.,

To HARRY BURRARD FARNALL,

The Poor Law Board. Poor Law Inspector.

Note.—The population of the 620 Unions and Parishes under Boards of Guardians in England and Wales, according to the Census of 1851, was 16,285,861, so that by adding 1·2 per centum per annum (or 5 per cent. for the whole time) to it the present population will be 17,100,151; the pauperism of these 620 Unions and Parishes on the 1st of January 1855 being 840,720, the per-centage of pauperism on population will be 4·9. (See page 118, Appendix to the Seventh Annual Report of the Poor Law Board.)

P.S.—Since writing the above I have received a communication from the Bolton Union, and I have now the gratification of stating that the Guardians of that important Union have resolved, by a considerable majority, to build a workhouse adequate to the wants of their Union.

NOTE.—The Returns for the year 1803 were obtained under an Act of the 43d Geo. III., and those for 1813, 1814, and 1815, under the Act of 55th Geo. III. For the years 1816 to 1834 inclusive the Returns were made in pursuance of Orders of the House of Commons; and from the latter period to the present time they have been called for by the Commissioners under the Poor Law Amendment Act, forming an unbroken Parliamentary series, from the year 1813 to the present time.

* The average price of wheat per quarter was obtained from the Comptroller of Corn Returns. The average price of wheat per quarter for the years 1813 to 1829 is for the year ended Christmas preceding the termination of the parochial year at the Lady-day following. For the remaining years, 1830 to 1855, the average price is for the year ended at Lady-day.

‖ This amount includes the sum of £57,111, the expense incurred under the Act for taking the Census of 1841.
¶ Until the year 1839 the expense incurred in removal of paupers and travelling expenses of overseers was included under the head of "Law Charges;" in that and subsequent years it has been entered under the head of "other purposes."
 Included in previous column with "County and Borough Rate."

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

TO THE

RIGHT HON. SIR GEORGE GREY, BART.,

HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

BOARD OF SUPERVISION FOR THE RELIEF OF THE POOR IN SCOTLAND, CHAMBERS, GEORGE STREET, EDINBURGH, AUGUST 1855.

SIR,

Proceedings of Board.

WE have the honour to submit the General Report of our proceedings for the past year.

Since the date of our last Annual Report, the Visiting Officer of the Board has visited 18 Parishes in the Counties of Ross, Inverness, and Argyll, and investigated and reported to the Board upon the manner in which the duties of the Parochial Officers are performed.

Mr Macfarlane, a member of the Board, has conducted a Special Inquiry, under the 10th section of the Statute, in the Parish of South Leith, where some difficulty had arisen as to the duties of the Parochial Board under the Removal of Nuisances and Diseases Prevention Acts, 1848 and 1849. We are happy to state that the difficulty alluded to was obviated by Mr Macfarlane's Inquiry.

Inspectors.

We have investigated allegations involving charges, more or less serious, against 15 Inspectors and one Governor of a Poorhouse. We have been under the necessity of dismissing one Inspector for neglect of duty, and we have accepted the resignation of 7 Inspectors, whose conduct or fitness for the office was under investigation. In the case of one Inspector, whose state of health incapacitated him for the discharge of his duties, and prevented him from tendering his resignation, we declared the office vacant, and called upon the Parochial Board to nominate a successor. We have also censured 6 Inspectors for various degrees of neglect or failure of duty; and in some instances we intimated that a repetition of the offence would be punished by dismissal.

By one of the Rules applicable to Parishes which participate in the Parliamentary Grant, it is provided that "the offices of Inspector and Medical Officer shall not be held by the same person;" but having ascertained that in several Parishes which did not participate the Inspectors were also Medical Officers, and being satisfied that such a union of offices is incompatible with the proper discharge of the duties attached to each respectively, we called upon these Inspectors to resign either the office of Inspector or that of Medical Officer.

Inspectors. The Inspector of a Parish, having been appointed Procurator-Fiscal of the District in which the Parish was situated, requested the Board to inform him whether they considered the performance of the duties of the office of Inspector compatible with those of the latter appointment. We intimated, that it appeared to us that the offices ought not to be conjoined.

Another Inspector having complained to the Board that the Parochial Board proposed to reduce his salary unduly, we expressed our opinion, that the Parochial Board are not empowered by the Statute to dismiss an Inspector, once named; and that we could not admit that the Parochial Board are entitled to effect by indirect means, what they have no power to accomplish by direct means. It appeared that, by the proposed reduction, the salary of the Inspector would be reduced considerably below the scale adopted in the surrounding Parishes; and we stated, that if a perseverance in the proposed course would have the effect of removing the present Inspector from his office, it was one which the Board could not sanction or approve.

App. (A). Nos. 5, 6, and 7. The experience obtained since the constitution of the Board having shown that great inconvenience to the public service, and disadvantage to the administration of the Poor Laws, had arisen from the imperfect and irregular manner in which the records of many Parochial Boards have hitherto been kept, more especially in rural Parishes, we framed Rules and Forms for the purpose of remedying these defects. Having obtained the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, we circulated them to the Inspectors, and they have been in operation since the 14th of May 1855. We have reason to hope that the use of these Forms will introduce a more complete and uniform system than had previously prevailed.

App. (A.) No. 4. Having found that a proper classification for reference of the documents in the Office of the Board was rendered impracticable by a practice adopted by many Inspectors of communicating on several different subjects in the same letter, we passed a Resolution, requiring Inspectors in future, when communicating with the Office of the Board, to write a separate letter on each separate subject.

The Sheriff-Substitute for the Western District of Perthshire having represented to the Board that he had reason to believe that the Rule requiring Inspectors to deliver to every applicant who is refused Relief a certificate stating the fact, and specifying the grounds and the date of such refusal, was not duly observed in the Parishes forming his District, we recalled the attention of the Inspectors of these Parishes to the Rule referred to. At the same time, we pointed out that it is the Inspector's duty, in compliance with that Rule, in all cases in which an application for Relief, whether verbal or written, is refused, to deliver to the applicant, at the time of such refusal, a certificate in the terms prescribed by the Rule and relative Minute, whether such certificate is demanded by the applicant or not; and we cautioned the Inspectors that the Board would regard any failure to comply with this Regulation as a serious breach of duty. We further requested the Sheriff-Substitute to oblige us by communicating any instance in which the Rule above mentioned may not be duly attended to. Inspectors.

Since the date of our last Report, 11 Parishes, which had previously raised the funds for the Relief of the Poor by Voluntary Contributions, have resolved to raise those funds by Assessment. The number of Parishes now assessed is 700, and the number that raise the funds by Voluntary Contributions is 183. The Parochial Boards of 8 Parishes have resolved to change the mode of Assessment or of Classification formerly adopted. In 7 of these, we have sanctioned the proposed change, and in 1 we have refused to do so. Of the Parishes in which we have sanctioned a change, 1 has adopted the first mode with Classification, instead of the third mode; 1 has abandoned Classification; and in 5 Parishes the alteration approved of has been in the Classification formerly adopted. Assessments.

The progress of the change from Voluntary Contributions to Assessment, during the ten years that have elapsed since this Board was formed, has been as follows:—

	Assessed.	Voluntary Contributions.
August 1845,	230	650
... 1846,	448	432
... 1847,	558	322
... 1848,	600	280
... 1849,	625	255
... 1850,	644	236
... 1851,	653	228
... 1852,	671	211
... 1853,	680	202
... 1854,	689	194
... 1855,	700	183

In the 883 Parishes and Combinations into which Scotland is now divided, the funds for the Relief of the Poor are raised in the following manner:—

1st Mode, with Classification,	114
Do., without Do.,	479
2d Mode,	24
3d Mode,	34
According to established usage,	49
Assessed Parishes,	700
By Voluntary Contributions,	183
Total,	883

The number of Parishes assessed on means and substance is less by 1 than it was last year, although the whole number of Parishes assessed is increased by 11.

Assessments.

We have increased the number of Members to be elected to the Parochial Board in 3 Parishes, for reasons submitted to us, which in our opinion rendered such an increase advisable.

Poorhouses.

The number of Parishes that have Poorhouses, either singly or in combination, is 104, having an aggregate population of 996,459. In the 29 Poorhouses at present in operation, the existing accommodation was reported in July to be sufficient for 10,323 inmates. When the Poorhouses which are in progress, or the erection of which has been resolved on, are completed, the number of Parishes having Poorhouses, either singly or in combination, will be 176, having an aggregate population of 1,279,389. A considerable number of Parishes, during the last year, have availed themselves of the existing accommodation, by boarding paupers, in terms of the 65th section of the Statute, in the Poorhouses of other Parishes. The number of Parishes that have acquired a right to send paupers to the Poorhouses belonging to other Parishes is 138, with an aggregate population of 516,435; but some of them are embraced in Combinations for proposed Poorhouses, or propose to have Poorhouses of their own. The total population to which Poorhouse accommodation was last year available, amounts to 1,512,894. The Table showing the number of Poorhouses in operation and in progress, and the Parishes forming the various Poorhouse Combinations in Scotland, is printed in the Appendix.

App. (B). No. 9.

Resolutions to erect Poorhouses in the Parishes of Hawick and Arbroath, as well as in the Kyle Combination of 13 Parishes in the County of Ayr, containing an aggregate population of 66,747, have been approved by us during the last year.

We have approved of sites for Poorhouses in Elgin Parish, and in the Black Isle and Skye Combinations.

We have approved of plans for the Poorhouse of Black Isle Combination, and also of new plans for the Poorhouses of Latheron, Dumfries, Dundee, and Stirling, in lieu of the plans formerly approved, and from which circumstances rendered it expedient to depart, as well as of plans for additional buildings to the Poorhouses of Glasgow and Dalkeith.

We have sanctioned the occupation by inmates of the Poorhouses of Dumfries and Kelso, the new Poorhouse of Old Machar, and of the additional buildings erected and alterations made in the Poorhouses of Dunfermline, St Cuthberts, and Greenock, all which were previously certified to us to be in a proper condition for the reception of inmates. We have also sanctioned the occupation of a building at Hawick, the plans of which were submitted to us, as a temporary Poorhouse for that Parish. We have approved of the admission of the Parishes of Lasswade, Cranston, Borthwick, and Temple into the Dalkeith Poorhouse Combination,—of Southdean and Bedrule into the Jedburgh Poorhouse Combination,—and of Sleat, Bracadale, and Duirnish, into the Skye Poorhouse Combination. Poor-houses.

The Sheriff of Wigtonshire having represented to us that the airing yard for lunatic inmates in the Rhins of Galloway Combination Poorhouse appeared to him to be too small, we transmitted his communication to the Poorhouse Committee; and the result was a Resolution on their part to enlarge the airing yard, so as to remedy the defect.

Having been informed that the Governor of the Jedburgh Combination Poorhouse had, without authority, sent out of the Poorhouse a lunatic inmate, with whose removal to an Asylum we had dispensed upon the express condition that he should be placed in the Poorhouse with the Sheriff's licence, we took the necessary measures for the safe custody of the lunatic, and reprimanded the Governor of the Poorhouse for assuming to himself the power to set at large a lunatic placed in his custody. The Governor subsequently resigned his office.

The Parochial Board of Brechin having transmitted to us the Regulations which they had put in force in a Lodging-house which they had purchased and fitted up for paupers, from which it appeared that the inmates were not allowed to go beyond the premises without the permission of the Matron, and were required to return at a time specified, we intimated our opinion, that if the Parochial Board considered it necessary to the proper management of the establishment in which their paupers were placed to restrict the egress and ingress of the lodgers, the proper course would be to apply to us to sanction the house as a Poorhouse, in terms of the Statute, and, with that view, to transmit plans and specifications of such alterations as might be necessary to enable us to approve of the building.

Adverting to the terms of the 62d section of the Statute, which empowers Parochial Boards to borrow money on certain conditions, for the purpose of erecting new Poorhouses, and for enlarging, altering, or repairing existing Poorhouses, and having reason to know that the powers conferred by this enactment had been extensively exercised, we considered it expedient to call for Returns from all Parishes which, either separately or in combination with other Parishes, had erected, or had resolved to erect, Poorhouses, showing, in each case, the amount borrowed under the Statute, the progressive liquidation of the debt, and the sum still remaining due. We have printed these Returns in the Appendix. We cannot entirely rely, in all cases, upon the results which they exhibit, especially in those of Combination Poorhouses; but, while we hope that Returns for future years will be more free from inaccuracies, the inaccuracy of the present Returns, and their general results, have satisfied us of the expediency of calling for information upon this subject. App. (B). No. 10.

We have completed the arrangements for the seventh distri- Medical Relief.

Medical Relief.

bution of the Parliamentary Grant of L.10,000 in aid of Medical Relief to the Poor in Scotland. 632 Parishes resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant, but of these only 594 have established their claims by producing vouchers for the required amount of expenditure from their own funds, and otherwise satisfying us that the conditions of the Grant had been fulfilled. Last year 615 Parishes had resolved to participate, but only 581 established their claims. The increase this year in the number actually participating is therefore 13. The detailed account of the distribution, showing the amount expended on Medical Relief in each Parish, for which vouchers have been produced, beyond the minimum; the sum apportioned to it from the Grant; and the additional sum, proportionate to the excess of its vouched expenditure, assigned out of the unappropriated shares to each participating Parish, will be found in the Appendix. The whole sum expended on Medical Relief to the Poor last year, according to the returns, was L.27,166, 7s. 0½d., which is equal to 2·25 pence per head of the population of Scotland in 1851. According to the census of that year, the population of the Parishes and Combinations that have resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant is 2,419,392, and of the Parishes that have not so resolved, 469,350. The sum expended on Medical Relief by the former was L.24,724, 16s. 1½d., equal to about 2·45 pence per head of the population; and that by the latter was L.2441, 10s. 11d., equal to about 1·24 pence per head of the population of those Parishes.

App. (B). No. 8.

Proceedings on the part of the Parochial Board of Dull, which appeared to us calculated to deprive the poor in that Parish of such advantages in regard to Medical Relief as the legislature contemplated, have compelled us, for the second time since the Board was formed, to prosecute a suit against a Parochial Board in the Court of Session. Complaints having been made to us of the conduct of the Medical Officer of Dull, we called upon the Parochial Board to investigate them. That Board, after investigation, became satisfied that the complaints were well founded, and they dismissed the Medical Officer. Subsequently a majority of the Parochial Board, without further inquiry, reinstated him. Satisfied that the officer in question had been properly dismissed by the Parochial Board, we exercised the power vested in us by the conditions annexed to participation in the Parliamentary Grant, and, by a Minute of the Board, we formally dismissed the Medical Officer. The majority of the Parochial Board, however, resolved to disregard this Minute, and to continue the dismissed officer as Medical Officer of the Parish. We then considered it our duty to apply to the Court of Session, under the 87th section of the Statute, in order that the obstruction which appeared to us to have arisen in the execution of the Statute, might be removed. The Court found that the continuance in office of the Medical Officer who had been dismissed by us was illegal and irregular, and an undue obstruction of the Act, and they prohibited and interdicted the Parochial Board from acting upon their Minute by which the dismissed Medical Officer was continued in office. Medical Relief.

The number of cases of lunatic paupers in which application has been made to us to dispense with removal to an asylum during the year ending May 1855 has been 226. In 213 cases we have dispensed, and in 13 cases we have refused to dispense, with removal to an asylum. In the year ending May 1854 the number of such cases was 201. In 188 of these we dispensed, and in 13 refused to dispense, with removal to an asylum. Insane and Fatuous Paupers.

The number of applications complaining of Inadequate Relief that have been before us during the year ending 30th June 1855, has been 568. In the immediately preceding year, the number was 596. Complaints of Inadequate Relief. App. (B.) Nos. 2 & 3.

The subjoined table exhibits the number of such applications in each year since this Board was formed, and the manner in which they have been disposed of:—

The sum expended for the Relief and Management of the Poor during the year ended 14th May 1855, including L.20,605, 13s. 6d. expended on Poorhouse Buildings, and L.6,355, 9s. 3½d. on General Sanitary Measures, has been L.611,784, 17s. 3d. In the preceding year, the expenditure for the same purposes was L.578,928, 11s. 0½d. There has therefore been an increase in the expenditure of L.32,856, 6s. 2½d. Cost of Relief and Management. App. (B.) Nos. 4 & 5.

The following table presents a comparative statement of the sums expended for the Relief and Management of the Poor, for the last ten years, arranged under the different heads of expenditure, together with the rate per head of the population, calculated for the first five years on the census of 1841, and for the last five years on the census of 1851. The rate per cent. on the annual value of real property, as returned in 1843, is also stated.

This increase in the expenditure on relief during the past year is not greater than might have been expected to arise from the increase in the price of food, and it is satisfactory to observe, that the average allowance to each Pauper has risen or fallen in amount with every considerable rise and fall in the price of provisions. In 1847 it was L.4, 10s. 9d. In 1850, and the four succeeding years, it ranged from L.4, 0s. 8d. to L.4, 2s. 7¼d., and this year it is L.4, 11s. 8½d. But it will be observed that the tendency has been to a general increase in the average scale of allowances, and that, since the rise in 1847, they have never fallen to what they had previously been.

Number of Poor. App. (B.) No. 6.

The number of Registered Poor on the 14th May 1855, was 79,887, being an increase of 967 since the same date last year, and an increase of 856 since the 14th May 1850. The number of Poor who have died or ceased to receive Relief during the past year, was 20,673, making the whole number of Poor relieved by order of the Parochial Boards, and admitted by their respective Parishes to be properly chargeable to them, 100,560. For the previous year the corresponding number was 103,777. The number of Casual or Unregistered Poor was 42,863, being an increase, as compared with the preceding year, of 7,912. The number of such Casual Poor relieved on 1st January 1855, was 4,690, or 71 more than on the 1st January 1854; and on the 1st July 1855, the number was 3980, being 679 more than on the same day in 1854. The whole number of Registered and Casual Poor relieved during the year ended 14th May 1855, was 143,423, and the corresponding number for the previous year, was 138,728, showing an increase of 4,695.

The following is a Statement of the Number of Poor relieved in Scotland, according to the Returns received by this Board.

The Returns of the Number of Poor for the past year present a new feature, in so far as they show the Number of Dependants on the various classes of Poor. In this respect the Returns, with comparatively few exceptions, are complete. The Casual Poor have been distinguished for the first time into such as were relieved by the Inspector on his own responsibility, and such as were relieved by order of the Parochial Board, but whose settlements being still undetermined, are not classed with the Registered Poor of any Parish. The following is a summary of the general results upon this subject:— Number of Poor.

Number of their Dependants,	40,569
Number of Registered Poor who have died or ceased to receive relief during the year,	20,673
Number of Dependants of such Registered Poor,	6,382
Number of Casual or Unregistered Poor relieved during the year,	42,863
So classed because of Undetermined Settlements,	3,114
Dependants of such,	2,327
All other Casual Poor,	39,749
Dependants of such,	26,454
Number of Poor removed from Parish Voluntarily or by Warrant,	2,163
Number of their Dependants,	1,708

The whole sum derived from Church Collections in assessed Parishes during the year ending May 1855, was L.15,269, 11s. 7¼d., of which L.9,185, 6s. 10¾d. is stated to have been expended on Relief of the Poor. From this sum, however, must be deducted L.380, 9s. 3d., handed over to the Parochial Boards. It would appear, therefore, that the sum of L.8,804, 17s. 7¾d., derived from Church Collections, was actually applied by the Kirk Sessions to the relief of persons in their respective Parishes who required assistance. But these funds are generally employed to afford aid to persons who have fallen into temporary difficulties, with a view to prevent them from becoming chargeable to the Parish as paupers; and it is doubtful whether any of the persons so assisted, have also been chargeable to the funds raised by assessment. Church Collections App. (B.) No. 7.

The public prosecutor having informed us that he had been called upon to investigate more than one case in which Casual Sick Poor had died in Parishes where they had no domicile, Casual Sick Poor.

Casual Sick Poor.

without having been provided with proper lodging by the Inspector, we considered it necessary to recall the attention of Parochial Boards to our Minute of 24th February 1848, and to require the Inspectors to report to us what accommodation or arrangements, if any, at present existed in their Parishes for the reception and treatment of Casual Sick Poor. It appeared from these reports that in many Parishes the object contemtemplated in our previous communications had been misapprehended or imperfectly understood. We therefore deemed it necessary to explain more in detail the intentions of the Board, and with that view issued a circular letter, in which we also pointed out the personal risk to which Parochial Boards and Inspectors expose themselves by disregarding their duty in this respect. Although we have reason to fear that all Parochial Boards are not yet duly sensible of the duty of providing a place of accommodation in the Parish for those occasional cases of Casual Sick Poor, in which the patients cannot safely be removed elsewhere, we are happy to be able to state that in a large number of Parishes such accommodation has now been provided.

App. (A.) No. 2.

Cholera.

In compliance with a request made to us by the General Board of Health, we called for Returns, showing the number of cases of Cholera, and of deaths from that disease, which had occurred in each Parish in Scotland from the outbreak of the epidemic in the autumn of 1853, down to November 1854. The Returns showed that during the above period the epidemic had visited 228 Parishes, and that the total number of cases had been 14,430, of which 6848 proved fatal. Owing to the defective machinery for obtaining Returns of cases occurring in the private practice of medical men, the results of these Returns cannot be taken as strictly accurate, but they are probably an approximation to, although an under-estimate of, the truth.

App. (B). No. 11.

Applications to Sheriffs.

Returns of legal proceedings under the statute, in the Sheriff Courts, have again been furnished to us by the courtesy of the Sheriffs-Substitute, and are to be found in the Appendix.

App. (B.) No. 1.

The number of applications to the Sheriff, on the ground that relief had been improperly refused during the past year was 1,167, while in the preceding year it was 1,239. The number of such applications in which the Sheriff felt called upon to grant interim orders of relief during the past year was 323. In the preceding year it was 353. The number of such applicants admitted to the roll of paupers by final order of the Sheriff during the past year was 69; in the preceding year, 116.

The number of prosecutions under the 79th and 80th sections of the statute during the past year has been 162, and of convictions, 102, exclusive of the district of Aberdeen, where no record is kept. The average number of such prosecutions in the eight preceding years was 226, and of convictions, 154.

DOCUMENTS ISSUED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISION.

No. 1. Circular as to Accommodation for Casual Sick Poor.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 12th October 1854.

Sir,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to recall the attention of Parochial Boards to the Excerpt Minute of the Board, dated 24th February 1848, and Circular Letter, dated 6th March 1848 (both of which are printed in the Third Annual Report of the Board of Supervision, Appendix, page 3), calling upon each Parochial Board to provide a place for the reception and treatment of casual sick poor.

You will lay this communication before your Parochial Board without delay.

I am further to call upon you to report to the Board of Supervision what accommodation or arrangements, if any, at present exist in the Parish for the reception and treatment of casual sick poor.—I am, sir, your obedient servant,

To the Inspector of Poor, Parish of ———

No. 2. Circular Letter as to Accommodation for Casual Sick Poor who have no Domicile in the Parish.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 12th February 1855.

Sir,—From the returns made to the Board's Circular Letter of the 12th October 1854, calling the attention of Parochial Boards to the minute of the 24th February 1848, and circular of 6th March 1848, respecting the accommodation of casual sick poor, it appears that in many Parishes the object contemplated by the Board in those communications has been misapprehended or imperfectly understood. It is desirable therefore to explain more in detail the views of the Board upon that subject.

It has frequently happened, that persons have been struck down by disease, and have become chargeable in Parishes where they have no domicile, and where it has been found impossible to procure for them accommodation in the house of any resident inhabitant. Such cases are most frequent during the prevalence of epidemic disease, when sudden attacks are most likely to occur, and when there is at the same time the greatest indisposition on the part of the inhabitants to receive into their houses, persons suffering from the prevailing epidemic. But a similar difficulty may arise at any time, if a person who has no domicile in the Parish is attacked by any disease considered infectious or contagious.

Any person who is a proper object of Parochial relief is entitled to demand relief from the Parish in which he may be in need of it; and the Parish is in that case bound to provide adequate relief, including lodging, medicines, medical and other attendance if necessary; and if a poor person should die in consequence of the failure of the Parochial authorities to provide what in the circumstances constitutes adequate relief, there can be no doubt that those authorities whose failure was the cause of death would be amenable to criminal proceedings. It would be no answer to such a charge, to say that none of the inhabitants would on any conditions receive the sick pauper into his house, and that therefore proper accommodation could not be provided for him. The Inspector or the Parochial Board might in such circumstances be found guilty of having caused the death of the pauper, by their failure to afford such relief as the Statute requires, and as the Board of Supervision has repeatedly called upon them to provide the means of affording.

All that the Board contemplated in their minute of the 24th February 1848, and in the circulars which have subsequently been issued on this subject, was that Parishes should put themselves in a position to fulfil their statutory obligations in regard to the cases above referred to. Each Parochial Board must decide, with reference to the circumstances of the Parish, upon the amount of accommodation that would place them in such a position. In one Parish a single room, available at any time when it may be required, might be sufficient; in another, several rooms may be necessary; but there is no Parish, which is liable to have to provide accommodation for a casual sick pauper who has no domicile in the Parish, and whom it might be impossible or improper to lodge in the house of a resident inhabitant, or to remove to a distant place, which ought not to have at its command accommodation in the Parish for such persons.

A Parish which fails to secure the means of fulfilling its statutory obligations in this respect, may at any time find itself involved in consequences of a very disagreeable kind; and exposes its Inspector, who is held primarily responsible, to the risk of being made amenable to proceedings which would be distressing to any man of respectability and character.

I am directed by the Board of Supervision to transmit this Circular Letter to all Parishes in Scotland, and to require you to lay it before your Parochial Board at their next meeting.—I am, sir, your obedient servant,

No. 3. CIRCULAR and FORM of RETURN as to the APPEARANCE of CHOLERA.

Board of Supervision, ————

SIR,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to require you, with the assistance of the Medical Officer, to fill up and re-transmit to me the annexed Return with the least possible delay, whether Cholera has hitherto appeared in your Parish or not.

You will understand that, besides the present Return, it is your duty to report Cholera cases and Deaths from time to time as they occur.

The first appearance of Cholera in a Parish must be forthwith reported both to the Board of Health and to this Board.—I am, sir, your obedient servant,

No. 4. EXTRACT MINUTE of the BOARD OF SUPERVISION, of 7th December 1854, as to INSPECTORS communicating with the BOARD on different subjects in the same Letter.

"The Board having taken into consideration the inconvenience to the Public Service, arising from the difficulty of classifying the Documents in the Office of the Board, so as to admit of their being easily referred to, and finding that this difficulty is chiefly caused by a practice adopted by many Inspectors of communicating on several different subjects in the same letter, which makes a proper classification for reference impracticable,—Resolve, That Inspectors be required in future, when communicating with this Office, to write a separate letter on each separate subject, and in no case to write regarding different subjects in the same letter."

No. 5. Circular, transmitting Resolutions and Relative Rules and Forms, as to Books to be kept by Inspectors of the Poor.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 29th March 1855.

Sir,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to transmit to you the accompanying copy (in duplicate) of a Resolution and relative Rules and Forms, pointing out the manner in which the Books of Inspectors of the Poor are to be kept, from and after the 15th day of May next, and which have been framed by this Board, and approved by the Secretary of State for the Home Department.

The Form of Register of Poor being the same as that which is already in your possession, it is not necessary for you to procure another Book for that Register at present; but your attention should be directed to the additional instructions attached to the Form of Register herewith sent.—I am, sir, your obedient servant,

No. 6. Resolutions and Rules of the Board of Supervision as to Forms of Books to be kept by Inspectors of Poor.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 21st December 1854.

The Board having taken into consideration the Reports that have been made to them by their Officers of the imperfect and irregular manner in which the Books and Accounts of Parochial Boards are kept by the Inspectors of the Poor in many Parishes:—having also considered the representations that have been made to them upon the same subject by Inspectors of the Poor and other persons connected with the administration of the Poor Laws, are of opinion that great inconvenience to the Public Service, and disadvantage to the administration of the Poor Laws, has arisen from the imperfect and irregular manner in which the Records of Parochial Boards are now kept, more especially in many rural Parishes, and being desirous to remove these defects, have made the subjoined Rules:—

Rule I.—Every Inspector of the Poor in a Parish or Combination, or District of a Parish or Combination, shall keep, in the annexed Forms, the following Books, and shall punctually enter therein respectively the particulars required by the relative instructions thereto appended—that is to say—

1*st*, Record of Applications for Parochial Relief.
2*d*, Register of Poor admitted to the Roll, or relieved by order of the Parochial Board.
3*d*, Pay-Roll of Poor.
4*th*, Visiting Book.
5*th*, Day Cash-Book.
6*th*, General Ledger.
7*th*, Book of Cases in which the Settlement has not been admitted or ascertained.

Rule II.—No Inspector of the Poor shall keep the Records of the Parochial Board in any other Form than that which is specified in Rule I., unless with the special sanction of the Board of Supervision.

Rule III.—Every Inspector of the Poor shall provide himself, at the cost of the Parish, with the Books specified in Rule I., before the 14th of May 1855, at which date these Rules will come into operation.

Approved by Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, 22d March 1855.

"SEC. LXX. And be it enacted, That in every case in which a poor person in any parish or combination shall apply for parochial relief, the Inspector of the poor, or other officer of such parish or combination whose duty it shall be to attend to such applications, shall be bound to make inquiry forthwith into the circumstances of the applicant, and shall, notwithstanding such poor person may not have a settlement in the parish or combination, if he be in other respects legally entitled to parochial relief, be bound to furnish him with sufficient means of subsistence until the next meeting of the parochial board, and such board shall continue to afford to such poor person such interim maintenance as may be adjudged necessary until the parish or combination to which such poor person belongs be ascertained, and his claim upon such parish or combination admitted or otherwise determined, or until he shall be removed; and every inspector of the poor, or other officer to whom application shall be made by or on behalf of any poor person for parochial relief, shall be bound to return an answer to such application within twenty-four hours from the time when it was made: Provided always, that if the necessary means of support are afforded to the applicant in the meantime, such Inspector or other officer may delay giving a final answer to such application for any period which to him may seem necessary for prosecuting his inquiries; Provided also, that such poor person shall be bound to give to the Inspector and parochial board of the parish or combination to which he has applied for relief all information and assistance which it is in his power to give for the purpose of ascertaining the parish or combination to which he belongs, and every other matter regarding his case which the Inspector may desire to ascertain, and shall be bound to answer upon oath, if required, all such questions as may be put to him before any justice of the peace or magistrate, and in case of false swearing, shall be liable to be prosecuted for perjury.

EXTRACT RULES as to the DUTIES of INSPECTORS of POOR of 20th October 1845.

10. He (the Inspector) shall also keep a list of all those who have applied for, and been refused relief, and in such cases he shall state shortly the grounds of refusal.

11. In every case, in which application may be made to the Inspector for relief (whether the applicant has a settlement in the parish or not) it shall be the duty of the Inspector to make immediate inquiry into the circumstances of the case by visiting, either personally or by an assistant Inspector duly appointed by the parochial board, the home of the applicant if situated within his parish, and by making all necessary inquiries into the state of health, the ability to work, and the means of support of the applicant, and to report the result of such inquiries to the parochial board at their next meeting.

15. The Inspector shall return an answer to every application for relief, within twenty-four hours of the time of its being made. If on such inquiry as he shall be able to make within that time, he shall be satisfied that the applicant is in a state of destitution, and a fit object for parochial relief, he shall make such an alimentary allowance as in the circumstances shall be reasonable, until the next meeting of the parochial board, when he shall make a full report thereupon. But if on such inquiry he shall be satisfied that the applicant is not a fit object for relief, he shall refuse the application, and report the refusal, with his grounds for refusing it, to the parochial board at their next meeting: or if he shall be unable within twenty-four hours to satisfy himself as to the true circumstances of the case, he may delay making a final answer for any period which may appear to him necessary for completing his inquiries, but in that case he shall give such temporary relief, either in food or money, as may seem necessary, until his final answer is made to the applicant.

16. The Inspector must also provide for and relieve lunatics, fatuous persons, orphans, foundlings, and generally all destitute persons within the parish in cases of sudden or urgent necessity, whether such persons have a settlement in the parish or not.

ADDITIONAL RULE for INSPECTORS of POOR, as to Poor Persons who have applied for and been refused Relief.—9th April 1850.

The Inspector of the poor shall deliver to every applicant, who has been refused relief, a certificate, signed by the Inspector, which shall certify the fact, the grounds, and the date, of such refusal, and set forth the name of the person so refused.

RECORD OF APPLICATIONS.—INSTRUCTIONS.

1. In this book the Inspector of poor is to enter the applications made to him from day to day, stating shortly all the information regarding each case required by the form. Inspectors will observe that neither in the statute nor in the rules of the Board of Supervision is any distinction drawn between the application of a proper and that of an improper object of parochial relief. All applicants are to be treated alike, and entered in the Record of Applications of the Inspector to whom application is made, irrespective altogether of their characters, or circumstances, or parishes of settlement. Registered paupers who apply for an increase to their allowances are not to be entered in the Record of Applications.

2. Col. 3. Every person within the parish, by whom, or on whose account, application is made to the Inspector of poor for relief, must be entered in the order of the time of the application, and the cases numbered in succession from year to year.

3. Cols. 3 and 12. A widow and children not foris familiated, are not to be numbered as separate cases, the children forming part of her case.

The wife and children not foris familiated, of a person on whose account relief is applied for, form part of his case, and are not to be numbered as separate cases.

Orphans and deserted children, and children foris familiated, must be entered and numbered as separate cases, and if they require relief, they will be relieved on their own account. Orphans and deserted children are those whose parents are either both dead, or have both deserted them.

4. None are to be returned to the Board of Supervision as dependants unless wives, and descendants under 14.

5. Cols. 3 and 14. If a person make application after having ceased to receive relief, the case should be entered and numbered again, and reference made to the former application.

6. Applications made by Inspectors of other parishes on account of poor persons relieved by them, are not to be entered in the Record of Applications, but at once in the Register, whenever the parochial board admit their liability in the case.

7. When the subsequent liability of the parish to maintain an applicant relieved is doubted, the case will be transferred to the book of Unadmitted and Undetermined Cases of Settlement. The payments made to the account of such poor persons will be entered, as they occur, in a Casual Relief Pay Roll, or in the Inspector's Cash Book, and will be classified under Casual Poor, and not in the Registered Poor Pay Roll.

8. The information in the case is not to be entered until the Inspector has visited the home of the applicant, which, if possible, should always be accomplished within twenty-four hours of the time when the application is made.

9. In specifying the condition of the applicants, the following words will be used:—married, unmarried, widow, deserted, orphan, father (or husband) from home, father (or husband) imprisoned, etc.

10. In cases whether wholly or partially disabled, the cause of disablement will be stated; "wholly-insane," "partially crippled," "wholly asthmatic," "partially bed-ridden," etc.

11. The remainder of the record will be filled up as the circumstances of the cases require.

12. The result will show the date and the decision of the parochial board or Inspector, and will be written "relieved," "refused," or "admitted."

"Relieved," will be placed opposite the cases relieved by the Inspector on his own responsibility.

"Refused," whether the relief is refused by the Inspector or the parochial board, and in such cases the grounds of refusal will be stated.

"Admitted," when the parochial board admit the liability of the parish to maintain the applicant, and instruct the Inspector to relieve, and enter upon Register.

13. When an applicant removes voluntarily from the parish after having received interim aid from the Inspector, and before the inquiries into the circumstances of the case have been completed, the word "Withdrawn" will be entered in col. 15.

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. The numbers will refer to the names in the st column only.

2. No name of any poor person or dependant resident in the parish) must be inserted, unless he r she is seen by the Inspector or an assistant Inpector.

3. A separate line shall be assigned to each auper, and also to each dependant, in order that arious columns may be filled up with reference to ach individual pauper or dependant separately.

4. Col. 1. In the first column will be inserted nly the name of the head of the family or the acual recipient of the relief. If the relief is given or the sustentation of a dependant or dependants, nd not for the sustentation of the head of the amily or the actual recipient, this must be stated s,

Jane Orr,
for her child_____

Janet Wilson or Dick, for her six children_____

5. When a child, who is boarded or living with ersons on whom it is not legally dependant is reeiving relief, the name of the child will be inserted n the first column.

6. Col. 4. The name of each dependant living rith the person whose name is in the first column, ıust be inserted on a separate line in the order of heir respective ages.

7. Col. 5. If the age of any pauper or dependant cannot be accurately ascertained, it must be stated as nearly as may be.

8. Col. 8. In this column, state not only whether the pauper is wholly or partially disabled, but also the condition of each of the dependants as the wife or children, and what they may be able to earn; and if any of them are disabled, so as thereby to become a greater burthen upon the parents, they should be stated as wholly, or partially disabled, and the description of disablement should be inserted in the next column.

9. Col. 9. In cases arising from infirmity of body, specify thus:—as "blind"—"deaf and dumb"—"lost use of one hand," or "of both hands," "of one leg," or "of both legs"—"feeble old age," "helpless old age"—"helpless from palsy," etc. In cases arising from infirmity of mind, state the nature and extent of the infirmity, as, "lunatic, harmless"—"lunatic, dangerous"—"weak in mind"—"absolute idiot," etc.

10. Col. 12. It is desirable when the children are not residing in the parish, to obtain from the places of their residence the information required to fill up this column.

11. Col. 17. In this column should be inserted, amongst other remarks, any property which, on the death of a pauper, may be recovered by the parish on assignment by the pauper: and when a pauper is admitted upon the roll by order of the Sheriff, that fact must in all cases be noted.

No. II.

Amount of Relief in Food, Clothing, Fuel, Lodging, or of any other kind.	16. Date and cause of Removal from Roll.	17. Remarks.

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Inspectors will not enter more than three names on each page. A pauper once entered retains the same place and number in the Register, although struck off and readmitted several times. The date of the first admission to the roll will regulate the order in which the names are to be recorded.

2. In col. 13, the date of minute of the parochial board or committee directing the Inspector to grant relief, will be entered.

3. In col. 14, the amount of the weekly allowance fixed by the parochial board or committee at that date, will be entered.

4. In col. 16, the date of removal from the roll, whether by death or by order of parochial board or committee, will be entered.

5. In col. 17, the date of any alteration of the allowances as stated in col. 13, with the alteration, or any other circumstances of the paupers not otherwise recorded in the register, will be entered. If necessary, a reference may be made to the number of the pauper on the Record of Application.

6. A pauper struck off the roll and readmitted, will not be entered anew, but the date of readmission and allowance, in col. 13, beneath the original entry.

7. The persons to be entered in the register are all those admittedly chargeable to the parish, resident and non-resident, and in the receipt of relief for a short or long period, by authority of a minute of the parochial board or committee.

Extract Rules as to Duties of Inspector of Poor of 20th October 1845.

10. The Inspector shall keep an accurate list or register of all persons receiving relief, and of the sums paid to each, and of the period during which such relief has been given.

Pay Roll.—Instructions.

1. In this book the Inspector of poor is to enter the full christian and surname of each person who receives relief by authority of the parochial board, whether in one payment, for a short or for a long period, irrespective of the place or parish of residence, if admittedly chargeable to the parish.

2. A widow or a deserted wife, with children, not foris familiated, are to be numbered as single cases.

3. A wife and children, not foris familiated, of a person on whose account relief is given, are not to be numbered as separate cases.

4. Orphans and deserted children, and children foris familiated, will be entered and numbered as separate cases, although their allowance may be paid in one sum.

5. Orphans and deserted children are those whose parents are either both dead, or have both deserted them.

6. The number in the first column will refer to the number in the register of poor, and that in the second column will be the number of the pauper on the roll during the currency of the half-year. All allowances will be fixed by the parochial board for weekly periods, and will be paid by the Inspector weekly, except in the case of lunatics in asylums, or paupers in poorhouses, or paupers resident in other parishes, or paupers who have applied for and obtained the sanction of the parochial board to have their allowance paid in advance for longer periods than a week. In the case of paupers in poorhouses and asylums, the name will be entered on the Pay Roll, but the amount paid on their account entered in the Cash Book at once.

7. As all allowances paid in the relief of poor persons are prepayments, or payments in advance, they will date from the day of entry, except in the case of paupers boarded in poorhouses or asylums.

8. In the case of paupers resident in other parishes whose allowances are paid through an Inspector or other agent, the Inspector of the parish to which the pauper is chargeable will prepay the weekly allowances fixed by the parochial board for such period as may be agreed upon between him and the Inspector, or other agent he employs. The system of contra accounts between parishes for the stated allowances to their paupers will be abandoned.

9. Paupers chargeable to other parishes, but paid by the Inspector of the parish of residence, will not be entered in the Pay Roll of the parish of residence. The Inspector should, however, keep a separate book for such cases.

10. Where provision to the satisfaction of the parish of residence for the constant weekly subsistence of any poor person is not made, and the pauper is not removed and removable, and application is made to the Inspector of the parish of residence for relief, or additional relief, the applicant will be entered in the Record of Applications, and treated as an applicant for relief until the parish liable makes provision, as required by the 72d section of the Poor Law Amendment Act.

VISITING BOOK.—INSTRUCTIONS.

1. In this book will be entered the number and name of every registered pauper, whether resident in the parish or elsewhere. Inspectors will enter in this book only the alterations which occur in the cases of paupers as already detailed in the Register of Poor admitted to the roll; such as "Now bedridden and requiring additional relief;" "Now recovered and not an object of parochial relief;" and in the event of there being "No material change in circumstances," that fact will be stated.

2. This book will show the condition of every pauper resident within five miles of the parish at the time when last visited, and will act as a supplemental to the "Register of Poor."

3. To every registered pauper resident within five miles of the parish, the Inspector will have at least two visits recorded in each year.

Visits to casual poor, other than the visit entered in the Record of Applications, should not be entered in this book; another of the same character may be kept for such cases.

Extract Rules as to Duties of Inspectors of Poor of 20th October.

4. The Inspector shall keep all the accounts, and preserve and be responsible for all books, writings, letters, vouchers and other documents relating to the business of the parochial board, and produce the same when required to the Board of Supervision, or to any person duly authorised by that board to receive and inspect the same.

24. The Inspector shall keep full and regular accounts of all monies received and disbursed by him, on account of relief of the poor.

Extract Rules of 1st December 1846.

1. That the parochial accounts of all sums received and expended for the relief and management of the poor shall be kept in such a manner as to enable the Inspector, when required, to make returns during the year, and to make an annual return to the Board of Supervision of the receipts and expenditure from the 15th of May in one year to the 14th May in the following year, the accounts being balanced at Whitsunday in each year.

Inspector's Day Cash Book.—Instructions.

1. The date of every transaction will be entered.

2. The Pay Roll and relative pay tickets will be the Inspector's vouchers for payment of sums to, or on account of paupers, by direction of the parochial board; but all other payments, except interim relief to casual poor, will have separate vouchers, which should be consecutively numbered each year or half-year, to facilitate the auditing of the accounts.

3. In the first cash column will be entered the sums received by the Inspector from time to time, on account of the parochial board.

4. In the second cash column will be entered in detail each day all sums paid by the Inspector on account of the parochial board, except in the case of stated periodical allowances to paupers when the entry may be made with a reference to a separate Pay Roll.

Note.—When the Inspector is at the same time collector, he will take care to keep separate books for the collection of the assessment, showing daily his receipts from each ratepayer; he will only therefore enter the whole sum so received each day in the Inspector's Cash Book as "Received from collector of assessment."

General Ledger.—Instructions.

Every sum entered in the Day Cash Book will be entered again in the General Ledger at least every week, under the following Heads of Account, or such additional heads as may from time to time become necessary, to be carefully indexed.

1. Assessment, being sums received from Collector of Assessment.
2. Voluntary Contributions, if any.
3. Church Collections, if any.
4. Medical Relief Grant, Mortification, and other sources.
5. Registered Poor.—Under this head will be entered all sums expended on account of registered poor as per Pay Roll, or by an order for additional relief, under "Rules as to Medical Relief to the Poor," or by special minute of the parochial board.
6. Casual Poor.—Under this head will be entered all sums expended by Inspector on account of casual poor being on his own responsibility, before he has had an opportunity of bringing the cases of applicants for relief under the consideration of the parochial board, including sums paid on account of paupers whose settlements are unadmitted or undetermined.

N.B.—Sums expended on coals, education, funerals, rents, repairing paupers' houses, clothing, cordials, special diet, and the like, also the ordinary expenditure of a poorhouse where such exists, except building and establishment charges, will be entered as expended on the registered or casual poor, according to the class to which the recipients of relief belong.

7. Medical Relief.—Under this head will be entered all sums expended on salaries of medical officers, fees for attendance of paupers, or for other professional services connected with the poor, rendered by a duly qualified medical practitioner, or in supplying paupers, on medical officers' order, with medicines and surgical appliances, such as are procured from a laboratory.
8. Management.—Under this head will be entered all sums expended on salaries of Inspectors, Assistants-Inspectors, Collectors, Clerks, and other officials,—stationery, postages, interest of money borrowed on faith of a future assessment, not being for the purpose of building an authorised poorhouse; and also where there is an authorised poorhouse, the sums expended on salaries of governor, matron, porter, and other officials, except the medical officer,—and on stationery, postages, and other necessary establishment charges, will be entered under this head.
9. Law.—All sums expended on litigation, and generally on law business, such as legal advice, etc.
10. General Sanitary Measures.
11. Buildings (not being authorised Poorhouses).
12. Authorised Poorhouse Buildings.

BOOK OF CASES IN WHICH THE SETTLEMENT

No.	No. in Record of Applications.	Date of Application.	Name of Applicant.	Residence.	Date when first Relieved.	Parish supposed to be Liable.

Extract 8 and 9 Victoriæ, Cap. 83.

Sec. 71. And be it enacted, That where in any case relief shall be afforded to a poor person found destitute in a parish or combination, it shall be lawful for the parochial board of such parish or combination to recover the monies expended in behalf of such poor person from any parish or combination within Scotland to which he may ultimately be found to belong, or from his parents or other persons who may be legally bound to maintain him: Provided always, that in all cases in which relief shall be afforded by one parish or combination to a poor person having a settlement in another parish or combination, written notice of such poor person having become chargeable shall be given to the Inspector of the poor of the parish or combination to which such poor person belongs; and the parish or combination affording relief shall not be entitled to recover for any charges or expenses incurred in respect of such poor person, except from and after the date of such notice.

No. VII.

HAS NOT BEEN ADMITTED OR ASCERTAINED.

Date of Notice.	Date when Liability determined.	Parish found Liable.	Amount to be Recovered.	Date when Recovered.	Whether Removed or not.
					If Removed, Date of Removal, and Place Removed to.	If not Removed, Weekly Amount of Allowance.

EXTRACT RULES as to the DUTIES of INSPECTORS of 20th October 1845.

21. If an Inspector shall have relieved a poor person found destitute, and belonging to another parish, it is the duty of such Inspector, immediately on discovering to what parish such poor person belongs, to send a notice in writing, with a statement of the circumstances to the Inspector of that parish.

Inspectors should refer to Secs. 77th, 78th, and 79th of the Statute, and to Rules 22d and 23d of Duties of Inspectors, of date Oct. 1845, and to the Forms of Removal (Appendix to Third Report of Board of Supervision) required to be used in all cases where removal of a pauper from the parish takes place.

A. Aberdeen (Aberdeen Dist.)

Col. V. In two or three of these cases, a report was made to the Sheriff-clerk, that upon the order being sent, relief had been granted.
Cols. XI. and XII. No record kept.
Col. XIV. One in which decree in absence passed, and the other not yet disposed of.

B. Aberdeen (Peterhead Dist.)

Col. XIII. 2 decernitures; 1 assoilzie.

C. Argyll (Campbelton Dist.)

Col. IV. The applicant, in the case where answers were ordered, was placed on the roll while the proceedings were pending; thus rendering any order unnecessary.
Col. XI. Case adjourned, and not afterwards insisted on.

D. Ayr (Ayr Dist.)

Col. III. In two cases, not included in the above enumeration, answers were lodged before interim relief was ordered.
Col. IV. The order in this case (which was made by the Sheriff-principal) was not absolute, but left the applicant's right to future aliment to be decided by the Sheriff-substitute, which he has not yet been required to do.
Col. V. Of which refused on the merits, two (but in only one of which were answers lodged). The remaining 38 cases embrace all which have not yet been duly proceeded with, whether by applicants or Inspectors, or both, and include also certain cases which are marked settled.
Col. XI. All under section 80.
Col. XII. Both on the parties' confession. In one of the two other cases prosecuted, the complaint was withdrawn on the party's enactment to provide for the future support of his wife and children. The remaining case practically resulted in an acquittal, although it was not necessary to give judgment in consequence of the Inspector having ultimately declined to move for it.

E. Banff.

Col. XIV. These actions, though commenced before the year embraced in this return, have both been decided within it. The decisions of the Sheriff-substitute were confirmed in both by the Sheriff, but the causes have both been advocated.

F. Bute.

Col. I. Several applications were made, which, by a conference with the parties, were adjusted, and of which no record is kept.

G. Clackmannan.

Note.—In many cases, after intimation of the orders for interim relief has been made to the Inspector, no further proceedings were taken, in consequence of the Inspector, after inquiring into the circumstances of the case, agreeing to afford aliment; and in the prosecutions under the Act 8 and 9 Vict. cap. 83, the defenders frequently effect an arrangement with the Inspector, who in that case does not press for a conviction.

G. G. Dumfries.

No Return received.—Average of nine previous Returns stated.

H. Edinburgh.

Cols. I. and II. Besides these, a great many other applications (from 10 to 15 a week) have been made to the Sheriff, so evidently incompetent, that they are refused without a statement being put in writing. Col. II. contains the number of applications in which orders have been pronounced.

Col. XIV. It is not easy to answer this query correctly, as the actions referred to are frequently brought in the name of the Inspector as a private party, and not in name of the parish for which he is an Inspector, and are not known as parish actions.

I. Fife (Dunfermline Dist.)

Col. IX. One of these altered on the point of expenses; the other altered the Sheriff-substitute's media concludendi, but the Sheriff came to the same result as the Sheriff-substitute on the merits,—the question being, Whether a legacy left to a pauper on the poor-roll of a parish, who had granted no disposition omnium bonorum, could be uplifted by the Parochial Board who had granted her relief? It was decided, both by the Sheriff and Sheriff-substitute, that the Parochial Board had no right to the legacy.

K. Forfar (Dundee Dist.)

Col. XIII. One whereof settled by joint minute, and the other out of court by not being insisted in.

L. Haddington.

Col. XIII. Decerniture against defenders in two cases; the remaining case settled prior to being called in court.

M. Inverness (Skye Dist.)

Col. V. Of these five cases, two are understood to have resulted in an admission of the applicants to the roll without an order from the Sheriff, which rendered further procedure unnecessary.

N. Lanark (Glasgow Dist.)

Col. I. The number cannot be stated precisely, as no note of the applications is kept; but they seldom are less than two or three every day.

Col. II. The reason of the discrepancy between the number of applications and the number of orders on Inspectors, is, that the Sheriffs-substitute are in the habit of sending a memorandum by the pauper to the Inspector, in the first instance, expressive of their opinion of the case derived from the pauper's statement, and the matter is then commonly adjusted to the pauper's satisfaction. Litigation and delay are thus often avoided.

O. Linlithgow.

Col. III. Including one marked "undisposed of," in last return.
Col. V. Including one marked "undisposed of," in last return.

P. Perth (Perth Dist.)

Cols. I. II. and III. Those applications were in writing. Besides these, about 50 have been orally heard from the parishes of Perth and vicinity. The Inspectors there at once give a schedule containing their "reasons of refusal," which is brought by the applicant to the Sheriff-substitute, and much time is thus saved. In distant parishes, the applicants travel to Perth, and are often sent back for a statement of the reasons, which would be prevented were a similar course uniformly followed; and the writing could be sent by post, and the answer returned in the same way.

Cols. XI. and XII. The practice adopted in Perth is, to apprehend at first for examination, and to take a declaration, which affords the best evidence of the ability of the party accused. In this way, a satisfactory arrangement is generally made. Sometimes, to enable this to be carried through, the party is committed for further examination; but the Inspector is required to bring him up on a complaint within a few days, or the complaint is at once presented; and, on a plea of not guilty being entered, an adjournment is made for a few days for trial, and the accused required to find caution, or committed in default, which gives an opportunity for arrangement. Where a conviction is obtained and carried into execution, the party entertains the opinion that he is thereby liberated from all further claim of support, and acts thereon.

Q. Renfrew (Paisley Dist.)

Col. I. No record kept.
Cols. XIII. and XIV. Not known, being generally raised before Small Debt Court.

Note.—In reference to the Combination Poorhouses in the above Return, the sums stated as due from, and paid by, the several parishes forming the Combinations, appear to be in some instances only approximations to, or estimates of, the actual sums. This seems to arise from unsettled accounts of several parishes inter se, and the errors will probably be rectified in future returns.

3. The fluctuation in the numbers of the inmates of Workhouses, during the fifty-two weeks in question, has ranged from 84,465, which was the number on the 28th April, 1855, and the highest number during the period, to 56,518, which was the number on the 22nd September, 1855, and the lowest number in the same period. Comparing the present series of weeks with the series presented last year, we find a decrease of 18,819 in the maximum number, and a decrease of 9,956 in the minimum number, in the present series.

4. The summary exhibiting the extent and cost of out-door relief during the same period of fifty-two weeks, shows that the greatest number in receipt of such relief, occurred in the week ended 28th April, 1855, and amounted to 771 cases, comprising 1,323 persons, at a cost of £58 12*s.* 4*d.* for the whole week. The smallest number in receipt of out-door relief during the same period, occurred in the week ended 22nd September, 1855, and amounted to 402 cases, comprising 661 persons, at a cost, during the week, of £35 13*s.* 10*d.* No out-door relief order was issued under the seal of the Commission, during the period in question; and contrasted with the corresponding series of last year, the present series shows a decrease both in the number of recipients, and in the cost of this description of relief.

5. A material diminution, therefore, of pauperism in Ireland is still going on; and the comparison of the last twelve months with the preceding twelve, is, on the whole, far more favourable than the comparison between the preceding year and the year next before that.

6. We have made the customary inquiry from our Inspectors as to the result of their observations on the state of wages and general condition of the labouring class. An analysis of their Reports, which relate to every part of Ireland, is given in the Appendix* in the shape in which the same has been forwarded to the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, to whom we have annually, for the last four years, supplied, at their request, information on this subject. These Reports show that the material improvement in the rate of wages and the increased constancy of employment of agricultural labourers and their families, dwelt upon in our last Report, has not only been sustained, but has further advanced and acquired a still more permanent and healthy aspect. It must at the same time be observed, that this improved condition has been concurrent with an increase in the price of agricultural produce, and with the existence of a corresponding stimulus to agricultural enterprise. It has likewise been concurrent with a very large and abundant growth of potatoes, the lowered value of which, relatively to the value of other produce, has brought that article recently into more general consumption than was the case for several years succeeding the famine.

7. The sanitary condition of the Workhouses during the period in question has been satisfactory; the rates of mortality reported for the successive weeks being lower than in the preceding series; and the number of fever patients having at no part of the period exceeded 2,435, which is equal to about one-fifth of the accommodation provided for this class of patients in connexion with the Workhouse; and having been at one time so low as 1,160, or less than one-tenth part of the same accommodation. We believe that these statistics may be considered as evidencing a good sanitary state in the population generally, inasmuch as the prevalence in the country of any epidemic, or other disease dangerous to life, immediately results in an increased admission to the Workhouse Fever Hospitals, and in an increase of the rate of mortality in Workhouses.

8. The following is in continuation of the statistics given in paragraph 30 of our last annual Report.

No occasion for remark arises on the comparison of this Return with a similar one given in paragraph 30 of our last Report, except that a decrease occurs in the proportion of deaths caused by febrile disease.

9. It is a remarkable fact, that in connexion with the decrease in the rate of mortality, and the decrease in the extent of epidemic disease, we find a still increasing proportion of sick persons compared with the total number of persons in the Workhouses. This is explained by the decline in the number of able-bodied and other classes of healthy inmates, the increasing tendency of sick persons to resort to the Workhouses as Hospitals, and a growing disposition in Boards of Guardians, adverted to in former Reports, to avail themselves of the ample accommodation now at their disposal by admitting the sick poor to the Workhouse Hospital.

The following extract from a Report of the Medical Officers of Kilkenny Workhouse, entered on the minutes of the Guardians of the 3rd of April last, illustrates, in a striking manner, the tendency in question:—

"The total number of Hospital cases looks large, but two "circumstances have combined to increase the number of "cases of disease within your Hospital Wards: one is, that "the Grand Jury of the city of Kilkenny, having refused to "present for the County Infirmary, a considerable number of "patients labouring under surgical or other diseases, and cases "of accidents are now treated in the Workhouse Hospital; "the other is, that the Board of Guardians admit a large "number of patients from the city and county as sick admis-"sions, without such patients being otherwise inmates of the "house at all; while for the city of Kilkenny, and of that "large portion of the county embraced within the Kilkenny "Union, there is no other Medical Hospital for the large "amount of disease which must necessarily occur therein, and "there is now superadded a large bulk of the surgical disease "of the city, in addition to the medical and surgical disease "strictly arising within the Workhouse itself, wherein there "occur cases requiring amputation, the removal of cancerous "and other tumors, the reducing of dislocations and fractures, "and other serious surgical operations.

"That much of the amount of disease treated in your "Chronic Hospital is owing to the use of it as a general "Union Hospital, may be gathered from the one fact that of "the 347 patients remaining in it on the 25th March, 1856, "184, or more than one half, were patients received as sick "admissions, without having been previously inmates of the "house at all.

"Your Medical Officers have found it necessary to allude

"to these facts, because of the frequent complaints made that "the number of sick in hospital were markedly disproportionate to the total number of healthy inmates within the "houses, and it would appear to be disproportionate if it were "not for the explanation now given, and which shows that "the number of sick has reference to the entire Union population, rather than the number of paupers within the "house."

10. This increase in the proportion of the sick inmates in Workhouses has made considerable progress since the date of our last Report, as will be seen on a comparison of the per centages of various classes in paragraph 29 of that Report with the following statement:—

7th July, 1855, .	79,954	6·1	17·6	40·5	10·3	25·5
6th October, 1855,	56,741	5·0	14·0	42·0	11·2	27·8
5th January, 1856,	72,247	6·4	19·0	37·7	10·7	26·2
5th April, 1856, .	69,756	5·7	18·0	36·6	10·7	29·0

Thus the per centage of the sick inmates which in our last Report was stated to have advanced from fifteen per cent. (3rd January, 1852), to twenty-six per cent. (7th April, 1855), has further advanced to twenty-nine per cent. on the 5th April, 1856.

11. We desire here to call attention to an opinion given on a point of some importance by the present Solicitor-General, in reply to queries laid before him by us for his advice. That opinion is to the effect, that Guardians of Unions may properly admit to fever hospitals connected with the Workhouses "poor persons" who are able to contribute some part of the cost of maintenance, and require from them a contribution to that extent, giving the relief by way of loan.*

12. In the 26th paragraph of our last Report we mentioned that the number of deaths by the wayside, in Ireland, supposed to have arisen from want of the necessaries of life, had, in the course of the previous year, amounted to only six; and we expressed an opinion, that the remarkable decrease in this class of casualties was owing, in some measure, to the establishment of a large body of persons through the country, officially responsible for the prompt administration of medical relief. We have now the satisfaction to report that only two cases of this description have been brought under our notice during the last twelve months.

13. There is, however, another circumstance, to a certain degree independent both of the improved condition of the country and of the machinery employed in dispensing relief, which we are inclined to regard as one of the causes of the almost total disappearance of deaths by the wayside through want of the necessaries of life, and that is the diminution of the number of mendicants and vagrants in Ireland. There was a large mortality in this class during the famine; and, probably, a large proportion of the wayside deaths reported to us through the Constabulary, for several successive years, consisted of mendicants who were unwilling to seek relief in the Workhouse, and lost their lives through their inability to obtain alms from the peasantry at that period. We have, therefore, considered it a matter of peculiar interest at this time to obtain some intelligence as to the state of mendicancy in the country, and, with this view, have obtained reports from the Poor Law Inspectors throughout Ireland, of the result of their personal observations and experience on this subject. Those reports, of all of which copies will be found in the Appendix,* show that the habit of mendicancy has materially abated in the population of Ireland; but that, on the other hand, in many parts of Ireland the evil still exists in a considerable degree, and that in others there is a strong probability of its revival. We humbly submit these statements to the consideration of your Excellency, in reference to the policy of causing a uniform and sustained action on the part of the Constabulary, with a view to a more general and more energetic enforcement of the provisions of the Vagrant Act, 10 and 11 Vic., cap. 84. Perhaps there may not be a more convenient time for the repression of mendicancy than a time when the number of the offenders is comparatively small, and when conviction of mendicants would not cause inconvenience in the gaols.

14. The preceding statistics are brought down as usual to a date very near the date of this Report; but the financial account or statement of collection and expenditure of poor-rates embraces only the year ending 29th September, 1855, the accounts of the subsequent half-year, ended 25th March, 1856, not having as yet been audited.

15. The following is a statement, in the usual form, showing the aggregate collection of poor-rates in Ireland, and the expenditure thereof under the Poor Law Acts, in comparison with the same for the preceding year, for more minute details of which reference must be made to the Appendix.*

* Appendix A, IV.

Year ended 29th September.	Poor-rate Lodged.	Poor Law Expenditure during the Year.					Number Relieved in the Year.
		In-Maintenance and Clothing.	Out-Relief.	Salaries and Rations of Officers.	All other Expenses.	Total.	In-door.	Out-door.

Decrease,	89,260	31,016	—	7,584	37,280	74,893	40,814	—

The amount of poor-rates collected in the last year, viz., £835,894, exceeds the amount expended under the Poor Law Acts, viz., £685,259, by £150,635. Deducting from this excess £89,382, which is the amount expended from the same fund, under the Medical Charities Act, and £14,226, the amount which was paid over during the year to the Paymaster of Civil Services under the Annuities Act, there still remains a surplus of £47,027 collected. This surplus, applicable as it is to the discharge of a large proportion of the previous liabilities, is a sure testimony of the earnest and effective manner in which the Guardians of Unions and their officers are now discharging their fiscal duties throughout the country.

16. The comparison of last year's account with that of the year ended 29th September, 1854, is highly satisfactory, showing a reduction of expenditure under the Poor Law Acts of no less than £74,893, or nearly ten per cent. on that of the previous year. The whole amount of that expenditure (£685,259) is, probably, about 2*s.* per head of the present population of Ireland. In England and Wales the cost of relief appears to be about 5*s.* 6*d.*, and in Scotland about 4*s.* per head of the population. The average poundage of the Irish Poor Law expenditure on the valuation of Ireland is at present 1*s.* 2¼*d.* Supposing no increase or decrease of the numbers relieved to take place, the item of in-maintenance (excluding the cost of clothing) would be less by £180,000 per annum, if the prices of the articles of consumption were what they were in the years 1850 and 1851.† There is now,

* Appendix B, Tables I., II., III.

† The cost of in-maintenance, exclusive of clothing, for the year ended 29th September, 1855, was £384,130; and the aggregate number of days charged for was 29,053,247, showing a daily charge, per head, of nearly 3¼*d.* or 1*s.* 10*d.* per week. Now, the weekly cost, per head, in 1850 and 1851 was 1*s.* 0¾*d.*, or 1¾*d.*, daily; and this difference of 1½*d.* per head on the above number of days is £181,582; allowance, however, should be made for the increasing proportion of inmates in hospital.

therefore, a fair prospect that the relief of the Poor in Ireland will again be not more than £500,000 per annum, or 10½*d.* in the pound, on the present valuation.

17. The sum expended in emigration by the Guardians of Unions in Ireland, during the past year, is only £6,859, and the number of persons assisted to emigrate is returned as 830. The extent, therefore, of emigration, at the cost of the poor-rates, is less by £6,005 than in any former year since the famine, the lowest previous amount having been £12,864 in the year 1853.

18. The reduction of the annual estimate for this department, adverted to in the 36th paragraph of our last Annual Report, has now been carried out to a further extent. In the month of September, 1855, we were enabled to dispense with the services of the Architect, Mr. Wilkinson, and at the same time, with those of Mr. Walmisley, the first in the first class of clerks, who had done the duty of Cashier for a long period, during which a large disbursement of public funds took place directly from this department, which has now wholly ceased. The entire cost of the Architect's department, from the first introduction of the Poor Law, has not exceeded two per cent. on the outlay in Workhouse buildings and Fever Hospitals; and this per centage has included not only the salaries of the Architect and his assistants, and the cost of preparing all plans and specifications, examination and settlement of contractors' accounts, but all other expenses connected with the official supervision of the buildings during their execution, and afterwards for a long series of years in each case. We retain the services of the Architect's first assistant, Mr. Barney, giving him a position in the first class of clerks, in order that we may better discharge ourselves of that responsibility which still rests upon us in relation to the Workhouse buildings, that is to say, of urging from time to time on the attention of the Guardians of Unions every case of neglect on their part, in regard to the due repair and maintenance of the buildings which may be reported to us by our Inspectors. With this view we have provided for a periodical inspection of the different parts of each Workhouse, in a manner which is more clearly explained in the circular letter to the Inspectors on the subject.* Whenever the Guardians of Unions may hereafter require the services of an Architect, in relation to the buildings, they will be enabled to provide for the employment of such services from the poor-rate.

19. The office of Secretary having been abolished by an Act of Parliament, which received the Royal Assent on the 11th of April last, the secretarial duties, heretofore performed by Mr. Stanley, have now devolved on Mr. Banks, the Chief Clerk. Some correspondence relating to these changes will be found in the Appendix.*

* Appendix A, II., No. 3.

20. We have prepared a series of office regulations suited to the conduct of the business by the various officers of the department, as now constructed, a copy of which will be found in the Appendix.†

We have the honour to be,
Your Excellency's obedient, faithful servants,

APPENDIX.

APPENDIX (A).—ORDER AND CIRCULARS OF INSTRUCTION ISSUED BY THE COMMISSIONERS.

No Order was issued in respect to Out-door Relief since the Order issued on the 21st February, 1855. (Eighth Annual Report, Appendix A, No. 1.)

I.—Order regulating the Duties of the Person appointed to the combined Offices of Clerk of the Guardians and Master of the Workhouse.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and to all other persons whom it may concern :

Whereas, by certain General Orders under our Seal, bearing date the Fifth day of February, 1849, the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, and the Eighth day of April, 1853, We did make certain Rules and Regulations relating to the meetings and proceedings of Boards of Guardians, the Appointment and Duties of Union Officers, the Management of Workhouses, and the keeping and auditing of Accounts in the several Unions in Ireland :

And whereas, by the said General Order of the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, We did direct that the Board of Guardians should, as soon as might be requisite, and from time to time thereafter, upon the occurrence of any vacancy, appoint fit persons to perform, respectively, the duties specified by the Rules and Regulations of the Commissioners in force at the time to be the duties of the following, among other, Officers :—

Clerk of the Guardians,
Master of the Workhouse :

And whereas it has been deemed expedient, in the Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed, to appoint one and the same person to perform the duties of Clerk of the Guardians and Master of the Workhouse ; and it is expedient to regulate the duties of the person so appointed or to be appointed to the combined offices of Clerk of the Guardians and Master of the Workhouse.

Now, therefore, We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, do hereby order and direct, that so long as the said offices of Clerk of the Guardians and Master of the Workhouse shall be held by one and the same person, the duties set forth in the said General Orders, and in any other Orders of the Commissioners in force at the time, as the duties to be performed by the Clerk of the Guardians and the Master of the Workhouse, respectively, shall be the duties to be performed by the person so holding the combined offices of Clerk of the Guardians and Master of the Workhouse as aforesaid, excepting the duty imposed upon the Clerk of the Guardians by the said General Order of the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, of examining, previously to each Ordinary Meeting of the Guardians, the Accounts required to be kept by the Master of the Workhouse, to ascertain the correctness of the entries made therein, to authenticate the same, if accurate, by his initials, and to report any inaccuracies which he may find therein to the Board of Guardians.

And We do hereby further declare that the said Clerk of the Union shall, in his capacity of Master of the Workhouse, be, to all intents and purposes, as fully responsible for the correctness and accuracy of the said Accounts as if he had, in pursuance of the said Regulations, authenticated the same by his initials in his capacity of Clerk of the Union.

I, George William Frederick, Earl of Carlisle, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, do hereby approve this Order.

By His Excellency's Command,

Thomas A. Larcom.

No. II.—CIRCULARS.

No. 1.—Mode of Keeping Accounts under District Schools' Order:—Circular to Boards of Guardians of Unions sending Children.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
10th September, 1855.

Sir,

Inquiries having been made by Clerks of Unions, in some instances, as to the accounts to be kept in Unions to which an order has been issued by the Commissioners authorizing the Guardians to send children under the age of fifteen years to the Workhouse of some other Union, for maintenance and education, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to point out to you the course which they think should be adopted in such cases, in the accounts of the Unions sending the children.

The children, when sent to the receiving Union, should not be discharged from the Registry of the Union sending them, but they should from the Admission and Discharge book, and consequently from the Relief Lists, Provision Accounts, and other books of the Workhouse. The discharge from the Admission and Discharge book need not be by name in each individual case, but a book should be kept, entitled "Record of Transfers to the Workhouse of ——— Union, under the Commissioners' order of the ——— 1855." This book may be in the following form :—

RECORD OF TRANSFERS to the Workhouse of ——— Union, under the Commissioners' Order of ——— 1855.

No. on Register.	Name.	Age.	Date of Transfer.	To what Electoral Division chargeable.	Date of Return to the Workhouse.

This book should be made up weekly, and the number transferred should be entered on the discharge side of the Admission and Discharge Book, as "Transferred during the week to the ——— Workhouse; and in like manner, when necessary, the number who may have returned from the receiving Union should be entered on the admission side, as "Returned from ——— Workhouse during the week."

At the close of the half-year the Clerk should ascertain from the receiving Union the amount chargeable under the Order, and he should charge that amount to the several Electoral Divisions to which the children belong, according to the collective number of days' relief received by them in the receiving Union, which he will ascertain from the Record of Transfers. To facilitate this, the Clerk of the receiving Union will furnish, at the close of each half-year, a copy of so much of the Relief List of that Union as relates to the paupers sent from the contributory Union.

An account should be opened in the Ledger for the Union to which the children are sent, and that account should be credited, from time to time, with the sums debited to Electoral Divisions on the school account, and debited with the payments from time to time made to the receiving Union.

It seems desirable that, when children are sent from the Workhouse of the contributory Union to that of the receiving Union, a full extract from the registry of the sending Union, showing their age, religious denomination, and all other necessary particulars, should be sent with them.

By Order of the Commissioners,
W. STANLEY, Secretary.

To the Clerk of the ——— Union.

No. 2.—Mode of Keeping Accounts under District Schools' Order:—Circular to Boards of Guardians of Unions receiving Children.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
10th September, 1855.

Sir,

Inquiries having been made by Clerks of Unions, in some instances, as to the mode of keeping the accounts in Unions to which children, under the age of fifteen years, are sent from adjoining Unions, under the authority of a District School's Order; the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to point out to you the course which they think should be adopted, in the Accounts of the Union receiving children into the Workhouse, under the authority of such an Order.

When the children are received from the Union sending them, they should be entered on the register of the receiving Union, and in the Admission and Discharge book, and other books, precisely as if the Union sending the paupers were an Electoral Division of the Union receiving them. An account for the contributory Union should be opened in the Ledger of the receiving Union, which account should be debited with its proportionate share of maintenance, in the ordinary way, according to the number of days' relief shown to be chargeable to it, and also with a certain sum for establishment charges; this latter sum being the difference between the aggregate amount chargeable for the maintenance of the children during the half-year and the aggregate amount payable for the half-year, according to the daily rate fixed by the Order. Establishment account should be credited with the sum so charged for establishment expenses; and the amount at foot of that account, after deducting this credit, should be apportioned to the Electoral Divisions in the ordinary way, excluding, of course, from this apportionment, the Unions sending the children.

When payments are made by the contributory union to the receiving Union, the amount must of course be credited to the account opened, as above stated, for the contributory Union.

Immediately after the close of each half-year, the Clerk of the receiving Union should send to the Clerk of each of the contributory Unions, a copy of so much of the Relief List as relates to the paupers sent from such Union.

In the Abstracts (forms 4 A and 5 B) a line should be devoted to each contributory Union, in which the several particulars required by the headings of the columns, should be given, so far as those headings are applicable; and it will be convenient that the columns in the Abstracts should be totalled before the entry of these lines, which should be placed underneath such totals, and a new total made; thus showing, first, the totals as regard the Union itself, and then the grand total, including the particulars for the contributory Unions.

In the Returns of Workhouse inmates made to this Office, and entered on the minutes, a note should be given showing the number of paupers included in the Return who are chargeable to the contributory Unions. It seems desirable, that when children are sent from the Workhouse of the contributory Union to that of the receiving Union, a full extract from the registry of the sending Union, showing their age, religious denomination, and all other necessary particulars, should be sent with them.

By Order of the Commissioners,

No. 3.—Repairs of Workhouse Buildings:—Circular to Poor Law Inspectors, with enclosures.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
3rd November, 1855.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to acquaint you that they have recently caused an inspection of Workhouses in Ireland to be made, with the view of ascertaining the general state of repair of the Buildings, and the steps necessary to be taken in reference to any neglect or oversight which might appear, in any case, upon such inspection.

Statements of the particulars of such matters as appeared, on the inspection, to require attention, are now in course of preparation, and will be forwarded to the Guardians of the Unions to which they relate, when completed, and will then be referred to you for your information.

It is the wish of the Commissioners that you should take the earliest opportunity, after receiving the statements referred to, of ascertaining what steps may have been taken by the respective Boards of Guardians in reference to them; and that you should, if necessary, bring the subject specially under the consideration of the Guardians, and urge them to take the necessary steps.

The Commissioners also desire that, independently of the repairs now required to be done, you should hereafter give particular attention to the state of the Workhouse Buildings, and the repairs which may, from time to time, appear to be necessary in order to uphold and maintain the Buildings in an efficient and satisfactory state. Attention to these matters on the part of the Inspectors has now become more necessary than heretofore, in consequence of the change which has recently been made in regard to the Architect's department; and the Commissioners, therefore, desire to receive Reports from you on the subject, in reference to the Unions in your District, on the occasion of every inspection of a Union Workhouse which may be made by you with a view to your Quarterly Report. The Commissioners expect you, in making this Report, to point out such unremedied defects in the state of the Buildings as ought to receive immediate attention from the Guardians, arranged under the following heads:—

1. Slating and Ridge covering.
2. Lead Gutters and Flashings.
3. Eave Shoots or Gutters, and Down Pipes.
4. Floors of Mortar, Brick, Tiles or Flags, Chimney Shafts, Coping of Yard Walls, &c.

5. Dashing and Plastering of Walls outside.
6. Windows, Doors (inner and outer), Timbers in Girders and Joists bearing on the Walls.
7. Painting inside and outside.
8. Locks, Latches, Window Fastenings, &c.
9. Drains, surface and underground, Traps and Gratings at the end of them, and the state of the Yards.

It will be convenient, in reference to the arrangements in this Office, that your Report on these matters should be made on a separate sheet to that which contains your general Quarterly Report, and that it should be attached to the Quarterly Report, and forwarded therewith in the same manner as Reports on the state of the Workhouse Schools are now attached to, and forwarded with your Quarterly Reports.

In order to facilitate the making of the Reports now required, the Commissioners will cause forms, containing the several heads above mentioned, to be printed, with sufficient space for your observations under each head; and a supply of these forms will be forwarded to you in due course.

Copies of such of your Reports, as may show that any step necessary for the due maintenance and repair of the Buildings has been omitted or neglected by the Board of Guardians, which body is the responsible authority for the execution of all such necessary work, will be sent to the Guardians in due course.

In a Report which the Commissioners recently received from Mr. Wilkinson (late Architect to the Commission), he submits copies of general Specifications, prepared with a view to such repairs as may, from time to time, become necessary in the Workhouse Buildings; copies of which Specifications are enclosed for your information,* and copies of which will be also forwarded to the several Boards of Guardians.

In submitting these Specifications, Mr. Wilkinson calls attention to the importance of taking care that the repairs which are from time to time required, shall be duly and promptly executed; the Workhouse Buildings, especially the exposed external woodwork, being much more liable to decay, where this is neglected, than they otherwise would be.

Mr. Wilkinson states, as the result of recent surveys, that the Buildings generally have proved themselves, on the whole, to have been substantially executed, and to require only ordinary attention to maintain them in an efficient state of repair.

The portion of the work which is most liable to suffer from neglect, is that which requires protection from paint; and it appears from Mr. Wilkinson's Report, that this is a matter which has not, in all cases, received the attention which its importance demands, either as to the frequency of Painting, or the manner in which the Painting work has been executed. It is important that the materials used should be of good quality—that the work should be carefully stopped or puttied where sills of wood adjoin sills of stone, and elsewhere, where such preparations are proper before Painting.

Frequent attention appears also to be essentially necessary to the state of the Mortar pointing to the tops of Yard Walls, Chimney Shafts, and other places much exposed, which often need repair; this is the case also in regard to Mortar pointing around frames of Doors and Windows.

* Enclosures No. 1 to 6, page 26–31.

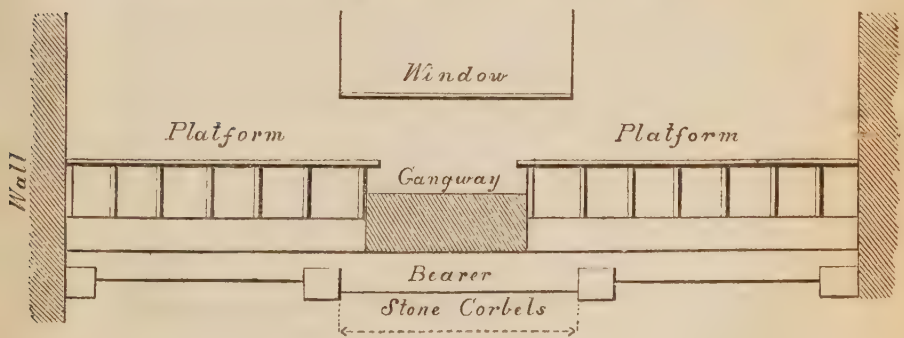
The Drains, and also the Catch-pits at the mouths of the Drains, which were provided to receive sediment and prevent the choking of the Drains, require regular attention; and it is probable, where the Drains, as originally laid down, have not been opened, that they may now, more or less, require taking up, and cleaning and re-laying. Mr. Wilkinson recommends the use of 6-inch or 9-inch circular tile Pipes in all cases where new Drains may be necessary; and he states, that these circular Drains can be made water-tight, and will be free from disturbance by Rats.

At most of the original Buildings, excellent under-ground rain-water Tanks have been provided; and Mr. Wilkinson states, that these Tanks are sometimes neglected or improperly used, and that in some houses they are altogether forgotten; the want of such a receptacle having been complained of while it was already there.

These Tanks would appear to be of considerable value where regularly and properly used, but they require cleaning occasionally; and it is suggested by Mr. Wilkinson that circular pipe Tiles be used to lead into them, where the others may require to be taken up.

Mr. Wilkinson states that it is found that where the gangways of the floors rest on the walls at the gable ends, such rests are immediately over arches, and that the vibration has caused cracks in some of the walls, between and above the windows. These gangways were most of them alterations of the centre floor joists in order to provide sleeping platforms, and avoid the necessity for bedsteads. This, he states, is a defect for which he wishes to suggest a remedy, whenever opportunities are favourable—viz., to put a small bearer resting on stone corbels, as shown by the following sketch:—



This space should be at least the width of the window above, so that the corbels may not come under the window opening.

It appears from Mr. Wilkinson's Report that it may probably, before long, be found necessary to put new pieces of plank flooring at the ends of the gangways against the walls, owing to the frequent saturation of this part of the floor by urine buckets, or tubs, being placed there at night.

Mr. Wilkinson refers also to the ventilators over the main stairs in the larger houses. He thinks it probable that, in some instances, these ventilators may, before long, be found to require considerable repairs; and, in that event, he suggests the use of stone side walls, according to a drawing annexed to his Report, a copy of which drawing is herewith enclosed.*

Mr. Wilkinson strongly remarks upon the necessity, in an economical point of view, of attending regularly and systematically to such repairs as may from time to time become necessary, in order to maintain the Buildings in an efficient state; and he observes that decay will increase in proportion to the neglect the work receives. He considers that an annual expenditure is necessary, and he states that he believes the best way will be to make contracts with respectable local persons for the glazing, the carpentry, and the smith's work; and with some respectable plumber for keeping the pumps, pipes, and lead works in order; also the roofs, though a slater is the proper person to employ. Regular attention to the spouting and down-pipes appears, by Mr. Wilkinson's Report, to be of the utmost importance, inasmuch as the neglect of them is calculated to occasion decay to the woodwork inside the walls, through the dampness resulting from the overflow. For painting he advises the purchasing good materials, and employing tradesmen (taking care that the work to be painted is first well cleaned), or else some person trustworthy as a competent painter. He also advises the employing of a mason as occasion may require for any repairs in the walls, flagging, or mortar pointing.

The Commissioners have thought it right to communicate Mr. Wilkinson's general views, as above stated, on the subject of the maintenance of the Workhouse Buildings and Fever Hospitals in a satisfactory state of repair, and to point out to you those particulars which appear to be of the greatest importance in reference to the upholding and preservation of the Buildings, in order that, in your conferences with Boards of Guardians, and in your Reports to the Commissioners on the subject, you may have the benefit of his experience, and be thus enabled more clearly to point out such matters as may require to be done, and more effectually press upon Boards of Guardians the duty and necessity of attending to them promptly.

By Order of the Commissioners,
W. Stanley, Secretary.

Enclosures in foregoing Circular of 3rd November, 1855.

Enclosure No. 1.

——— Union Workhouse.

Specification for Painting.

All the wood and iron work usually painted throughout the several buildings, doors, frames, windows, barge boards, turrets, lanterns, skylights, and all other painted wood and iron work, both on the inside and outside of the buildings, to be painted with good body colour, prepared with best white lead, the colour to be a light drab, or to be such plain colour upon any required portion as the Board of Guardians may direct.

Any stopping that may be required to the woodwork generally, to the sashes along the rebate of the frames, to the joint between the sills of the window frames and the stone sills, to the sashes of the turrets, lanterns and skylights, to be carefully made good with oil putty, a preparing coat of paint to be first laid on, on the part to be puttied, and all injured putty to be removed previous to the first painting.

The eave gutters and down-pipes from the roofs, the iron gates and railing, and such portions of the pump frame and apparatus as are usually painted are to be first well cleaned and to be painted as above described, the eave gutters to be cleaned and painted inside, as well as outside.

The tender to be delivered as required, and to state whether it is for covering the work with one coat, or with two coats, and whether for both internal and external work, or for external work only, or internal work only.

The Contractor for the painting to undertake and include in his contract, the making good all mortar or cement pointing which may be required between all the door and window frames, and the stone jambs throughout, which work is to be done previous to the commencement of the painting.

The whole of the window frames and casements, doors and frames, and other work throughout the buildings, to be painted, is to be well and properly cleaned before the first coat of paint is put on.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

——— UNION WORKHOUSE.

SPECIFICATION FOR GLAZING.

All the glazing required throughout the several buildings is to be executed with CC Glass, properly fitted and bedded in the rebates of the sashes in good oil putty, and properly cleaned off, both inside and out. The old glass and putty is to be cleaned out of the rebates of the sashes before the new glass is put in.

The contractor to supply all new panes of glass wherever broken by accident or otherwise, both to the common windows as well as to the lights of turrets and skylights, unless it should be agreed on between the Contractor and the Board of Guardians that Contractor be paid a certain price for each pane of glass furnished by him in compliance with any order signed by the Master of the Workhouse, or Clerk of the Board of Guardians, authorizing Contractor to insert such panes when required.

Enclosure No. 3.

——— Union Workhouse.

Specification for the Repair and Maintenance of the Roofs.

Slater's Work.

The slating of the several roofs throughout the Workhouse to be examined from time to time, and put into a state of perfect repair, where any such repair is seen to be necessary, by replacing in a proper and workmanlike manner all deficient slates with others of a proper kind, corresponding in size and quality with those used for the roofing of the building. The rendering to be made good, and all necessary pointing to the ridge and hip tiles to be in like manner made perfect with Roman cement (half cement and half clean sharp sand).

The closing edges of all slating against high buildings, chimneys, gables, or other walls to be made staunch, whether as relates to cement fillets, slate slips, pointing to lead flashing, or refixing disturbed lead work of ridges, valleys, gutters, flashings, &c., (this is not intended to include soldering cracks or other defects of the lead).

Eave Gutters and Down-Pipes.

All necessary repairs and adjustment of eave-shoots, and down-pipes to convey the water from the roofs to be in like manner attended to, and such portions as may be broken, or displaced by storms, or otherwise, together with all necessary holdfasts and fastenings, to be provided and made perfect at Contractor's expense (unless it should be agreed between the Board of Guardians and the Contractor that payments should be otherwise made for any new work required).

The eave gutters, cistern heads, and down-pipes are to be thoroughly cleaned twice during the year, and at all times when it is found they require cleaning.

Observation.—When the spouting or down-pipes are allowed to choke up, the overflow water renders the walls damp, and occasions decay of the timber work inside.

Enclosure No. 4.

——— Union Workhouse.

Specification for the Repair and Maintenance of Plumber's Works.

Pumps.

Working barrels and valves, working rod and frame, stuffing box and air vessel, and all other parts to be carefully attended to and repaired from time to time. All injuries from wear and tear to be immediately made good without delay or inconvenience to the establishment.

Pipes, Cisterns, &c.

The leadwork throughout, including pipes, cisterns, baths, lead gutters, valleys, hips, flashings, and all matters peculiar to plumber's work, which may require dressing, soldering, or staunching, to be examined, and kept in perfect repair. The brass cocks, plugs, washers, and chains, in connexion with the entire of the plumber's work, and at present attached to all pipes and boilers and elsewhere to be rendered perfect, and to be kept in that state during the full period of the Contract.

All badly injured cocks and pipes are to be made staunch and good, or to be replaced, during the entire period of the Contract, by new ones, to the extent necessary, without any additional charge to the amount of the Contract, except as may previously be agreed on between the Contractor and the Board of Guardians.

The Contractor will be required, without delay, after the Contract or Agreement is entered into, to put into thorough and proper repair all the work included in the Contract or Agreement, and maintain the work in a satisfactory state, and leave it so at the expiration of the term of the Contract or Agreement.

The tenders to state the price per cwt. that any new lead gutters and flashings will be provided and laid; but no new work of this kind is to be supplied except upon the order of the Board of Guardians, to be communicated to the Contractor by the Clerk of the Union in writing.

ENCLOSURE No. 5.

——— UNION WORKHOUSE.

SPECIFICATION FOR THE ADJUSTMENT AND REPAIR OF SMITH'S WORK.

The locks, keys, box staples, and hinges of the several doors throughout the establishment, together with the latches and bolts, including all staples, keepers, and iron fastenings, to be rendered perfect where injured, and kept in a state of thorough repair for the period contracted for. Obs.—The wards in the locks are not to be altered or injured when the locks are taken off and opened for the purpose of fitting new or old keys, but the wards are to be retained and properly straightened, and a new ward inserted where necessary.

The bolts of the several locks to be made to shoot freely and without strain into the several staples, by filing off from the under edge of the bolt such portion as may be necessary for the purpose, where the staples will not admit of being changed in their positions. The staples of the barrel-bolts on the frames are to be altered and adjusted where necessary to receive the bolts with freedom. New screws, for securing the bolts, &c., are to be provided and put in where necessary.

The quadrant bars, centers, and pivots, and fastenings, of all opening sashes to be kept free and secure, and all derangement adjusted in a perfect manner for each sash. All injured articles of ironmongery requiring to be replaced, and of which ironmongery similar articles are lodged in store with the Master for this purpose, are to be included for fixing and replacing in the tender for repairs.

Repair of Fire and Sewer Grates, and Railing and Gates.

The Contract to include repairs for all the present iron work connected with the several buildings and yards, as fire-grates (including re-setting or backing same with fire-brick or fire-stone), gratings and stench-traps over cesspools and sewers, gates and railing, &c.

New Work.

All new iron work or ironmongery which the Contractor may be required to provide, beyond what the Workhouse Master holds in store, to be returned at per article, in a list of prices, to accompany the tender for repairs—the list to state the price, the following articles will be supplied for each, including the taking off the old locks, latch, or whatever it may be, and fixing the new one, and fitting the pass keys; the old lock to be the property of the Contractor, but he is not to take away any of the keys :—

New iron rim lock and key, complete, including fitting the pass keys.
New pass keys, including fitting to all the locks, and taking off and re-fixing the locks.
New thumb-latch, complete.
New bolts, to be the same length and strength as those they are to replace now on the doors, &c.
New stock locks.
New quadrant bars for opening casements of window.
New water bars (these are the bars under the upper opening casements).
New T hinges and screws.
New 12-in. square cast-iron stench-traps, including setting. (Contractor to take old ones where new are substituted.)
New 9-in. square do. do. do.
Wrought-iron gratings of the sizes required at per pound, including taking out the old gratings and setting the new ones. The old gratings to be taken by the Contractor. The bars, &c., of the new grating to be the same size as in the old ones, except they are specially ordered by the Board of Guardians to be different.

Observations.—The Contractor will be required, without loss of time, to put all the work requiring it in thorough and proper repair, and maintain it so for the term the Contract extends to. Any new articles required are to be supplied and fixed within a reasonable time after they are ordered. No new locks or other article is to be supplied except upon the order of the Board of Guardians, to be communicated in writing by the Clerk of the Union to the Contractors.

ENCLOSURE No. 6.

SPECIFICATION FOR WATER SLIPS.

Wood slips, one inch thick, to be affixed to the sills of the window frames upon the inside of the windows, as shown in the sketch at a, to catch the condensed water, and deliver it on the outside of the frame by means of sloped borings made through the wood sill as shown at b b in the sketch.

A price per slip to be stated for providing and setting each slip, whether for the two-light, or large three-light window frames.

The slips to sills to be formed and fixed as shown, and imbedded in white lead, and staunchly nailed to the sills. No. 1 hole $\frac{3}{8}$″ diameter, to be bored through the sill under each division or light, and the hole to be charred with a red hot iron. Each slip to have two coats of good oil paint.

No. 4.—Repairs of Workhouse Buildings:—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
5th November, 1855.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland having recently caused the Workhouse of the —— Union to be inspected with the view of ascertaining the general state of repair of the Buildings, transmit to you, to be laid before the Board of Guardians, a statement of the several matters which appeared upon the inspection to require attention.

The Commissioners request that the Board of Guardians will be so good as to give their early attention to the enclosed statement, and give directions for the execution of the work required without delay.

The Commissioners also enclose copies of General Specifications which have been prepared for various Works which are required from time to time in large Buildings like the Union Workhouses.* These Specifications will, the Commissioners believe, be of considerable service to the Guardians hereafter, in making arrangements for such repairs as may become necessary; and the Commissioners desire to observe that systematic attention to the state of the Workhouse Buildings, and prompt directions for repairs when necessary, will, no doubt, be found advantageous on the score of economy, as without such attention the Buildings become much more liable to decay and deterioration.

It is suggested that Contracts should be taken (where they do not already exist), with respectable local persons for the Glazing, the Carpentry, and the Smith's work, and with some respectable Plumber, for keeping the pumps, pipes, and lead work in order; the keeping the roofs in order might also be included in this Contract, though a Slater is the proper person to employ.

In regard to Painting it is considered that the most advisable course is to purchase good materials and to employ tradesmen, taking care that the work to be painted is first well cleaned.

For any repairs that may be required in the walls, flagging, or mortar-pointing, the employment of a Mason as occasion may require is suggested.

The Commissioners wish to direct particular attention to the importance of attending to the spouting and down-pipes, the neglect of them being found to occasion dampness and sometimes to cause the decay of the woodwork inside the walls.

By Order of the Commissioners,
W. Stanley, Secretary.

To the Clerk of ——— Union.

No. 5.—Election of Guardians:—Letter of Instructions to Returning Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 11th, 1856.

Sir,

1. The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to call your attention to their General Order, dated the 26th of January, 1852, for regulating the conduct of Elections of Guardians in the several Unions in Ireland, a sealed copy of which order was transmitted with their circular of the 31st of that month.

2. That Order rescinded all previous orders for regulating such Elections, except the regulation or order fixing the amount of the qualification for the office of Guardian in the respective Unions, which remains as fixed by the last order issued in that behalf to each Union; and excepting also any existing regulation or order appointing the Returning Officer, and providing for the performance of the duties of that office. Under Article 1 of the General Order of 26th January, 1852, the Clerk of the Union for the time being will continue to be the Returning Officer, and the following regulation in the order previously issued continues in force, subject to the regulation in Article 1 of the General Order of 26th January, 1852:—

"Art. 1. The Clerk for the time being to the Board of Guardians "shall, at every future Election of Guardians of the said Union, be, and "We, the said Commissioners, do hereby appoint such Clerk to be the "Returning Officer: and such Clerk shall perform the duties herein directed "to be performed by the Returning Officer, and all other duties suitable to "his office, which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and "completing such Election. And in case the office of Clerk shall be vacant "at any time when any proceeding is to be taken under this Order, or in "case the Clerk shall be prevented by sickness or accident, or other sufficient "cause, from the performance of his duties, the Guardians of the said Union "shall appoint some person to perform such of the duties imposed by this "Order upon the Returning Officer as shall then remain to be performed, "and the person so appointed shall perform such duties."

3. Under Articles 3, 12, 21, and 33, of the General Order of 26th January, 1852, the Collectors of Poor Rate in the Union are to assist the Returning Officer as heretofore in the Election, at the times and for the purposes therein indicated. These regulations imposed no fresh duties on the collectors, but it will be proper for you to call the attention of each of them to those regulations before the next election takes place.

4. The Police, who may be employed as heretofore in posting the notices of the Election, and in distributing and collecting voting papers, will receive their instructions from their own superior officers; but in case their services, in any instance, should not be available in sufficient number for the latter duty, the returning officer should take care to furnish any other persons who may be employed by him, in pursuance of Article 2 of the General Order, for the distribution and collecting of the voting papers, with proper lists and instructions for their guidance, in accordance with Articles 17, 18, 20, 22, 23, and 27, of the Order.

5. Where it has happened in previous Elections that the assistance of the Police has not been available, or has not been available to sufficient extent, for the distribution and collection of voting papers within the prescribed period, the Commissioners have in some instances received applications for their sanction to the employment of the Collectors of Poor Rates or their assistants, and of Relieving Officers, in this service, where it may be necessary to issue voting papers. It is desirable that, where practicable, this duty should be performed by responsible officers; and as it will, according to the regulations, occupy only two, or at most four days, and will therefore not cause any material interruption of the ordinary duties of the Union officers referred to, the Commissioners are prepared to sanction their being employed to assist in performing the duty in question, provided the Board of Guardians permit them to be so employed, for which permission it will be your duty, where necessary, to apply. If the services of the Police and Union Officers should not be available or sufficient, you will have to employ other trustworthy persons acquainted with the respective localities, as far as practicable, in accordance with the regulation contained in Article 2 of the General Election Order of 26th January, 1852. But you will first take care to ascertain whether you can obtain the services of the Police in sufficient number or not, before you employ any other persons; and you will only resort to the employment of the officers of the Union or other persons, in case you cannot obtain the assistance of the Police in sufficient number.

6. Should some additional assistance be necessary for enabling you, in case of contests, to prepare the requisite Lists of Voters, and complete the proceedings in the Election at the times prescribed by the General Order, the Commissioners will be prepared to sanction such assistance for so long as may be absolutely requisite, on receiving a communication from you, setting forth the circumstances which render the application necessary, the particular purposes for which assistance is required, and the extent of assistance required.

7. One of your first duties will be to issue the notice of the Election, which is to be posted on the 25th February. The notice is to set forth the names of the Electoral Divisions, the qualification and number of Guardians to be elected for each, with other particulars prescribed in the General Order, according to the form (D) annexed thereto. You should, in due time before the 25th February, give notice of application to the Constabulary for their assistance in posting the notices, as heretofore; and you will afterwards forward the copies of the notices to the proper Constabulary stations. Due notice should likewise be given to the Constabulary when it becomes necessary to apply for their services in the distribution and collection of voting papers, apprising them of the probable extent of the duty to be performed.

8. The following are the days upon which the several proceedings in the ensuing Election are to be taken, in pursuance of the Order; the 21st of March being Good Friday, and the 23rd of March being Sunday, the proceedings appointed by the Order for those dates will, in the present year, be taken, in pursuance of Art. 41, on the 22nd and 24th of March, respectively.

25th February—Issue of Notice of Election. (Art. 9.)
4th March—Last day for receiving Nomination Papers, which can be received up to 5 o'clock, p.m., on that day. (Art. 11.)
8th March—List of Candidates to be prepared and forwarded: (Art. 14.)
—List of Voters to be prepared in case of contest.
The last day for receiving Statements of Claim to Vote, and Appointment of Proxies, (6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, § 24,)—so as to be available in this Election, will be the 20th February; and in case of contests, the Lists of Rate-payers making Statements are to be made up to that day. (Art. 17.)
11th March—Application to be made to Constabulary for assistance in distributing Voting Papers, where necessary, which should afterwards be transmitted to them, with the List of Voters, in due time for distribution on the day prescribed for the purpose.
17th March—List of occupying Tenants who are entitled to vote, having paid Rates required to be paid, is to be made up to this day. (Art. 21.)
18th March—Day for issuing Voting Papers, and following day, if needful. (Art. 20.)
20th March—Day for collecting Voting Papers, and 22nd March, if necessary. (Art. 27.)
22nd March—Time for applying for Voting Papers, where not duly received by persons entitled, expires. (Art. 28, 29.)
24th March—Time for delivering to Returning Officer Voting Papers that may not have been duly collected, expires. (Art. 30.)
25th March—Return of Guardians to be made (Art. 34); or within fourteen days thereof. (Art. 35.)

9. Previously to the commencement of the Election, you should procure the requisite supply of the forms prescribed for use in the Election. With regard to the notice of the Election (form D), the Commissioners have thought it advisable to direct that the copies of that notice should be printed and transmitted to you from this office, as usual, and the same number of copies as was forwarded to you last year will accordingly be transmitted to you in due time, for posting and distribution, according to Article 9 of the General Order. If, however, you should be of opinion that the number of copies printed last year was greater or less than will be required for the present year, you will be good enough to report the fact immediately, stating the number which you consider necessary. In the absence of any communication from you before the 25th instant, the same number as was furnished last year will be provided.

10. With regard to the other forms, steps should be taken in due time to provide a sufficient supply of those which may be required for carrying on the Election, as prescribed by the General Order. If any copies of the forms similar to those marked A 1 and 2, or B 1 and 2, or of the forms marked F, G 1 and 2, and L, in the present Order, remain on hand from previous Elections, they may be used for the approaching Election; and where register books (forms C 1, 2, and 3), for the entry of Statements of Claims to Vote and Appointments of Proxies, which have been already procured according to the forms prescribed in previous Orders, are not yet filled up, they may continue to be used until they are filled up and fresh books are required. For any other of the forms required, you should forward a requisition direct to the Printer, without delay

(except the notice, form D, above referred to), specifying the number of copies of each which will be requisite. The forms can be procured from Messrs. Thom & Sons, of 87, Abbey-street, Dublin; but should you employ any other printer, it will be necessary for you to compare the several forms carefully with those prescribed in the General Election Order of 26th January, 1852, as you will be responsible for their accuracy. The charge for Voting Papers is not to exceed 2*s.* per hundred, at which they may be obtained in Dublin; and it is advisable that you should ascertain and compare the prices at which other forms are procurable, before you order them.

11. A placard, containing a description of the Electoral Divisions in the Union as at present constituted, to be posted in case of contest, as heretofore, should be prepared, and a sufficient number of copies thereof for posting obtained when necessary, in like manner with the Voting Papers.

12. The forms (A 1, 2, and B 1, 2), for Statements of Claims to Vote, and Appointments of Proxies with their Applications, in pursuance of § 84 of 1 & 2 Vic., c. 56, and the Statements of Corporations and Joint-Stock Companies, in pursuance of the 86th section of that Act, are to be supplied, free of charge (on application made to you), to any Persons, or Corporations, or Companies, respectively, who may require them for their own statements or applications, It would not be expedient to make a more general distribution of these forms.

13. With regard to the registry of such Statements and Appointments in the proper books (forms C 1, 2, 3), the Commissioners request the special attention of the Clerk and Returning Officer to Articles 4 and 5 of the General Order of the 26th January, 1852, and to the duties assigned to those officers in respect to the same, under the provisions of the Statutes and under Articles 6 and 8 of the Order.

14. The provisions of the Acts relating to such statements and registers are contained in § 84 of 1 & 2 Vic., c. 56, as amended by § 24 of 6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, to which your attention is requested, as well as to § 26 of the latter Act. The first-named section sets forth the particulars required to be stated in such claims, which must be lodged one calendar month before the owner or his proxy can vote as such; and requires that the Guardians, or the person acting as Returning Officer, should register such claims in manner provided. If at any Election the Returning Officer have reasonable cause to doubt the correctness of a claim to vote, made by any person in respect of net rent, the Returning Officer is required by the last-named section not to admit such person to vote, until he shall have produced evidence, to the satisfaction of the Returning Officer, of the amount of such rent.

15. Inconvenience and irregularity, it is believed, have occurred in some instances from the discovery, at the time of an Election, of errors or defects in the registry prescribed, from omission of claims therein, or from retaining on record the claims of persons deceased, or from other causes, where the original statements of claim, owing to changes of officers or other circumstances, are not themselves forthcoming. The Commissioners therefore request that you will at once see whether, in the Union for which you act, the prescribed registers have been duly kept up to the present time; and if not, that they be perfected before the approaching Election takes place. Care should be taken also to revise the entries in any existing registers, with a view to their proper correction where the original claimants have died, or other changes affecting the validity or continuance of the claims have taken place.

16. The Commissioners take this opportunity to observe, that although an owner or proxy is not entitled, under § 24 of 6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, to vote until one calendar month after he shall have made the prescribed statement or appointment and claim, it is not necessary that he should make or renew such statement, &c., a month before each Election. The statements of claim, &c., may be made at any time, and they continue effective as long as the parties remain in possession of the interests described therein, and in the case of a proxy, until the appointment is revoked, or until the owner himself resumes the exercise of his right to vote, or either of the parties dies.

17. Any such statements, &c., should be duly preserved; and in case there be reason to believe that any that may have been already lodged have not been handed over to you by any previous officer, or not registered, you should make inquiry of such officer, or otherwise endeavour to obtain them, and forthwith see that they be recorded in the proper form of register book, and that the directions in the above-mentioned Articles of the Election Order be duly complied with.

18. In reference to the alterations which have been made in the boundaries of some Unions or Electoral Divisions of Unions, the Commissioners desire to observe, that the alteration of boundaries in any Union has not the effect of preventing any person from exercising his right to vote, who would otherwise be entitled to vote, in pursuance of a statement of claim made at any previous Election, or not less than one month before the time for voting in the approaching Election, in respect of property situated in any of the present Electoral Divisions of the Union. The Returning Officer, however, is not bound, under Article 22 of the Election Regulations, to cause any Voting Papers to be delivered out of the Electoral Division or Ward for which it may be necessary to issue Voting Papers; and if the places named for the reception of Voting Papers, by the owners or proxies who have made claims, be not in any case within the respective Divisions or Wards in which the properties are now situate, you should immediately communicate with such parties, and request them to name a place within the Division or Ward, and point out to them that otherwise they can only vote in manner provided in Article 28 of the Election Regulations; and you should apprize the parties concerned as above of the substance of the regulation contained in that Article.

19. A practice appears to have been adopted by the Returning Officer, in some instances, of marking on each of the Voting Papers, in addition to the number directed by Article 18 of the Election Regulations, the name of the person for whom it is issued, or his name and address; and in the case of a proxy, the name of the proxy, as well as that of the person for whom he is proxy. The Commissioners think it right to point out, that the Returning Officer is not required by the regulations to endorse the name of any party on the Voting Paper, and the practice has been found in some instances to lead to error. It seems advisable, therefore, that the Returning Officer should not, in this respect, do more than he is required to do by the 18th Article of the Election Order, viz. :—to prepare Lists containing the number of each paper, and the name of the place at which it is to be left, and to endorse each paper with its proper number corresponding to that in the List.

20. The Returning Officer should take care to make himself well acquainted with the regulations contained in the General Order of the 26th January, 1852, before the Election commences. With a view to general convenience and economy, the business of the Election is to be transacted, as far as possible, at the board-room of the Guardians, and within the hours of ten and five o'clock in the day. The Returning Officer is to attend daily (except on Sundays) at the place appointed, from the date for the issue of the notice to the last day for receiving Nomination Papers, inclusive, to afford information to persons requiring it; and likewise during the period from the first day for the collection of Voting Papers until the examination of the votes and the return of the Guardians elected shall have been completed, (see Articles 28, 29, 30, 33, 34, and 35;) and also at all such other times during the progress of the Election as may be necessary for the due performance of his duties, as directed in Article 31. In reference to the examination and casting up of the votes (Article 33), the Commissioners are not prepared to deprive the Returning Officer of a discretion in regard to the admission or exclusion of strangers, inasmuch as the exercise of such a discretion may, on some occasions, be necessary to the proper discharge of his duty; but, on the other hand, the Commissioners think that if the Returning Officer excludes from the examination of the Voting Papers for a particular Electoral Division either the candidates for that Electoral Division or those who proposed them, he should be prepared to show some urgent reason for a step which, generally speaking, would seem to be unnecessary and unreasonable; but the Commissioners do not think it desirable that the privilege of being present during the examination of the votes, should be extended to rate-payers generally.

21. Your special attention is requested to your duties as Clerk of the Union under the regulations contained in Articles 36 and 37 of the General Order. Under the former of those Articles you are, immediately on the return of the new Election of Guardians being completed, to transmit to each member of the Board of Guardians for the previous year, including ex-officio Guardians and out-going Guardians, as well as any who may be re-elected, a notice in the form K, apprizing them of the names of the several Guardians elected for the ensuing year. The object of this regulation being chiefly to obviate the inconvenience of any Guardian attending at any meeting of the Board after his year of office has expired, you should take care that this notice is transmitted without any delay, on the completion of the return. Under Article 37, you are likewise to transmit to every Guardian elected for the ensuing year, whether previously a Guardian or not, a notice in the usual form, marked L in the General Order of the 26th January, 1852. Under the 20th section of the Irish Poor Relief Act, 1 and 2 Vic., c. 56, the Annual Election of the Guardians is to be completed on the 25th March, or if that day should fall on Sunday or Good Friday, then on the day next following, or within fourteen days next after such 25th day of March; and the section further declares that "immediately upon their Election, the Guardians previously elected by the rate-payers of any Union shall go out of office." You should therefore issue the notices K and L according to the regulations, immediately on the return being made, so that the first meeting thereafter may consist of the members of the new Board, in accordance with the Act. The issue of these notices is not to be delayed until a meeting of the Board of Guardians shall have been held, but a certified copy of the return is to be laid before the Board at the first meeting after such return is made.

22. Immediately on the close of the Election, an account of the expenses of the same is to be transmitted to the Commissioners for examination and sanction, in a form which will be forwarded to you for the purpose.

By Order of the Commissioners,

W. Stanley, Secretary.

To the Clerk of the —— Union,

Returning Officer of the said Union.

No. 6.—Collection of Rates made before Alteration of Boundaries:—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin.
29th February, 1856.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, having had under their consideration the subject of the collection of the Rates which were in course of collection at the time when the boundaries of Unions were altered, are desirous of receiving a Return, showing the progress made with the collection of such Rates since the 25th March, 1851, in continuation of a Return made in 1851, pursuant to the Commissioners' Circular Letter of 5th July, 1851, No. 325, M–51; and a Form of Return is enclosed herewith, which you are requested to fill up and return to this office as soon as possible.

In case the collection is not yet closed, the Commissioners desire to recommend the Board of Guardians to take immediate steps to effect this object, by obtaining lists of all defaulters, and by appointing a Committee of Guardians to scrutinize each case closely, with a view to proceedings being taken to enforce payment wherever the Rate is recoverable, and by declaring uncollectable all such arrears as cannot be legally enforced. The Commissioners also recommend the Guardians to adopt some definite future point of time at which the collection of the outstanding Rates should be considered as closed.

If the Rate be not closed, you are requested to send, with the required Return, a statement on the usual Weekly Form of Abstract, showing the present state of the collection of the former Union Rate; and you are requested to continue to send such a Return weekly, until the collection is finally closed.

By Order of the Commissioners,

W. Stanley, Secretary.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 7.—Combination of Duties of Clerk and Master:—Letter to Boards of Guardians accompanying Order.*

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
7th March, 1856.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit herewith a copy of an Order which they have deemed it expedient to issue, making the existing Rules and Regulations, regarding the duties of Clerk of the Union and Master of the Workhouse, applicable to the case of —— Union where the offices of Clerk and Master have been permitted to be held by the same person.

In regard to the Bond to be given by the person holding the joint offices of Clerk and Master, and his Sureties, the Commissioners think that the existing form of Clerk's Bond may easily be adapted to the circumstances of the case.

By Order of the Commissioners,

To the Presiding Chairman of the Board of Guardians, —— Union.

W. Stanley, Secretary.

No. 8.—Admission of Poor Persons to Workhouse Fever Hospital.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
30th April, 1856.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland having been made aware that, in some Unions, the relief afforded to persons affected with fever or other dangerous contagious disease, was not limited to the Destitute Poor, or even to the class of persons who appear to be specially contemplated by the 16th sec. of the Act 6 and 7 Vic., c. 92, viz.—"Poor Persons" as distinguished from Destitute Poor Persons; they thought it advisable to obtain the opinion of Counsel on the subject, and also as to whether poor persons could legally be admitted to the Workhouse Fever Hospital on the condition of a certain fixed payment being made towards the cost of their maintenance and treatment while there.

A case was accordingly laid before the Solicitor-General (Mr. Christian), and the Commissioners now transmit, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of the Queries submitted to him, and of the opinions given by him thereon; from which it will be seen that he is of opinion that persons answering the description of "Poor," though not being "Destitute," may be admitted to the Workhouse Fever Hospital, if affected with fever or other dangerous contagious disease; and that there is no objection to such persons being allowed or required to contribute to their own maintenance in so far as their means will allow; but, that he thinks it will be better that, to the extent of the repayment intended, the relief should be declared to be by way of loan.

Strict care should of course be taken, as suggested in Mr. Christian's opinion, that the law be not perverted by being applied to the relief of persons who do not bona fide come under the definition of "Poor."

By Order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

Queries and Opinions referred to in the Circular annexed.

1. Whether the Board of Guardians can legally admit into the Fever Hospital of the Workhouse poor persons, not being destitute, on condition of a certain fixed payment being made towards the cost of their maintenance and treatment while there.	The practice which is stated to have prevailed of considering the 16th sec. of the 6th and 7th Vic. c. 92, as including persons answering the description of "Poor" though not being "Destitute," is, I think, warranted by the terms of the Statute, and if so, I do not see any objection to those persons being allowed or required to contribute to their own maintenance, &c., so far as their means will allow. Strict care should, however, be taken, that the law be not perverted by being applied to the relief of persons who do not bona fide come under the definition of "Poor."
2. Assuming that the Guardians can admit poor persons affected with fever into the Workhouse, and receive payment for their maintenance and treatment in the way proposed, whether, in order to enable them to do so, it will be necessary for them to declare the relief given to be by way of loan, as in the case of destitute persons.	I think it will be better that, to the extent of the repayment intended to be taken, the relief shall be declared to be by way of loan. J. Christian, Leeson-street. April 26th, 1856.

No. III.—Correspondence with the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, as to the Average Rate of Wages of Agricultural Labourers and Mechanics in Ireland.

No. 1.—Letter from the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners to the Poor Law Commissioners, dated 26th February, 1856.

With reference to my letter of the 10th of April, 1854, requesting to be furnished with certain information on the state of the labouring population, as bearing on the continuance of emigration from Ireland, I am directed by the Emigration Commissioners to state, that they would feel much obliged if you will be good enough to favour them with any similar information that you may possess at the present time, as they are about to prepare their Annual Report for Parliament.

No. 2.—Letter from the Poor Law Commissioners to the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, dated 23rd April, 1856.

Adverting to your letter of the 26th February last, requesting to be furnished with certain information on the state of the labouring population, as bearing on the continuance of emigration from Ireland, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland now transmit to you an Abstract of Reports, which they have since received from the several Poor Law Inspectors, on the average rate of wages paid to agricultural labourers, and the principal classes of mechanics in their respective districts.

Enclosure in No. 2.—Abstract of Replies received from Inspectors to Circular relative to the existing Average Rates of Wages paid to Agricultural Labourers, and the principal Classes of Mechanics in their respective Districts.

Mr. Horsley.—3rd March, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Cork, Kerry, and Limerick.

The following are the average rates of wages paid to agricultural labourers, and the principal classes of mechanics, per week.

Agricultural labourers,	7*s.* 6*d.* per week.
Tailors,	13*s.* ,,
Shoemakers,	13*s.* ,,
Weavers,	10*s.* ,,
Bricklayers and Masons,	18*s.* ,,
Carpenters,	18*s.* ,,
Blacksmiths,	20*s.* ,,
Coopers,	24*s.* ,,
Painters and Glaziers,	18*s.* ,,
Bakers,	18*s.* ,,
Sawyers,	18*s.* ,,
Nailers,	12*s.* ,,
Plasterers,	18*s.* ,,

Not only is there a great demand for agricultural labour at the present season, but, in consequence of an improved system of farming having been very generally adopted by the tenant farmers in the district within the last two or three years, continuous employment is now easily obtained by all skilled able-bodied agricultural labourers; while at the same time the young members of their families are enabled to earn moderate daily wages during the busiest season of the year.

A considerable rise has also taken place in the wages received by farm and domestic servants hired by the year, half-year, or quarter.

Generally speaking, all the industrial classes who depend on manual labour for their livelihood, are, notwithstanding the high prices of provisions, in a more comfortable and independent position at present than they were at the corresponding period of last year.

Mr. Otway.—6th March, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Dublin, Kildare, King's, Longford, Louth, Meath, and Westmeath.

Has nothing to alter in the opinions expressed in Report of last year as to the average rates of wages in the district; and submits Report of last year also as his Report for the present, no alteration having since taken place in the average rates of wages in the district.

Mr. W. Hamilton.—8th March, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Tipperary, Waterford, Kilkenny, and Wexford.

The wages of agricultural labourers have improved since last Report, in 1855. The rates were then stated to be from 5*s.* to 7*s.* 6*d.* a-week; they now vary from 6*s.* to 7*s.* 6*d.* Higher wages are paid in a few localities, and at certain seasons; but the rates stated may be taken as those generally existing throughout the district one day with another. There has been no change in the rates paid to mechanics; they vary as follows:—

Tailors,	12*s.* to 18*s.* per week.
Shoemakers,	12*s.* to 18*s.* ,,
Weavers,	7*s.* to 12*s.* ,,
Bricklayers and Masons,	18*s.* to 20*s.* ,,
Carpenters,	15*s.* to 18*s.* ,,
Blacksmiths,	12*s.* to 18*s.* ,,
Coopers,	15*s.* to 20*s.* ,,
Bakers,	18*s.* to 20*s.* ,,
Nailers,	9*s.* to 12*s.* ,,
Ship Carpenters,	20*s.* to 26*s.* ,,
Bacon Salters,	15*s.* ,,
Iron Founders,	8*s.* to 20*s.* ,,
Corn Porters,	9*s.* to 18*s.* ,,
Builders' Labourers,	8*s.* to 9*s.* ,,

The same good and steady demand for all classes of mechanics exists throughout the district, with no exception worth notice. The high prices of all the necessaries of life have hitherto retarded the improvement in the condition of the labouring classes, which they would otherwise have experienced from the rate of wages which the increased demand and more scanty supply of labour have so generally established. Nevertheless, their condition is undoubtedly better than it was this time last year. The district has been remarkably free from crime.

Mr. Lucas.—8th March, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Clare, Limerick, and Tipperary.

The following is a statement of the existing average rates of wages paid to agricultural labourers, and the principal classes of mechanics, in the district.

	In the District generally.	In the City of Limerick.
Agricultural labourers,	6*s.*	6*s.*
Tailors,	15*s.*	15*s.*
Shoemakers,	15*s.*	18*s.*
Weavers,	15*s.*	15*s.*
Bricklayers and Masons,	19*s.* 6*d.*	24*s.*
Carpenters,	18*s.*	22*s.* 6*d.*
Blacksmiths,	18*s.*	22*s.* 6*d.*
Coopers,	19*s.*	26*s.*
Slaters and Plasterers,	19*s.* 6*d.*	22*s.*6*d.*
Bakers,	15*s.*	18*s.*
Sawyers,	19*s.* 6*d.*	20*s.*

These rates of wages do not represent more than the amounts paid to those classes whose employment is somewhat of a permanent character. The exigencies of last year's harvest required the farmer to pay wages of an unprecedentedly high rate; and as the present season advances, it is expected that the casual labourer will be again highly remunerated.

It does not appear that any material alteration has taken place in the wages of the classes who are permanently employed, as compared with the wages paid in the corresponding season of the previous year. The demand for labour continues active, and is gradually becoming more permanent. The tide of emigration, which, in former years, was so rapid in the district, has now in a great measure ceased.

Mr. Robinson.—8th March, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Antrim, Armagh, Cavan, Down, Londonderry, Monaghan, and Tyrone.

The following statement shows the average rate of wages in the district:—

Agricultural labourers, at constant work, from 5*s.* to 7*s.* a-week.
do. do. when only occasionally employed, „ 7*s.* to 10*s.* 6*d.* „

Tailors,
Shoemakers,
Weavers,
Bricklayers and Masons,
Carpenters,
Blacksmiths,
Coopers,
} No material change since 1855; and the average rates named in last Return are applicable to the present year.

There appears to have been little variation in the general rate of wages since this time last year; but whatever difference exists indicates a tendency towards increase, which is especially to be observed in the case of agricultural labourers in the immediate vicinity of large towns, or in a neighbourhood where railway works are in progress. Agricultural labourers in constant employment receive about 6*s.*, and in many instances 7*s.* a-week; while those who are taken in to work at seed time and harvest, have no difficulty in obtaining employment at 1*s.* 6*d.* a-day. Throughout the country generally, but particularly in the manufacturing districts, a change for the better is manifest in the circumstances of the poor. There has lately been an improvement in the state of the linen trade, which at one time was much depressed, and the weavers and other operatives are more comfortable and more independent, in consequence of the increased and continuous demand for their labour, as well as from the fall in the price of provisions.

Mr. Bourke.—11*th March*, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Leitrim, Mayo, Roscommon, Sligo, and Donegal.

Annexed is a statement of the general rate of wages paid to labourers and mechanics in the district.

Agricultural labourers,	6*s.* per week.
Farm Servants, (males)	40*s.* per quarter,	with food.
do. do. (females)	15*s.* to 20*s.* ,, ,,	with food.
Ploughmen, Carters, &c.,	7*s.* 6*d.* per week.
Bricklayers and Masons,	18*s.* ,,
Plasterers,	18*s.* ,,
Carpenters,	18*s.* ,,
Coopers,	15*s.* ,,
Black and White Smiths,	18*s.* ,,
Painters and Glaziers,	18*s.* ,,
Weavers,	10*s.* ,,
Tailors,	12*s.* ,,
Shoemakers,	12*s.* ,,

This is a fair representation of the wages throughout the district, but the rates vary in various localities. One shilling a-day may be considered the normal rate of wages paid to agricultural labourers in the district—that is, the rate paid at ordinary periods, when no pressure exists upon the farmer; but if the workman's hire were averaged throughout the year, including seed time and harvest, the rate would rise to 1*s.* 2*d.* or 1*s.* 3*d.* a-day. In some portions of the district 10*d.* a-day continues to be paid, but this is exceptional, and there is a uniform concurrence of opinion, that after the ensuing harvest the rate will not again fall below one shilling a-day. Upon the whole, therefore, the rise of wages previously noted appears steadily to continue, and the labourer's condition is still improving.

Notwithstanding the increase of land under tillage in Connaught during the year 1855, as compared with 1854, and the demand for recruits in both army and militia, it cannot be said that there is yet any scarcity of agricultural labour. It is true that hands are difficult to procure in harvest, and higher wages are given in spring; but if this were otherwise there would be, during the rest of the year, a considerable superabundance of labour. This arises from the defective cultivation of the district, and the circumstance occasions some difficulty in fixing precisely the rate of wages throughout the district; for when employment is not continuous, rates are paid rather in proportion to the exigency of the moment than in accordance with any general standard.

The demand for tradesmen of all kinds is considerable and the wages remunerative. The rates above given are for country districts and small towns; in larger towns, such as Sligo, the rates are higher.

Mr. R. Hamilton.—15th March, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Cavan, Donegal, Fermanagh, Londerry, and Tyrone.

The following is a statement of the existing average rates of wages paid to agricultural labourers, and the principal classes of mechanics:—

Labourers,	6*s.* per week.
Tailors,	15*s.* ,,
Shoemakers,	14*s.* ,,
Bricklayers,	18*s.* ,,
Masons,	18*s.* ,,
Carpenters,	18*s.* ,,
Stonecutters,	18*s.* ,,
Slaters,	18*s.* ,,

Although there does not appear to be any marked advance in the rate of wages for daily work since last spring, all the accounts received represent the condition of the agricultural labourer as improved, and employment seems to be abundant. The improved condition of the working classes may be attributed to the reduced price of provisions, and to the increase of employment for the female members of their families. There are at present twelve firms in Derry giving out work to shirtmakers, and one of them pays as much as £1,600 a month in wages. Embroidery work is also extensively carried on in some portions of the district.

A great deal of the agricultural labour is done by farm servants, young unmarried men, who hire by the quarter, or the half year; there is an advance in the rate of wages given to this class of servants.

Mr. O'Brien.—22nd March, 1856.

District comprised in the County of Cork.*

The following is a statement of the present average rate of wages paid to labourers and mechanics in the Cork district:—

	WEEKLY WAGES.

* This District was formerly in charge of Mr. Hall.

The standard of wages in the district has not undergone any sensible alteration since last year, and as the price of the chief articles of consumption in daily use amongst the working classes, has, generally speaking, materially reduced since that time, and as no difficulty is experienced in obtaining continuous employment, it may be fairly inferred, that their condition has upon the whole improved somewhat during the present year.

Mr. O'Brien.—22nd March, 1856.

District comprised in the Counties of Galway, Roscommon, King's, Westmeath, and Tipperary.*

The following is a summary of the present average rate of wages paid to labourers and mechanics in the district:—

Agricultural labourers,	6*s.* to 9*s.*
Tailors,	15*s.*
Shoemakers,	15*s.*
Weavers,	6*s.*
Bricklayers and Masons,	16*s.*
Carpenters,	18*s.*
Blacksmiths,	8*s.*
Coopers,	9*s.*
Painters,	15*s.*
Tinmen,	7*s.* 6*d.*
Slaters and Plasterers,	16*s.* 6*d.*
Bakers,	15*s.*

As regards mechanics, very little change has taken place in the standard of wages as it existed at the same time last year, but in some parts of the country a slight downward tendency has been experienced in the case of agricultural labourers; a circumstance which is to be attributed mainly to the unusually favourable weather the farmers have enjoyed for their spring operations, and the consequent absence of the pressure as to time, which so materially influenced the state of the labour market at this season last year. Notwithstanding this, the condition of the working classes, upon the whole, is rather more favourable than it was last year, from the fact, that the market-price of some of the principal descriptions of food in use amongst them has sensibly declined since that time—as, for instance, potatoes, which are now to be had generally at a reduction of about one-third of the price paid for them at the corresponding period of last year. It is believed that there are now few localities in which all able and willing labourers, who are not themselves holders of small portions of land, are not in the enjoyment of continuous employment throughout the year.

Mr. Crawford.—22nd April, 1856.

No essential change appears to have occurred in the rate of wages since the report of last year, and the average rate may be safely stated to continue about the same.

At particular seasons of the year a much higher rate of wages is paid to agricultural labourers, but the average rate of wages cannot be said throughout the year to exceed the sum of six shillings weekly. There is no doubt, however, that the demand for labour is every day becoming more steady, which is shown by the great diminution which has taken place in the number of able-bodied inmates of workhouses in the district—no able-bodied man receiving relief except in the event of extraordinary circumstances. The same observation may be made with respect to the several classes of mechanics, although no marked alteration has occurred in the weekly rate of wages. There is every day a more continuous demand for their labour, which will probably result in an increase taking place.

The following are the average rates of wages paid weekly in the district.

No. IV.—Reports from Poor Law Inspectors on the State of Mendicancy in their several Districts.

No. 1.—Report from Richard Bourke, Esq.

District comprised in the Counties of Leitrim, Mayo, Roscommon, Sligo, and Donegal.

Ballina, April 19th, 1856.

Gentlemen,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th instant, desiring my report upon the state of mendicancy in this district during the last three years, and at the present time, as far as my personal observation and experience enable me to form an opinion.

In reply, I beg to state, that the general result of my observation is, that during the last three years there has been a gradual, but steady, diminution of mendicancy in this district, and that at the present time it is confined, almost entirely, to professional beggars and vagrants.

In the year 1853, whilst the effects of the previous years of famine continued to be felt, the mendicants in this district may be considered as having belonged to four classes.

1st.—The professional beggars, comprising persons maimed in limb, or suffering from blindness or other bodily defect, who made a trade of exposing their deformities in the thoroughfares adjoining towns where fairs or markets were held, and mendicants, who frequented towns, clamouring for alms at shop-doors or coach-offices.

2nd.—Vagrants who rambled through rural districts, sometimes extorting charity from the timid by the importunity with which it was claimed.

3rd.—Persons rendered destitute by the famine, who had been ejected from their cabins and were wandering through the country with their families, preferring a life of mendicancy to the restraints of the workhouse.

4th.—Women and children abandoned by the head of the family whilst he sought employment in England or Scotland: this class being chiefly met with during spring and summer.

Of these four classes the third was the first to disappear; and families of beggars, without homes, are now very rarely met with in this district.

The fourth class continued longer; and, until within the last two years, women and children were to be met roaming through the country and maintaining themselves by begging, whilst the head of the family was employed at harvest-work in England or Scotland. These persons were usually possessed of a cottage, and small quantity of land planted with potatoes before the head of the family went to England or Scotland, and to which they returned when he came back. I observed scarcely any of this class during the past year, nor have I seen any of them during the present season.

As far, therefore, as my observation extends, I can give it as my opinion that, with but few exceptions, the only beggars to be met with in this district belong to the professional classes; and as long as indiscriminate alms-giving continues to be the practice of the middle orders of this country, that description of mendicants will remain, and its existence will afford no criterion of the circumstances of the people.

At no period, within my recollection, has food been so cheap as at the present moment in this part of Ireland—potatoes having been sold in the Swineford Union, during the past week, at 2*d.* and $2\frac{1}{2}d.$ per stone, and the stock appearing to be abundant.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

R. Bourke.

No. 2.—Report from W. H. Lucas, Esq.

District comprised in the Counties of Clare, Limerick, and Tipperary.

Kilrush, April 21, 1856.

Gentlemen,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 4th instant, No. 101 $^{M}/_{56}$, requesting to be informed of the result of my observations and experience as to the state of mendicancy in my district, for the period embracing the four preceding years, and at the present time. In reference thereto I have to observe, that during the early part of the time referred to, the dole of the beggar (potatoes) was scarce, and the small holders of land had barely recovered from the effects of famine; they were, moreover, then compelled to pay high rates, which operated in checking alms-giving, and mendicants were necessitated to seek workhouse relief. Since that period the condition of the farmer and the peasant has favourably progressed, and mendicancy, with its attendant evils, again exists to a large extent.

The great majority of mendicants are a helpless class—widow-women burthened with children of tender years, the cripple, blind, and impotent. On fairs and market days, this class may be seen, on the outskirts of towns, exposing their wretchedness to commiseration, and extorting, by their prayers and importunities, pittances of potatoes, turf, and such other commodities as may be passing to the market; the exception is to give money, the rule is to give small quantities of the commodities I have described; and at night ready access to the cabin is afforded, where the beggar is permitted to cook his meals and shelter himself. This voluntary and pernicious system is, I fear, generally preferred to the compulsory one of requiring the destitute to be supported by poor rates in workhouses.

Irrespective of the system being a direct infraction of the Vagrant Act—the provisions of which, I regret to say, are seldom enforced—it is fraught with many evils to the community at large. It perpetuates mendicancy, prostitution, and thieving; for it is notorious that the offspring of persons who subsist by begging, are incapable of exertion, become demoralized, and rarely, if ever, seek any other occupation; whereas, if the provisions of the Act for the suppression of vagrancy were strictly enforced, those who are mendicants from necessity must seek relief in the workhouse, where their wants would be attended to; they would be taught habits of cleanliness and industry, and their children, at all events, would be trained with the view of making them useful members of society. Those who are beggars from choice would be necessitated to work for subsistence; and the public would, moreover, be comparatively free from importunity and annoyance. There is another evil attending the system which it is right I should advert to: many of the mendicants resort to towns for shelter, and to more successfully carry on their calling; eventually they become infirm and sick, and being relieved, are legally chargeable on the division; and this may, to some extent, account for the disproportion of pauperism which is found to exist on all divisions comprising towns, as compared with rural divisions.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

W. H. Lucas, Poor Law Inspector.

No. 3.—Report from Henry Robinson, Esq.

District comprised in the Counties of Antrim, Armagh, Cavan, Down, Londonderry, Monaghan, and Tyrone.

Ballymoney, April 21, 1856.

Gentlemen,

In reply to your letter of the 4th inst., in which you request that I will report to you as to the state of mendicancy in this district, I beg to inform you, that during the last few years mendi-cants have diminished in number in this part of Ireland, and are still decreasing.

I do not, however, conceive that this change is to be altogether attributed to the improved condition of the labouring classes, or to the rise in the rate of wages, as the persons who resort to begging for their support are a class not much affected by the state of the labour market. They are either professional and habitual mendicants, who have no inclination for work, and whose previous habits of life unfit them for it, or they are poor persons unable to earn a maintenance in consequence of age, infirmity, or some mental or bodily defect; but labourers and mechanics, when in distress from want of employment, have generally sought relief from the Poor Law Guardians, and have, when destitute, obtained admission to the Union Workhouses. The knowledge that all destitute poor persons may obtain relief on making application for it, having to a considerable extent checked the system of alms-giving, there is less encouragement than heretofore for persons to seek a livelihood by begging; while many of those who had for years been vagrants have disappeared, some having died, and others having, doubtless, in numerous instances, become permanent occupants of the workhouses. To these causes may, in a great measure, be attributed the decrease in mendicancy that has recently taken place.

In towns where the Vagrant Act is put in force, (as in Belfast, where the committals for "wandering abroad and begging" have, during the past few years, been numerous), the reduction in the number of beggars is particularly to be observed; and the beneficial operation of this Act in such places would show how desirable it is that its provisions should be universally and rigidly enforced.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

HENRY ROBINSON.

No. 4.—REPORT from C. G. OTWAY, Esq.

District comprised in the Counties of Dublin, Kildare, King's, Longford, Louth, Meath, and Westmeath.

Dublin, April 24, 1856.

GENTLEMEN,

In reply to your letter of the 4th inst., as to the state of mendicancy in my district during the last three years, and at the present time, I have to state, that mendicancy has been progressively and rapidly declining, and that at the present time it no longer can be considered to exist as a substantive or general evil.

A few "Shoulers,"* still clinging to the obsolete notion as expressed in the old song, that > "Of all the trades agoing,

> A-begging is the best;
> For when a man is weary,
> He can sit him down and rest," continue to ply about in some places; and who, for old acquaintance' sake, and from old habits, still pick up a few halfpence, especially in and about towns; but virtually the occupation of a vagrant beggar is gone, as a trade—as a great and wide-spread evil it has ceased to exist; it is no longer productive. A beggar's child is now rarely as a beggar bred. No millionaire of a beggar (if such there are now) would give £100 for a beggar's right to beg on Palmerstown Hill, near Chapelizod, as I remember hearing was paid long after I was a boy. Real want, caused by infirmity or age, can now find a shelter in a workhouse, and rate-payers have not, and will not continue, to give alms to beggars and pay rates for poor-houses; and it is now generally felt and known, that every one who can work, and is willing to work, can live by the hire of their labour.

* Wandering beggars are called "Shoulers" in the south of Ireland.

I have, &c.,

The Poor Law Commissioners. C. G. Otway.

No. 5.—Report from W. J. Hamilton, Esq.

District comprised in the Counties of Tipperary, Waterford, Kilkenny, and Wexford.

Cashel, April 24, 1856.

Gentlemen,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th inst., No. 101, $^{M}/_{56}$, requesting me to report the result of my personal observation and experience as to the existing state of mendicancy in this district, compared with the last three years.

There has been throughout the Poor Law Unions in this district, with one or two exceptions, a considerable decrease of mendicancy within the period referred to; and this almost general decrease has been accompanied by a diminution in the numbers in the workhouses, which, although not nearly so remarkable as in the Western Unions, is greater than was generally anticipated in this part of Ireland, more particularly when the high prices of the necessaries of life, and the classes which by degrees have ceased to seek relief either in the workhouses or by begging, are taken into consideration; and sooner or later, according to the state of order and discipline maintained in each Union, and the education and industrial training of the children, there can be little doubt, under favourable circumstances, that the sick, aged, infirm, and persons of bad character, will constitute the vast majority of the inmates of the workhouses.

There is a portion of this district with respect to which I can only state the result of my personal observation as to the comparative extent of mendicancy for the last fifteen months; but the decrease of mendicancy is so generally admitted, that I think I may fairly judge of that portion by the remainder of the district which is similarly circumstanced in many respects.

The following particulars, in reference to each Union, may not be uninteresting:—

Callan Union.—Mendicancy considerably reduced; fewer persons seeking a night's lodging in the workhouse; there is not one man capable of performing a fair day's work now in the workhouse; the number of inmates reduced from 1,171 in April, 1853, to 529 in April, 1856.

Carrick-on-Suir Union.—Mendicancy not so much abated as in other localities; number of nightly lodgers increased; Vagrant Act not enforced; only three men in the workhouse capable of performing a fair day's work; the number of inmates reduced from 1,049 in April, 1853, to 484 in April, 1856.

Cashel Union.—Mendicancy reduced; number of nightly lodgers decreased; the number of inmates reduced from 2,732 in April, 1853, to 1,005 in April, 1856.

Clogheen Union.—Mendicancy decreased in a marked degree; applications for nights' lodgings in the workhouse becoming daily less; now scarcely one on an average in the month; number of inmates reduced from 1,310 in April, 1853, to 508 in April, 1856; only four men capable of performing a fair day's work now in workhouse.

Clonmel Union.—Mendicancy much on the decrease; there are not now more than two or three nightly lodgers in the week; not one man able to perform a fair day's work; Vagrant Act not strictly enforced; the number of inmates reduced from 2,345 in April, 1853, to 1,172 in April, 1856.

Dungarvan Union.—Mendicancy much decreased; numbers seeking a night's lodging not more than 10 per cent., compared with former years; the able-bodied men are chiefly fishermen who seek relief in severe weather; the Vagrant Act is enforced; the numbers in the workhouse reduced from 1,457 in April, 1853, to 576 in April, 1856.

Enniscorthy Union.—Mendicancy much decreased; not more than one-fifth of the number of nightly lodgers in the workhouse, compared with former years; only two men able to perform a fair day's work; the number of inmates reduced from 1,292 in April, 1853, to 724 in April, 1856.

Kilkenny Union.—Mendicancy not so much abated as in other localities; by enforcing the Vagrant Act, a good deal of the mendicancy in this Union could be effectually prevented; the number of inmates at present is 986, which is very considerably less than the numbers relieved in April, 1853; at the corresponding period last year there were 1,235; the number of nightly lodgers is much less than formerly.

Kilmacthomas Union.—Mendicancy much on the decrease; very few applications for nights' lodgings; not one man capable of performing a fair day's work; Vagrant Act not strictly enforced; numbers reduced from 347 in April, 1853, to 200 in April, 1856.

Lismore.—Mendicancy on the decrease; considerable diminution in the number of persons seeking for nights' lodgings; Vagrant Act not strictly enforced; numbers reduced from 1,164 in April, 1853, to 542 in April, 1856; about seven men able to perform a fair day's work now in the workhouse.

New Ross.—Mendicancy decreases; twelve nightly lodgers in the last seven months; three men capable of performing a fair day's work; Vagrant Act not strictly enforced; the number of inmates reduced from 1,978 in April, 1853, to 841 in April, 1856.

Thomastown.—Mendicancy decreased; nightly lodgers on the decrease; the number of inmates reduced from 766 in April, 1853, to 314 in April, 1856.

Waterford.—Mendicancy has decreased; very few nightly lodgers; no men capable of performing a fair day's work; Vagrant Act occasionally enforced with good effect; the number of inmates reduced from 2,276 in April, 1853, to 1,716 in April, 1856.

Wexford.—Mendicancy considerably decreased; not nearly so many nightly lodgers as formerly; no men capable of performing a fair day's work now in the workhouse; Vagrant Act occasionally enforced; the number of inmates reduced from 1,266 in April, 1853, to 772 in April, 1856.

In reference to the numbers seeking for a night's lodging, I beg to observe, that every effort, consistent with a due regard to humanity, and to the responsibilities imposed upon the relieving officers and masters of workhouses, is made to limit such applications, by enforcing the workhouse test, as to cleanliness, clothing, and a task of work to those who are able to perform it.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

No. 6.—Report from W. P. O'Brien, Esq.

Cork, April 25, 1856.

Gentlemen,

Adverting to your letter of the 4th inst., No. 101, $^{M}/_{56}$, requesting a report from me as to the state of mendicancy in the Galway district at the present time, and during recent years, I have the honour to inform you, as the result of my observation and experience, while residing in the West, that as regards the principal towns, it may be affirmed generally that a considerable number of poor persons have, for years past, existed, and still continue to live altogether upon the fruits of street begging, and that, for all practical purposes, the Act 10 & 11 Vic., ch. 84, which was framed for the repression of this evil, may be said to be very nearly, if not entirely, inoperative.

In the rural districts, professional mendicancy had almost ceased to prevail during the famine period, but as the condition of the farming classes has gradually improved, and food has become more abundant and cheaper, symptoms of a revival of the system have been observable, and both individuals and families, formerly habituated to this mode of life, are now not uncommonly found to leave the workhouse during the periods of the year most favourable for the purpose, and seek a living by begging through the country from house to house, and, as frequently happens, from Union to Union; but, though I believe cases of this nature are often to be met with at the present time, there can, nevertheless, be no doubt that, as compared with the state of things in existence antecedent to the famine visitation, the evil has, as far at least as the rural districts are concerned, abated sensibly; and from the clear perception which the people through the country, generally, now have of the serious social evils flowing from professional vagrancy, and more especially so, from bringing up large numbers of children in the habits of vice and ignorance it entails, I am persuaded that a time has now arrived, in every way most favourable for its complete and effectual suppression, and that it needs but a little energy and firmness at the outset, and the delegation to some defined body of persons of the duty of practically carrying into effect the provisions of the Act of the Legislature, to insure the immediate and successful accomplishment of this most desirable object.

It is hardly necessary for me to observe that, in the constabulary force, an agency already exists throughout Ireland, most eminently adapted for any purpose such as this; and from my knowledge of that most useful body, I entertain no doubt that if the duty were once distinctly confided to them, the complete extinction of every trace of mendicancy in the country would be attained without difficulty or delay.

Cork, April 25, 1856.

GENTLEMEN,

I have, in pursuance of the instructions conveyed to me in your letter of the 4th inst., No. 101, $^{M}/_{56}$, had the honour to forward to you on this day a report upon the subject of the prevalence of mendicancy in the Galway district; and in accordance with your request, that I should also furnish you with my observations on the same subject, in relation to the Cork district, I have the honour to state for your information, that I have now completed a tour of the Unions at present under my charge, and that so far as I have been able to gather from personal observation and inquiry, I am disposed to think that, upon the whole, the number of persons living by mendicancy, either during the entire or portions of the year, is very much less in the rural districts here than in the West of Ireland; but in the towns, if I except one or two cases, in which I understand the local magistrates have suppressed the system, through the constabulary, I believe that the observations I have had the honour to offer upon the western towns apply, substantially, with nearly equal force in this part of Ireland; and that here, also, some very much more effective measures of repression than any now or heretofore in force, must be had recourse to before any radical change in the present condition of things can be hoped for.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

WILLIAM P. O'BRIEN.

No. 8.—Report from Samuel Horsley, Esq.

District comprised in the Counties of Cork, Kerry, and Limerick.

April 26, 1856.

Gentlemen,

Adverting to the Commissioners' communication of the 4th instant, I have the honour to report, that during the last three years mendicancy has steadily and greatly decreased throughout my district.

Numerous mendicants are not now, as formerly, seen going from house to house in search of eleemosynary assistance, in the shape of food and shelter; nor are travellers by public or private conveyances so frequently importuned for alms by beggars of every age and sex, at every town or stoppage on the road.

Except in large towns committals for vagrancy have become of comparatively rare occurrence; and a greatly improved tone, in point of self-reliance, and a spirit of independence, is observable in the conduct of the industrial classes generally.

This important decline in mendicancy, and the favourable progress in the condition of the peasantry and industrial classes, within the last three years, must certainly be attributed, in a great measure, to there having been, during the whole of that period, a constantly growing demand for labour of all kinds at an improved rate of wages; but I think, at the same time, the satisfactory state of matters with respect to mendicancy may in part be ascribed to the legal provision made for the relief of all really destitute persons having gradually operated to check the exercise of indiscriminate charity, and so put an end to begging, as an easy means of obtaining a livelihood on the part of the wilfully idle or improvident.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, your very obedient servant,

Samuel Horsley.

Strabane, April 28, 1856.

Gentlemen,

In reply to your letter of the 4th inst., No. 101, $^{M}/_{56}$, requesting me to report what has been the result of my personal observations as to the state of mendicancy during the past three years, and at the present time; I have no hesitation in stating that mendicancy is generally on the increase throughout my district, especially so in the county of Donegal, and that there are more strolling beggars now than there have been for some time past.

The abundant supply of potatoes and other provisions in the hands of the small farmers is the principal cause of this state of things.

I have made particular inquiries on the subject, and there are only four unions in my district where mendicancy is represented to be on the decrease.

The Vagrant Act is seldom or ever put in force.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

No. 10.—Report from C. S. Crawford, Esq.

District comprised in the Counties of Dublin, Carlow, Tipperary, Kildare, Kilkenny, Queen's, Wexford, and Wicklow.

Dublin, April 28, 1856.

Gentlemen,

In reference to your letter of the 4th inst., No. 101, $^{M}/_{56}$, requesting me to state the result of my observation and experience as to the state of mendicancy in my district, consequent upon the favourable progress in the condition of the peasantry, which has taken place in the course of the last four years, I have the honour to make the following report.

The number of professional mendicants has everywhere very considerably decreased, and but few of this class are now to be met with in the district. They may be said to be confined to some parties belonging to the aged and infirm class, who, during the period of fine weather in summer, take their discharge from the workhouses, to return again, in a short time, when the weather becomes broken.

Besides the professional mendicant, there were, some years ago, to be found many parties in a very destitute condition, travelling through the country, apparently seeking for employment. They had been put away from their former residence in consequence of the effects of the potato failure, and had not succeeded in gaining permanent employment elsewhere.

The applications of this class for relief used to be most numerous, but have been gradually decreasing every year according as the parties have obtained a settled residence. Formerly, the applications at the several workhouses for night lodgings were very large in number, but have now everywhere very much diminished, and, at the present time, are by no means excessive.

I think the decrease in mendicancy in this district is altogether attributable to the improved condition of the country, as I do not see that there is any disposition, generally, to have strict recourse to the provisions of the Vagrant Act, which are only put in force in cases of an extraordinary nature.

I have the honour to be your most obedient servant,

Charles S. Crawford, Poor Law Inspector.

No. V.—Letter to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant on the subject of Reductions in the Annual Expense of the Office.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
11th February, 1856.

Sir,

Adverting to their letter to Sir John Young, of the date, 2nd December, 1854, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, desire to mention, for the information of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the steps which have since been taken by them in reduction of the annual expenses of this department.

In their letter to Sir John Young of the above date, the Commissioners pointed out the various reductions which they hoped to be enabled to make; and accordingly, on the 31st March, 1855, the services of six Poor Law Inspectors, one Medical Inspector, and one Auditor, were discontinued; and on the 30th September following, the services of the Architect, the Assistant Secretary, and the Clerk at the head of the First Class, were dispensed with.

Since the date of the same letter a further reduction of the number of extra clerks has also taken place.

The entire reduction thus effected, as will appear hereafter in the estimate for the year ending 31st March, 1857, in comparison with the estimate for the year ending 31st March, 1855, is £8,007, notwithstanding the additional emoluments allowed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to certain officers in pursuance of Messrs. Bromley and Stephenson's recommendations, concurred in by the Commissioners.

It is right to observe that, in doing away with the Architect's department, whereby some considerable part of the saving has accrued, the Commissioners thought it necessary, for the due discharge of the responsibility which attaches to them, in respect of the Workhouse buildings, and Fever Hospitals in Ireland, to retain the services of Mr. Barney, late Assistant to the Architect, whose professional knowledge, after sixteen years' experience under Mr. Wilkinson, is felt to be of much use and value in the frequent correspondence occurring on the subject of those buildings. This intention was announced in the letter to Sir John Young, of the 2nd December, 1854, (see House of Commons Paper, No. 69, printed 22nd February, 1855,) and again to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, on the 8th June, 1855, and was carried into effect in October following.

As Mr. Barney had, for the last ten years, ranked as a clerk of the first class with a corresponding salary, the reduction effected by abolition of the Architect's department would have been lessened by the annual sum of £350, the present minimum of that class, had not the Commissioners been enabled to dispense with the services of Mr. Walmisley, the late cashier, who was at the head of the first class of clerks, and whose greatly diminished duties have been now sufficiently provided for in the Secretary's department.

By Mr. Barney's accession to the vacancy thus made in the first class, the full amount of reduction in the Architect's department has been realized; and in addition to it the sum of £65, that is to say, the difference between the minimum salary (£350), and £415, which was the amount of Mr. Walmisley's salary.

It remains to be observed, that all the reductions which were contemplated by the Commissioners, in their communications to Sir John Young, and to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, have been carried out, with the exception of the abolition of the office of Secretary, which could only be effected by an Act of Parliament.

Should the course then recommended be now adopted, the estimate for next year will amount to about £31,786; from which sum, if the proportion of expenses incurred under the Medical Charities Act be deducted, and if the salaries of the auditors which are, properly speaking, Union salaries, be deducted (as is the case in the estimate of the English Poor Law Board), the residue being the expense incurred on account of the Poor Law branch of the department, will be about £22,000, a sum which exceeds the expenses of the Poor Law Commission in Ireland before the famine (viz. £18,166), by about £4,000; and this excess is nearly accounted for by the improved scale of some of the salaries sanctioned by the Treasury, and the annual increments which have accrued in course of time, and which naturally cause a larger proportionate increase in a new than in an old department.

By order of the Commissioners,

W. Stanley, Secretary.

To the Right Hon. Edward Horsman, M.P., &c., &c., Irish Office, London.

No. VI.—Regulations for the Conduct of the Business of the Department.

Minute.

Reference being had to the Act abolishing the Office of Secretary, and the several Minutes consequent on that and other recent reductions in the Department.

Ordered,

That the arrangements for conducting the business of the office which have grown up, under varying circumstances, since the first establishment of the Poor Law in Ireland, be now revised, consolidated and fixed by Regulations intended to secure the following objects, viz.:—

Firstly.—A continued adherence to those provisions of the Statutes 10 and 11 Vic. cap. 90 (Irish Poor Law Administration Act), and 14 and 15 Vic. cap. 68 (Medical Charities Act), which define the constitution of the Commission, its mode of action, and its powers and responsibilities.

Secondly.—A continued adherence to those provisions of the 4th section of the Act 4 and 5 William IV. cap. 76, under which the present mode of recording the proceedings of the Commission has been adopted.

Thirdly.—The existence of such arrangements in the office, and especially such an organization and system of discipline, as may secure definite responsibility, uniformity of procedure, and regularity and continuous action in the despatch of business; together with a complete and accessible record of all acts and proceedings under the Commission, and of the considerations on which they are founded.

That with this view the following Regulations be adopted:—

Poor Law Commission.—Regulations for the Conduct of the Business of the Office.

I. Division of Business.

The Office shall comprise the following separate Departments:—

1. The Registry Department.
2. The Correspondence Department.
3. The Statistical Department.
4. The Copying Department.
5. The Workhouse Buildings Department.

First.—The Registry Department shall consist of a Superintendent and such and so many Clerks as shall, from time to time, be assigned to the duty of registering papers, keeping indexes thereof, and finding such former papers as are required to be brought forward for the despatch of current business, and arranging and depositing the papers when finally disposed of.

Second.—The Correspondence Department shall be arranged as follows:—

The general correspondence shall be divided into, firstly, Miscellaneous, and secondly, Union Correspondence.

The Chief Clerk shall take direct charge of all the Miscellaneous Correspondence, together with all Union Correspondence relating to the Election of Guardians.

The Union Correspondence, excepting such as relates to the business of Elections of Guardians, shall be in the direct charge of such and so many Correspondence Clerks as shall be appointed to that duty from time to time, each having charge of a Division of Unions, and Poor Law papers being kept in a Division or Divisions distinct from papers relating to the Medical Charities.

Third.—The Statistical Department shall consist of a Superintendent, and such and so many Clerks as shall, from time to time, be assigned to the duty of preparing, keeping, and arranging the various Tables and other Statistical information required for the conduct of the current business, for the Annual Reports, and for Returns from time to time required by Parliament; examining the half-yearly Abstracts of Union Accounts, the Weekly Returns of Rates collected, the Estimates for new Rates, the Weekly Returns of the number of persons relieved in and out of the Workhouses; and preparing the Medical Charities Statistics.

Fourth.—The Copying Department shall consist of a Superintendent, and of such and so many Clerks as shall, from time to time, be assigned to the duty of Copying Letters and other Documents, of entering all Letters written, into the Letter Book, and examining the Copies of all Documents so made with the originals.

Fifth.—The Workhouse Buildings Department shall consist of a Principal Clerk, who shall have one Assistant, and who shall take charge of all papers which may be referred to him by the Commissioners, relating to the state of the Workhouse Buildings, and any repairs or alterations thereof.

II. Organization.

The Chief Clerk, who has, under the direction of the Commissioners, the general superintendence of the office, and all the several departments thereof, will have four Assistants:—the first of whom will have immediate care of the preparation of Orders and Minutes, and the custody of the Seal of the Commission, the Union Title Deeds, and all legal instruments belonging to, or in the custody of, the Commissioners.

The second and third Assistants will have immediate charge under the Chief Clerk, as heretofore under the Secretary, of the Office Accounts, the Diaries of the Inspectors, the Weekly Returns of Business done, the Weekly Returns of the attendance of the Clerks in the Office, and the Quarterly Summaries thereof, and all Correspondence relating to the Office, all Parliamentary Papers and printed Books required for general reference in the Office, and all Stationery and Forms required for Office use; and will keep an account of the receipt and distribution of the Stationery used in the Office, and furnished to Inspectors and Auditors. The fourth Assistant will assist the Chief Clerk in the care of the Miscellaneous Correspondence, and the Correspondence relating to Elections.

Every Correspondence Clerk will have one Assistant to assist him in drafting letters from the minuted directions of the Commissioners, and otherwise as he may require.

In the absence of the Chief Clerk, from illness or other cause, his duties will devolve upon the Senior Correspondence Clerk, or other Clerk selected by the Commissioners, who, for the time, will be relieved from his ordinary duties.

In the absence of any Correspondence Clerk, his duties will devolve upon his Assistant.

In the absence of the Superintendent of any of the Departments, his duties will devolve upon the Senior Clerk in such Department.

III. Despatch of Business.

The Superintendent of the Registry Department will attend at eight o'clock in the morning, as at present. The Letter Bag is to be opened, and the Letters opened and stamped with the date of their receipt in his presence by a Messenger. The Superintendent, or one of his Assistants, will then number all the papers consecutively (excepting Returns which are not to be numbered), and will cause the requisite particulars regarding them to be entered in sheets called the Day-Register.

These sheets are to comprise the following particulars entered in columns ruled for the purpose:—

The number of the paper.
The name and address of the writer.
The name of Union (if any) to which it relates.
The date of the paper.
The general subject of the paper.
The Correspondence Clerk to whose division it belongs.
The name of the Inspector, or other Officer of the Commission to whom it may be referred.
The Date of reference.
The Date of its return.

A Memorandum of any former papers which may be referred with it.

The entries in the columns of these sheets will be made as far as the column showing the Correspondence Clerk to whose Division the paper belongs, and the papers will then be entered in "The Register," (Record of Proceedings, part II).

This Record is to be kept in sheets filed in Portfolios—a separate sheet or sheets being appropriated to the Poor Law Correspondence of each Union, to the Medical Charities Correspondence of each Union, to each Inspector, to each Auditor, to Correspondence relating to the conduct of the business of the Office and to Miscellaneous Correspondence, the latter comprising all correspondence which does not relate to a particular Union or Unions, or to some one of the Inspectors or Auditors, or to the conduct of the business of the Office ; a separate sheet is also to be kept for "M Letters," that is, for Letters originating in the office, and not in reply to any communication received. The sheets are to be bound in volumes at the end of each year.

The following are the particulars to be entered in this Record, each paper being entered in the sheet appropriated to the Union or class of papers to which it may belong ; and such entries to be made strictly in the order in which the papers are received :—

The number of the paper.
The name and address of the writer.
Date of the paper.
Date of its receipt.
A brief statement of the contents of the paper.
A brief minute of the order given on the paper by the Commissioners.
The date of such order.
A reference to the Volume and Page of the Letter Book (Record of Proceedings, part III.) in which the Letter written in reply (if any) will be found.

The Returns which are not numbered, are to be registered in sheets provided for that purpose ; a separate sheet or sheets being appropriated to each weekly or monthly Return ; each sheet having the names of the several Unions printed in the margin, and being ruled with suitable columns ; the headings of the columns showing the week or month to which the Return relates. Under these headings, opposite to the name of each Union, is to be entered the date of the receipt, from such Union, of the Return for the period indicated by the heading.

Where the Return is not a periodical one, but has been called for specially, a single column will suffice for the entries, the column being headed with a reference to the Register number of the Letter by which the Return was called for.

The entries of the numbered papers in the Record of Proceedings having been made as far as the statement of the contents of the paper, and the unnumbered Returns having been duly registered in the appropriate sheets, the numbered papers are to be distributed to the several parties whose duty it is to bring them before the Commissioners, and the unnumbered Returns to the Departments to which they relate.

Papers which have on previous days been entered in the Day Register and Record of Proceedings, and which, having been referred to Inspectors or Auditors, are received back, are to be stamped with the date on which they are so received back, the receipt entered in the proper column of the Day Register ("Date of Return"), and then distributed to the parties who are to take charge of them, in the same manner as newly received papers.

The person to whom any numbered paper is thus distributed shall prepare it for the directions of the Commissioners, attaching to the paper a "Fly-sheet," and procuring, where necessary, from the Clerk in charge of the deposited papers, in the Registry Department, the former papers relating to the case; and, where the nature of the case renders it desirable, he is to make a precis of the documents.

The Weekly Minutes of the Guardians' proceedings, and the Quarterly or other Reports from Inspectors, are to be examined by the Correspondence Clerk, to whose division they may belong, and all passages which require special notice on the part of the Commissioners are to be marked with a distinctive letter, and a corresponding letter placed on the fly-sheet.

Each of the persons having charge of Correspondence will submit his papers to the Commissioners, and receive their directions thereon, duly initialed by those Commissioners to whom they are submitted for that purpose.

Having obtained the Commissioners' directions on the papers of the day, the Correspondence Clerk will send all such papers as are directed to be referred to Inspectors, or others, back to the Registry Department, where the requisite entries will be made in the proper column of the Day Register, and the papers despatched to the parties to whom they are referred. He will likewise, with his Assistant, proceed to draft such letters as have been directed to be written, and will send them to the Copying Department. Papers which are finally disposed of will be marked "Deposit," and initialed by the Commissioners, and will then be sent to the Registry Department, where the requisite particulars regarding the disposal of such papers will be entered in the Record of Proceedings, and indexed, and the papers handed over to the Clerk in charge of such papers, for deposit in their proper place, according to the classified arrangement adopted for the deposit of papers.

The Draft letters which are sent to the Copying Department will be distributed by the Superintendent among the Clerks to whom the duty of Copying is assigned, and the copies, when compared with the drafts by such of the Clerks in that Department as shall be charged with the duty of examining, shall be brought to the Chief Clerk for signature, the correctness of the copy being vouched by the initials of the examiner. When signed, they will be despatched from that Department, and the Drafts afterwards copied into the Letter Books, in order of date, a separate Book being provided for each Union, for Miscellaneous Correspondence, Office Correspondence, and for Correspondence with Inspectors and Auditors. After being entered in the Letter Book, the Drafts will be transferred to the Registry Department, where they will be indexed, and, if marked for reference to the Inspector (which will generally be the case), they will be forwarded to him in the same manner as other papers are referred, and on their return the entries in the Record of Proceedings will be completed, and the Drafts deposited with the papers to which they relate.

IV. Orders, Directions, and Minutes.

When any Act is required to be done under the Seal of the Commission, and is, therefore, according to Statute, to be signed either by two Commissioners or by the Chief Commissioner, or by the Commissioner exercising the powers and duties of the Chief Commissioner in his absence, before the order or other instrument bearing the Seal of the Commission is submitted for signature, the Chief Clerk, or other Clerk acting for him in his absence, shall place his initials under the Seal in every case.

A Minute of every Act done under the Seal of the Commission is to be entered in the Minute Book (Record of Proceedings, Part I.), with a reference to the book called the Order Book (Record of Proceedings, Part IV.), in which the document, duly sealed and signed, is to be found.

A Minute shall be made in the Minute Book of every Act of the Commissioners, not required to be done under the Seal of the Commission, which shall confer or take away any office or appointment under the Commission, or by which any payment of money, or the signature of any deeds or other legal instruments by the Commissioners shall take place, or which shall be directed by the Commissioners, from time to time, to be specially minuted in the Minute Book.

The minutes of all directions of the Commissioners on the papers laid before them in ordinary course shall be made on the papers themselves, or on the blank sheet attached to them; and every such direction shall be initialed either by two Commissioners or by the Chief Commissioner, or in his absence by the Commissioner exercising the powers and duties of the Chief Commissioner.

No Act shall be considered to be done, and no direction shall be considered to be made, which shall not have been signed or initialed by the Commissioners in the manner above described.

V. Record of Proceedings.

I. The Minute Book.
II. The Register.
III. The Letter Book.
IV. The Order Book.

Together with the original papers bearing the Minutes, Directions, or Memoranda of the Commissioners, arranged in portfolios, and preserved for reference in the Registry Department.
